Mrs. Frank Sanders Gives Picnic

Out at Cleveland Springs, under the trees at eleven o'clock on Wednesday the members of Mrs. Frank Sanders Sunday school department consisting of many teachers, assembled and enjoyed a delightful picnic dinner at its lovely spot. An hour of talking and planning was indulged in before the luscious dinner was spread and eaten with relish.

Misses Frances Whisman and Hattie Gidney Hostesses

Misses Frances Whisman and Hattie Gidney were joint hostesses with a "get-together party" honoring Miss Isobel Hoey's attractive guests, Misses Carter and Caldwell on Wednesday afternoon. Games and conversation were much enjoyed and lovely flowers were used as decorations. At the conclusion of the hours, the party motored to the drug store where cooling refreshments were served.

Miss Virginia Hoey Gives Movie Party

Miss Virginia Hoey was the charming hostess at a most enjoyable movie party on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock honoring Miss Isobel Hoey, her cousin, and her charming guests, Misses Carter and Caldwell, at the Webb theatre. The picture was much enjoyed and a number of other young women were invited to Miss Hoey's delightful home where the most charming picnic supper was served on the porch, which was beautifully arranged. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Hoey's mother, Mrs. Ernest Hoey, Mrs. Frank Hoey and Mrs. Play Hoey.

Mrs. Eugene Burgess Gives Luncheon

Mrs. Eugene Burgess was hostess at a lovely luncheon at the Cleveland Springs hotel on Wednesday at one o'clock honoring her cousin, Miss Hoey's, most popular visitors, Misses Carter and Caldwell. The table was prettily arranged, having for its centerpiece a large basket of pink gladioli and ferns. Silver candle sticks held green candles, and little pink baskets were placed at each place containing nuts. The most attractive place cards were used with clever little verses for each guest. A delicious five course luncheon was served to twelve the following being the invited ones: Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Mrs. S. R. Riley, Mrs. George Blanton, Miss Isobel Hoey, Miss Etta Carter, Miss Kate Caldwell, Miss Eleanor Levy, Miss Caroline Blanton, Miss Minnie Eddina Roberts and Miss Wishart, of Lumberton.

Cotillion Dance A Beautiful Success

Despite the heat of the evening, one of the most enjoyed dances of the season was given at the Cleveland Springs hotel by the Cotillion club on Wednesday evening the dancing starting at nine o'clock, and the music was played by the Tar Heel Syncopaters. It was an informal shirt waist dance the men all being dressed in white shirts and white trousers without coats. Many beautiful costumes were worn by the women and quite a number of visitors graced the ball room floor. A delightful innovation was the exhibition dance given by Miss Etta Carter one of Miss Hoey's lovely guests, and a marvelous dancer, and Mr. Lee Leonard, of Lincoln. They gave the "Ocean Roll" and the Charleston and Mr. Leonard, who is a wizard with his feet, gave a special edge. Both were much enjoyed by the dancers and many spectators, for these dances have a number of spectators besides the chaperones. It was indeed a much enjoyed dance.

Miss Janie Blanton Gives Beautiful Party

Honoring Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr., and Mrs. McGlohorn, a delightful guest of Miss Janie Blanton was a most gracious hostess on Wednesday morning at ten thirty o'clock, with a beautiful bridge party at her lovely home on South DeKalb street. The rooms and spacious porches were beautifully decorated with garden flowers, most artistically arranged in bowls and vases. Four tables were placed for bridge and each table held a crystal basket holding charming garden flowers. The little place cards were bathing girls. The morning was spent most delightfully with many progressions. When the games were concluded Miss Blanton assisted her mother, Mrs. Charles McBrayer and Mrs. Play Hoey served an elegant and delicious luncheon. Mrs. Webb was presented with a lovely sandwich dish and Mrs. McGlohorn was given a lovely present also. Miss Blanton received her guests in a stunning red sport costume.

Mrs. Tom Moore Gives Party For Mrs. Parks

One of the loveliest morning parties of the season was that given by Mrs. Tom Moore at the beautiful Mc-

Murry home on West Warren street on Thursday morning in honor of her most attractive house guest Mrs. Charles Parks, of Raleigh. The lovely long living room was a beautiful picture with bowls and vases of the prettiest of garden flowers. Three tables had been placed for bridge, and on each of these were the daintiest little crystal vases holding exquisite pink rose buds and the dainty baby's breath. The little place cards were charming being old fashioned ladies dressed in pink and blue. The games were most enjoyable and the morning was charmingly spent. At twelve o'clock the most delicious and beautiful luncheon was served. Mrs. Parks was presented with an exquisite hand made boudoir pillow. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Parks wore lovely white sport frocks.

