THEATRES

"His People" at the Webb Monday and Tuesday is a dramatization of one of the fundamental emotions of the heart—the love of a father for his sons. The career of two youths—one of hypocritical virtue and the other a prodigal, and the reactions of a devoted father as their tragic lives unfold—constitutes the theme for this picture, declared to be one of the most appealing ever made.

It will be shown at the Webb Monday and Tuesday to give everyone a chance to see it. Also a good comedy in "Alice in Wonderland." Mr. Claude Webb, manager of the Webb theatre, spent Sunday in Charlotte, where he attended a special showing of Norma Talmadge's "Kiki." Mr. Webb declared this latest Talmadge special to be one of the best he ever saw, and he booked the production for an early showing at his theatre.

Crammed with the melodrama of a band of smugglers operating along the Mexican border, lightened by the comic efforts of a cook who persists in creating ticklishly tight situations, and with the glamor of a delightful romance, "The Fighting Edge", a Warner picture is showing at the Webb today. "Let's Get Married" is a sane enough entertainment within itself. Richard Dix with Lois Wilson. There is lots of fun in a night club when Dix and his pals, in an effort to get away from the police, grab a loaf of bread, use it as a football, drive straight ahead and land in the police patrol wagon. It is one of the fastest funniest film forces ever staged.

Romance and thrill go hand in hand in "Whispering Smith", a mighty epic of the railroad and the wild, a most dramatic colorful human document the screen has known, a wonder picture.

WACO PERSONAL NEWS OF PEOPLE COMING AND GOING (Special to The Star.) Mrs. Burg'n Smith and children spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John P. Dellinger near Waco.

Mrs. Ernest Wright and children are spending the week end with her parents near Waco. Mrs. Bridgman is spending the week with her daughter in Gaffney, S. C.

Mr. John P. Dellinger and family were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dellinger's in the Grover section Sunday. Miss Inez McIntyre visited Miss Lucy and Miss Ella Ree Dellinger on Sunday afternoon.

PRINCESS THEATRE HOME OF FIRST RUN HIGH-CLASS ATTRACTIONS. —TONIGHT— "THE FIGHTING EDGE" With Kenneth Harlan and Patsy Ruth Miller.

From the novel by Wm. McLeod Raine. Also a good comedy. —TOMORROW— (Tuesday) "LET'S GET MARRIED" A Paramount picture with Richard Dix and Lois Wilson.

EASEL PICTURE FRAMES Get up your photographs and bring them here for framing. Almost every size and finish that is made—in fact it is the most beautiful lot of frames ever shown here. Also Frames in Metal, finished in Gold and Silver. The price on these frames is very reasonable. No extra charge for fitting. T. W. HAMRICK CO. —JEWELERS AND OPTOMETRISTS—

AT THE WEBB THEATRE COMING MONDAY AND TUESDAY —Today and Tomorrow— The Carl Laemmle Production "HIS PEOPLE" With Rudolph Schildkraut and a notable cast. A picture described as the greatest heart drama of the decade. Because of its drawing power wherever it has been shown, THE WEBB THEATRE has decided to bill it for two days to give every local Theatre goer the privilege of seeing it. The picture is a powerful dramatization of family life—the career of two sons, and a father who loved them with a great devotion. It is a clean, fine, wholesome play, with a universal heart appeal. See it, and you will be wiser in the ways of human character and human love. WEBB THEATRE

MRS. MARTHA ALAN WELLS DIES AT HOME NEAR CLOVER Clover, S. C., April 16.—Mrs. Martha Alan Wells wife of Albertus M. Wells died at her home a few miles west of Clover Tuesday evening. Mrs. Wells had been in her usual health and on Tuesday morning she was about her work outside the house when she was suddenly stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage. There being no one near but two small children it was some time before any help came. She was never conscious after help arrived.

She is survived by her husband and six small children and her father, L. A. Alan, and the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Sam Jones, Mrs. Katie Alan, Miss Fannie Bright Alan all living near Clover; Mrs. Sam Patterson, of Patterson Springs, N. C., and Robert and Stanford Alan, of Clover.

STILL SEARCH FOR LINK OF IDENTITY IN CASE stened mother had written her that her fathers old album in which was the little picture of mine was burned when Miss Sue's house got burned. I saw Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. McKnight this afternoon as they came over here on business. Mrs. Proctor says that she is firmly convinced that I am Charlie Ross. I do not know why. Would like to hear from you some time soon, and would also like to come over as soon as I can, but would prefer to allow all this publicity die down ere I do. Trusting that you and Mrs. Gaffney are both well this fine weather. I beg to remain, Very truly yours, Julius C. Dellinger.

Campbells' shoes wear longer and cost less. Let them convince you.
