Judge Says Check Law Is Invalid

Means in Certain Instances Imprisonment For Debt, Says Devin

Durham.—Holding that it is violation of the United States constitution, prohibiting imprisonment for debt, to convict a person for giving a worthless check for a past due account...

The decision reversing the Recorder's Court fine and order to make good the check, holds as unconstitutional the law passed by the General Assembly last year...

The worthless check law, passed last year, was to have been tested out before the North Carolina Supreme Court in a case before the court last week.

Complaint was filed, answer filed, evidence heard and judgment rendered, all in one day, in a small suit in Durham Superior Court here today.

Correct this sentence: "I'll give a million to the institution," said he, "but there must be no publicity."

Synonym for the year: As excited as Reed of Missouri.

The middle class people are those whose diet is scraps the day after company leaves.

A search was instituted for the two boys. One of them was found at Elm street school, and arrested.

There is justice, and a bull-dozing lawyer probably has a wife who is animated by a how-come complex.

Example of kidding the first person singular: wealthy go-getter saying he doesn't love money for its own sake.

FROM PALETTE TO MORTAR BOARD

Young artists turn from their jars of color and paint brushes to assist plasterers in setting ornaments in place atop huge pylons which adorn the main entrance to the Palace of Agriculture and Food Products...

SEEK TO ADVANCE NEWTON ROAD CASE

Raleigh, May 19.—The Supreme Court has under consideration the motion made in court today that the Newton highway case be set for hearing at an early date.

The motion was made by Attorney-General Dennis G. Braumitt and was unopposed by Newton attorneys.

The case is an appeal from the ruling of Judge James L. Webb making the restraining order with reference to location of the highway against the State Highway commission permanent.

LIEUTENANT BYRD WILL FLY SOUTH

Oslo, Norway, May 19.—A telegram to the Aftenposten from Spitzbergen says that Lieutenant Commander Richard E. Byrd, U. S. N., first man to fly over the North Pole, plans to undertake an expedition to the South Pole as soon as possible.

The big problem is distribution, says Peter Grigg. Too many pedestrians and automobiles are trying to occupy the same space.

If your head bumps the top every three seconds, says Tom Lattimore, you are on the right detour.

Judge (sternly): And why had you been drinking?

Motorist (meekly): Please, your honor, the doctor told me my blood was getting watery and I put in a little alcohol to keep my blood from freezing.

"Which is the preferable road to Smithville—by way of Jonesboro or by way of Brownstown?"

"Well, some prefer one, some the other."

"Why, the preference?"

"Well, the ones who go via Browns town prefer the Smithville way, and vice versa."

If all the world's a stage, Max Washburn says, the grade crossings must be the exits.

Proverb improved: A fool and his automobile are best parted.

Many a wicked line she typed

Until the boss' heart she swiped: But after the martial march was piped

Many a dirty dish she wiped.

It's hard for the average citizen to realize that 40 years ago there was no such a thing as a spark plug and every road was a detour.

Willie Willis: "Pop, what is a mortgage?" Mr. Willis: Oh, it's something that comes with an automobile, my son.

Sign on a Flivver that went squeaking up LaFayette street yesterday: "You don't need to laugh girls. If you had all the paint rubbed off you, you would look like heck, too."

At 10 Miles An Hour: "I understand you have a second-hand car. Do you drive it?" "No! We coax it along."

Cadillac owner: "What was the strangest accident you ever had?" Lincoln owner: "Well, yesterday I drove down town and found a place to park at once."

The engine that knocks is losing power. Clint Newton says, the man who knocks has little to lose.

Why pay an exorbitant price for gas? Walk along any well paved highway and you can breathe all you want of it free.

Ben Higgins never would be passed. He bragged his car's endurance. He passed six cars with backward glance—

His wife has his insurance.

If she is driving and he is afraid she'll hit something, she is his wife.

Speed Cop: You were doing forty-five. Flivver Driver: Oh, you flatterer.

While quite a number of crossing smash-ups have occurred in the past year, it seems that in pretty near every instance the locomotive had a clear case of self-defense.

Flivver Sam sign on back of Ford passing through Shelby: "An Accident—Going Out To Happen."

Ah! Truth At Last: When thieves fall out they become taxi drivers.

YOUNG FELLOWS ROB HIGH-POINT BANK

High Point, May 19.—The Commercial National bank was robbed of $650 by two boys ages 9 and 11, here today.

The two little boys, whose names are withheld because of their extreme youth, entered a side door of the bank this morning about 8 o'clock.

The little fellows might have succeeded in the theft had they not tried to get the bills cashed at several places.

A search was instituted for the two boys. One of them was found at Elm street school, and arrested.

Ideal Plumbing & Heating Co.

A home is as good as its plumbing.

You can make an inexpensive home attractive with modern, well designed plumbing, or you can cheapen and spoil a high priced home with inferior plumbing.

The plumbing work, the plumbing fixtures, the general sanitary arrangements of a home are its most essential considerations.

We take pride in installing high class fixtures, and doing good work, because we recognize these things MAKE the home.

We do repair as well as installation work and give the same careful craftsmanship to the small job as we do the big job.