Mesdames J. B. Nolan and Lawrence Lackey Give Tea

One of the most beautiful and outstanding teas of the summer season, was given by Mrs. Lawrence Lackey and Mrs. J. B. Nolan at the handsome and charming home of Mrs. Nolan on Thursday afternoon, the hours being from four to six. The spacious rooms were thrown en suite, and the most gorgeous zennias, grown in Mrs. Nolan's flower garden, were used with queen anne's lace in the most telling and artistic affect in baskets of silver, and bowls of silver, and crystal vases. There was a wealth of these brilliant flowers, and the rooms were made into lovely bowers. The dining room was most beautifully effective and the table was exquisitely beautiful, with its handsome lace piece of the finest weave. Centering the table was a gorgeous silver bowl filled with the handsomest orange zennias and queen anne's lace combined. Around the bowl was placed four silver base candlesticks, holding tall orange tapers. On the buffet another charming bowl of the same flowers was used. The color scheme of orange and green was most perfectly carried out in the ices and orange hue, and the cakes tied with the green and the charming little orange and yellow flowers with the green leaves on the tops. The mints of orange and little cakes of this bright color was also served to the guests. The punch was served in the solarium which was lovely with orange zennias, sunflowers and the queen anne's lace. The punch table was a work of art. The table was used for decorations. Seven tables of bridge was played during the morning hours and every progression was interesting. The tables held pretty vases of flowers and the score cards pertained to the summer season. Miss Nix also had three other charming visitors for the day, who shared honor with Miss High, they being Miss Lois Atkins from Fayetteville and Miss Nan Jater from Morganton and Mrs. McGlohorn, of Durham, guest of Miss Janie Stamey. At the conclusion of the games a lovely and delicious luncheon was served. The honor guests were presented with lovely prizes, covered with white, and over this were the grape leaves and the bunches of green grapes used in abundance over the table and on the beautiful punch bowl where the most delicious and cooling punch was served. Opening the door for the callers was Master Lawrence Evans Lackey. He was dressed in a white suit. Miss Agnes McBrayer who was charming in a tan georgette, lace trimmed, greeted the guests at the door. The receiving line composed the following: Mrs. J. B. Nolan who was regal in a beautiful rose georgette beaded in pearls and crass; Mrs. Lawrence Lackey was handsome in orchid georgette beaded in purple and orchid motifs in colored crass. Six of Shelby's most beloved and charming elderly women, all dressed in handsome black costumes came next. They were Mrs. Columbus Beam, Mrs. Mary McBrayer, Mrs. Pattie Blanton, Mrs. Hester McBrayer and Mrs. Amanda McBrayer. Mrs. Gerald Morgan, who wore green chiffon lace trimmed and Miss Kathleen Nolan in a lovely frock of green, beaded in crass, and Miss Ione Nolan in American beauty georgette heavily beaded. Receiving in the living room with the receiving line were: Mrs. John Irwin in white crepe de chene, and Mrs. Dorsey in grey chiffon. Inviting the guests into the dining room was Miss Ollie Hamrick in rust colored chiffon ruffle trimmed. Receiving and serving in here were Mrs. W. B. Nix, Miss Isobel Lackey, who wore orchid chiffon ruffle trimmed and is the daughter of Mrs. Lackey; Mrs. Charles Young, Mrs. Bob Lackey, Miss Rosylin Nix, Miss Mae Washburn, Miss Thelma Young and Mrs. Reid Young. In the punch room were Mrs. J. S. Dorton, Miss Ruby McBrayer, Mrs. Dan Frazier, Mrs. Gerald McBrayer and Mrs. Everett Houser. During the calling hours Mrs. Cline Lackey, Miss Mary Helen Lattimore and Miss Mamie Roberts furnished beautiful music. The register was placed on the open porch and presiding over his were Misses Margaret Beam, Eleanor Jones, and Kathleen Ford. Saying goodbye to the callers was Miss Oeland Washburn. During the calling hours a large number of Shelby's social set was in attendance.

