

Around Our Town - SHELBY SIDELIGHTS - By Renn Drum.

OVER TO Central school. THERE IS a teacher. THAT LIKES humor. COMING OR going. WHICH IS different. FROM SOME folks. WHO LIKE to tell. SO-CALLED jokes. BUT ARE not. SUCH GOOD listeners. BUT TO get back. TO OUR story. LAST WEEK a boy. HANDED HIS essay. IN TO her. AND NOTICING that. IT WAS WELL written. SHE QUERIED him: "WILLIE, DID your FATHER WRITE this?" AND WILLIE replied: "UNK-UH, NO ma'am. HE STARTED it. BUT MOTHER had to. WRITE IT over." AND HIS teacher. GAVE UNTO him. A GOOD grade. FOR TELLING the truth. AND FOR the poke. AND HE thanked her. AND WE, thank you.

stop at grade crossings. However, some time they're likely to have their license to drive on this earth taken away from now on. A railroad locomotive is a stern judge.

Our latest style hint comes from the London Op-nion: "New silk stockings are so thin that it is possible to read the newspapers through them. Most men, however, are content to glance at a few lines."

Today's Shelby puzzle: Where will the sheriff's council park now that it is now out-of-door weather and the court square lawn has been sown in grass?

Mr. Jordan, the new proprietor of the Chevrolet agency in Shelby, tells us something new. There are more women drivers in America than men, he says. Woman can drive from the back seat, is his explanation.

Shelby has out-grown any town in the state during the past five years and is still spreading, but after all it's a regular little home town. Meaning it's become this week since Milt Tolbert's tent show folded tents and departed.

Even yet travelling about town one hears a lot of folks who express their regrets that they didn't go to visit Florida during the rush. Which is all right, but perhaps these self same folks might not have their lives protected by insurance had they made the trip.

Sounds funny no doubt, but the head of a national life insurance company announces that a big percentage of all the policies lapsing during the past year were those of Florida visitors. Insurance men here nod a silent agreement.

Birthday Dinner.

There will be a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. M. A. Wright on Kings Creek, S. C. R-1 in honor of Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Johnnie Hamrick of Patterson Grove, the 25th day of April. Everybody invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

Kings Mountain Cops Boiling Springs Game

Skates struck out 16 men in Shelby Friday afternoon for the Kings Mountain Highs, paving the way for a 7 to 6 victory over Boiling Springs in the semi-finals of the county championship.

The hitting of Skates and Mauney for the Kings Mountain aggregation and Ramsey's battling for Boiling Springs were features.

Kings Mountain meets Shelby in the finals.

County Republicans Attend Convention

Those attending the Republican State convention at Durham last week were: W. R. Casstevens, Clyde Parrish, J. H. Quinn, S. B. Hamrick, C. A. Brittain, S. S. Weir, P. P. Richards and H. Clay Cox.

The same delegates attending state convention are delegates to attend the Republican Congressional convention which meets at Burnsville Friday, April 16, to nominate a candidate for congress in the 9th district.

The Butler plan of reorganization of the Republican party of North Carolina went "down like the Titanic" by several hundred votes and the Johnson-Hays plan was adopted by over 700 votes.

PAINS ALL OVER

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherly, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength."

"I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."
