TWINKLES.A monopoly on mysteries Shelby had here this week with two Charlie Rosses in town.It was fitting that the man first to fly over the North Pole was a Byrd.June 5 is drawing nearer and as yet Cleveland county does not have quite one hundred candidates.One swallow may not make spring, but one swallow sometimes indicates that something has been sprung.A business survey in a New York journal says every 3,000 population demands one modern apartment house. Which means at least three should be in Shelby right now.True to form it rained again this year just after the Charlotte Speedway races, but hereabouts there's no desire for the entire season of last year to be repeated.Ye Paragapher notes that a tin mine will begin operating in Lincoln. Now perhaps Ford will move one of his flivver plants near to the production center of materials.Wonder if there'll be any disappointments in June outside of defeated politicians? Y'know it's also the month of June brides-- and by necessity where there's a bride there also a groom.Charles Ross, assistant attorney general, says $12,000 has been spent in trying to locate Highway 10 by Newton. And we add that several dozen columns of newspaper space have also been spent.If the British strike would spread all over Europe perhaps it would teach some of the countries to cease sending their labor agitators over to America to stir up strikes.The best way to be sure how many of the candidates will be successful in the coming primary is to wait until June 6, which is not any information, but is just as safe as predictions and more likely to be right.Ye Paragapher wonders why someone didn't take the highway commissioners here Monday out for a jaunt along some of our detours. A wrangle may have held up the Newton road, but we've heard of nothing to slow up Highway 20 to the westward.To the delight of kidhood Babe Ruth has staged a come-back in baseball and today he's receiving the compliments of the fans of the world's greatest pastime.
Compliments that overshadow those paid Johnson, the old master who never weakened, and Jess Petty, who forgot he was gassed in France, and still cuts them down from the mound.Viewing the Newton highway tangle as an uninterested bystander, it seems as if the Catawba town is morally right and the highway commission technically right. Which is neither here nor there. It does seem that from a matter of justice the highway should go through the center of Newton, but then there's that precedent of crossing the road commission that may prove dangerous in the future.SEEING A PUBLICITY MAN.Scores of curious people gave the man believed to be Charlie Ross the "once-over" when he visited Shelby this week.Speaking in the terms of publicity, Shelby made Ross, or Del-linger, and Dellinger gave Shelby a big share of publicity. Yet this week was the first time in years that the two had gotten together.Wherein we are reminded of the prominent Gastonia citizen's prize for North Carolina newspaper service during 1926.If Dellinger proves to be Ross what newspaper feat of the year would surpass the uncovering of America's greatest kidnaping mystery?Which is getting mighty close to personal boosting.COUNTY POLITICS.In today's issue The Star carries a brief survey of the county political situation.The season of the year with the primary demands it—not any political heat that has arisen.All of which should be received with rejoicing by Cleveland county folks. Slurs and badly conducted campaigns bringing in bitterness and hard words seem to have had their day. Although the county has a great array of candidates no knowledge comes to this paper of anything other than above-board campaigns. Candidates are presented their strong points and are not hurling bitter statements at opposing candidates.There may be a small amount of petty differences, but no issues have arisen so far that would have a lasting ill effect.
And it is the hope of this paper that the campaigns will continue so. Cleanly conducted political campaigns do not hurt a community, and the opposite type of campaign doesn't carry enough good with it to be worthwhile.With the nearing of primary day it is our urge that you go out and vote. Vote for the candidate you believe will best serve your interests and the interests of the county. Let no personal views have too much to do with your vote.

But, above all, vote on that day. And vote for the candidate of your choice, not the candidate of persuasion.Knob Creek News And Toluca Items

(Special to The Star.)

Most farmers in this section are through planting cotton seed at last.Knob Creek baseball boys played two very interesting ball games Saturday evening. The first game with Belwood and the second game was with the Casar boys. Although having lost both games the K. C. boys did splendid playing. They were good on batting, but their greatest fault was errors made by the fielders. "Ed" Cook the K. C. Pitcher, did splendid pitching. He also did exceedingly well at the bat. He knocked a home run.
There were several three base hits by the K. C. players.Messrs Carmie and Rachel Young of Newton visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Young of Toluca Sunday.Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sain visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sain Sunday afternoon.Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bingham, Mr. and Mrs.
Millie Sain and Mrs. S. A. Sain, all of Toluca, motored to Lincoln Monday to attend the funeral services of young Dr. Gordon Crowell. There were hundreds present at the funeral.
They also reported that there was three truck loads of flowers.Messrs Roy Carpenter and Mr. Edgar Cook were representatives of Carpenters Grove church at the Baptist convention held at Hendersonville, last week.There will be memorial services held at Carpenters Grove church Sunday May 16th. Everyone cordially invited to come and bring flowers.ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic Voters of Cleveland

County:
I hereby announce that I am a candidate for a member of the Board of Education of Cleveland county subject to the Democratic primary June 5th. I will appreciate the support of my friends throughout the county, and in event of my nomination will serve to the best of my ability.Respectfully, W. D. LACKEY.PROFITS
in DAIRYINGDepend more on the quality of your cows and the feed and care you give them than on the price of their product.Cull your herd, and give better attention to your money-makers.There is always profit when there are good cows, good feed, good barns and wise handling of the cream and milk.Let us help you make larger profits from your cows this year.

We pay best prices for milk.