Mrs. John Black Gives Party For Mrs. Durham

Honoring Mrs. A. C. Durham, of Bellingham, Wash., Mrs. John Black was a charming hostess with a family "spend the day party," at her attractive home on South Washington street on Wednesday. The invited guests were Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Colin Hull, Mrs. Guy Hull, Mrs. Ransom Castevens, Mrs. Z. J. Thompson, Mrs. Jean Schenck and little niece, Jane Abernethy, of Lincoln. A happy day was spent with these delightful women. The table had for its central decoration a beautiful bowl of lovely garden flowers and Mrs. Black served an elegant and delicious course dinner.

Interesting Announcement Made

The following interesting announcement appeared in the Charlotte Observer on Wednesday: "The engagement of Miss Martha Breese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Breese, of Brevard, to Mr. John Hudson, of Brevard, was announced at a dinner party given Saturday night at the Cliff Dwellers hotel, at Chimney Rock, by Mr. Harry Stillwell Edwards, southern author, the party of young people motoring over from Brevard was chaperoned by Mrs. Jackson L. Edwards, Cecil Crouse's Lake Lure orchestra played during the dinner and for the dancing." The following is welcomed with much interest by the Shelby people as Mr. Hudson is a Shelby boy, the youngest son of Mrs. H. T. Hudson and a social favorite among the younger set. Mr. Hudson is very popular and numbers his friends by the score. He has just recently gone to Brevard, where he is in business.

Holds Cotton Three Years; Loses $7,000

South Carolina Farmer Pays $875 For Storage On 61 Bales. Looks Towards County Home
Newberry.—A Newberry county farmer sold 61 bales of cotton on Friday to Cooper and Griffin, of Greenville, for 18 cents per pound, which was grown three years ago and which he could have gotten 35 cents per pound for at the time of raising the cotton. The cotton was placed in a warehouse and the storage amounted to $875.
The amount received for the 61 bales was around $5,500, less the storage. The cotton, if sold at the time of raising with interest to date, would have amounted to about $12,500, whereas he only received $4,625.
The man stated that he lived less than one mile from the county home and if he had much more cotton to sell at that rate it would not be much longer before he would be nearer it.

MRS. TAYLOR PROMISES REAL FIREWORKS SOON

Los Angeles, Calif., July 22.—Charles A. Taylor, whose wealthy husband, an oil well supply dealer, yesterday charged her with tacking Harold (Red) Grange in a kissing scene, and otherwise being more than ordinarily familiar with the football playing, ice-fendering, screen-acting star today, through her attorneys, categorically denied all the charges in her spouse's divorce cross-complaint.

Mrs. Taylor went considerably farther and promised "real fireworks" in an answer to her husband's bill, which her attorneys are now busy preparing.

DIED SHOUTING AS HE HAD HOPED HE WOULD

Whiteville.—Norman Sellers died one minute after he arose to his feet and began shouting Sunday night. The Spring Branch Holiness congregation five miles south of Whiteville had about concluded its services. During the last song many members began shouting, and Sellers was among the number who felt the spirit that makes them rise up and make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Sellers died immediately. Only one or two vehement outcries had been made before he crumpled to the floor and took his last breath. His often-expressed desire was gratified. His doctor stated that the immediate cause of death was apoplexy, possibly aggravated by the sudden burst of excitement. However, relatives of the deceased stated that for some time he had been suffering with some kind of throat trouble. On that particular night he told the person sitting beside him that he was feeling fine, and all appearances were that he was in the best of health.

A NEW RACE COMING ON IN THESE PARTS

Greensboro News.
A new race will be developed in this part of the United States. It will be a nearly one hundred per cent pure American race, whatever that means, unless there should be an influx of new blood from other regions. And it will be the most intelligent race America has ever known. William Shaffer, a Connecticut manufacturer passed through this town last night in a big touring car and said North Carolina interested him only vaguely but its schools interested him tremendously.

"Every crossroad I come to, I pass a Boston-style school stuck at the fork of the roads, with a lot of independent-looking characters swaggering around it—chaps who look at me without any reason whatever in a 'Be's your old man' manner. These grim-looking people are not sour by nature speak to one and he smiles all over his mug," said Shaffer.

"I never intended to come to North Carolina to live. I have no interests here. They tell me the state was backward in the past. A people who put monumental schools by the side of every cow path will achieve miracles in the future. The roads are good. Other states have good roads. The schools are amazing."
