IKE'S TALE

Deer Star Readers.
Thar is sum little talk up in here that maybe hit mout be that the governor won't git to come over to open up the grate Cleveland county fair this time and hit duz look a pity not to open hit up in the proper way; so me and Sal though we'd rite and let 'em know that we won't have much to do that da and will come over and open hit up jist as cheap as anybody.

We use tu charge 15 cents per hour fur all such jobs as addressing school closings, opening up little county fairs, etc., but everybody sed we wuz too high, so we came down tu ten cents an hour and that is cheap enuf fur most any kind of a job now unless hit is pleading law or something like that.

And besides we allers guarantee satisfaction on every job we tackle, that is me and Sal is satisfied with the way hit is done whether anybody else is or not.

If you want us to open up the fair let us know the day before, fur hit will take us a day to walk tu Shelby from way up here at Casar.

But if you don't want us to open hit up ater we git down thar we will shake the dust off of our feet against you and return again tu our own country passing through the land of the Lawdaleites which lieth jist a little ways beyond the border of civilization.

Sal is thinking of frowning up her hair and putting on rite smart of paint and have her a booth tu tell fortunes in.

She will tell all about the past, the present and future, and then tell you all about what will cum ater the future is all gone, and that is about as much as any of 'em will promise tu tell. Please give Sal your trade along this line and hit will be appreciated by me and her both.

The price will be 25 cents and hit will help us tu buy shoes and stockings with fur this winter when the weather is purty certain to be colder than hit wuz this summer. Last winter me and her both had a pair of shoes apiece, but no stockings worth mentioning and darned if my feet haint cold yit.

Me and Bill will be over thar at the fair with sum kind of swindling game tu, if we can git us up sum fine clothes tu wear fur we found out a long time ago that if a feller aim tu act the rascal and git by the law with hit he has tu wear fine cut of clothes. I wishty is t' e best policy fur a pova man these times, Bill sez, but fur the rich jist most any kind of a policy will do. Well hit haint long off no more till that time we're talking about will be here when everybody will see all the other folks, so we end hit here.

Hit may seem tu sum that this Tale has been cut off sum, but hit haint bec., fur fly time is not yit over and that is mainly what a tail is fur you know.

IKE.

Female Patronage Makes a Difference

Barber Shops Not What They Were Ten to Thirty Years Ago

Charlotte Observer.

Ten, twenty or thirty years can make an awful lot of difference in a barber shop!

Men used to bring their own shaving cups for a 10-cent shave, and used strong language whenever they felt inclined.

Now they have manicures and massages and whatnot, and don't even think of cursing. Not in the highest class barber shops anyway for profanity isn't allowed with so many women-folk present.

Why the men don't even gossip, barbers here say, and if they ever comment on the fairer sex in the neighboring chairs at all, it is safe

GOOD EQUIPMENT Makes A Good Farmer — BETTER —

We are opening our doors in Shelby with a full line of McCormick-Deering Farm Machinery.

This line needs no introduction. It has been manufactured and sold for 90 years. The manufacturers of this line spend thousands upon thousands of dollars each year to perfect new machinery to meet the needs of the farmers.

We are therefore proud to be their representative in this section and have come to serve rather than be served.

BE SURE TO SEE OUR FARMALL TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION AT THE CLEVELAND COUNTY FAIR NEXT WEEK.

The Farmall Tractor not only does all any other tractor will do, but with it you plant and cultivate your crop, two rows at once.

The farmers of Texas alone have purchased over 3,000 this year.

The reason why is easy when you see it operate.

SHELBY, N. C.

after they are gone. Then only some complimentary remark like: "That was a good looking girl," or "she surely looked cute in her boyish bob."

V. M. Stine and M. E. Green, two of the oldest barbers in Charlotte remember when "things were different" in a barber shop. But there has been a gradual change for the better, these men aver. At least men have become more comely.

Whoever heard of men—real men—in the time of the 10-cent shave, indulging in massages, manures, shampoos, sweet perfumed tonics, or face powder and the like!

Even after these things became the vogue, they took to its rather shyly, much like the flapper to her first hair cut.

But just as surely as the shaving mug and hard language went, the adjuncts to masculine beauty and soft-peddled speech have come.

Ten, twenty or thirty years make a lot of difference, and as in most cases, there is probably a woman at the bottom of it, the barbers say.

Indian Tribes Now Fast Fading Away

Nogales, Ariz.—Eradication faces another of the Western Hemisphere's fiercest and war-like tribes.

From the time of Spanish conquistadores, until within the last two decades, the Seris, a savage tribe on an island just off the coast of Sonora, Mexico, have defied the advances of armed forces and the olive branch tendered by the white man or by native tribes Living on their diet of "powdered dried straw and raw meats," as described by Alvar Nuez Cabeza de Vara, a Spanish military explorer in 1036, the hardy tribe of savage held aloof, content with its barren island and existence.

Bloody wars were waged for nearly two centuries, but their submission was never more than superficial. Thousands of troops fell before their arrows, scores of daring missionaries were stoned to death and as late as 1896 two navigators were killed in an attempt to explore Seriland.

Of late years the few remaining members have become straggle. The tribe, now numbering but 125, has retrograded, race almo imbecille, meek seekers, delighted to guide ermen who now walk peacefully along the shore of Kino Bay.
