The rooms were most beautifully decorated with the loveliest of flowers cut from Mrs. Pendleton's beautiful garden. They were arranged in lovely ways. Music and dancing was enjoyed all during the evening hours, and delicious punch was served all through the dances. At a late hour the most elegant refreshments were served by the charming hostess. Stillwell-Francis Wedding
A wedding, beautiful in its simplicity and of much interest was that of Miss Pearl Mazie Francis and Mr. Ira J. Stillwell which was solemnized at six o'clock on Wednesday evening, August the eighteenth, at the home of Mrs. B. H. Palmer. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Zeno Wall of the First Baptist church, in the presence of only the intimate family and friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with trailing ivy and pink roses. With Miss Bertha Bastick presiding at the piano, the bride and groom entered to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus and took their places before the altar which was improvised with green ivy and pink and potted ferns.

During the ceremony, "Believe Me If All These Endearing Charms," was softly played and Mendelschn's wedding march was rendered as a recessional. The bride, who is a beautiful young woman, was becomingly gowned in rose georgette with gold trimmings, and wore a large rose hat and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her traveling suit was a tailored frock of navy blue crepe and georgette with hat of blond velvet and accessories and slippers to match. Mrs. Stillwell is the youngest daughter of Mrs. D. C. Francis, a young woman of much beauty, refinement and culture. She was educated at the Shelby high school and numbers her friends by the score. Mr. Stillwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stillwell of Gastonia. Since coming to Shelby about three years ago he has been connected with the Pearly Wiggly store here and is one of Shelby's most prominent young business men. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left in their car for a trip through the mountains of North Carolina. After their return they will be at home in the Gene Schenck bungalow which Mr. Stillwell has recently purchased.

Remarks By Suttle Stand Corrected
In reporting the meeting of the pastors and workers council of the Kings Mountain Baptist association held here at the First Baptist church the first week in August, when Rev. C. J. Black condemned modern styles of women's dress, Rev. John W. Suttle was quoted as saying in the meeting that it would be as hard for modern women to enter the Kingdom as it would for his Ford to climb a hill without gasoline. The Star's cub reporter evidently did not follow the discussion closely and attributed a remark to Mr. Suttle which Mr. Suttle says he did not make. After Mr. Black spoke on the immorality of today, the subject under discussion, passed to that of the church's paying the salary of A. V. Washburn, associational secretary, and then it was that Mr. Suttle remarked in the course of his address that "it is as impossible for the Kingdom of God to advance without money as it is for his Ford car to climb a hill without gasoline." The Star regrets that Mr. Suttle was misquoted and hastens to set aright his statement.

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house."

"I got very thin—I went from 125 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve."

My side hurt less and I began to improve in health. ... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all. "I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NC-160
