

EVERYTHING SET FOR BIG COUNTY FAIR OPENING ON TUESDAY MORNING

House Is Dropped on Auto

This photo shows a garage-apartment in Miami, Fla., which was raised clear of its foundation by the force of the recent hurricane and left resting on a touring car that had been parked beside it.

Storm Refugees Return To Cleveland With Storm Dead

Funds Wanted For Florida Sufferers,

Red Cross Here Solicits Funds for Sufferers in the Southern Florida Storm Area.

At the request of Mayor A. P. Weathers, Mr. I. C. Griffin, former Red Cross chairman for Roll call in Cleveland county, will act as treasurer for Cleveland county branch of the Red Cross in receiving funds for the Florida storm sufferers.

Contributions are being made all over the United States so it is considered an opportunity which Cleveland county should be eager to give something, although it might be small, to a people in America who are in such dire distress at this time.

Parade To Start At Central School

The big float parade to the county fair grounds tomorrow morning will start at the Central High school building, it is announced by Mrs. Oline Hamrick, chairman of the float committee.

SHELBY ATHLETE BADLY INJURED

Jim Lee, star guard on the Shelby High football eleven and considered one of the best baseball prospects for the spring season, was seriously hurt last Saturday morning when he was run over by the wheels of a loaded truck near Lawndale.

Lattimore People Stage Classy Community Fair

Cotton Crop Late Shows Gin Report Issued In County

The Cleveland county cotton crop is 4,700 bales late, speaking in the term of ginning. Up to September 16, 1925, cotton ginned in this county totaled 4,755 bales.

SHELBY DEFEATS LATTIMORE TEAM IN FIRST GAME

Play Gaffney Here This Week For Second Go. Beam and Kerr Are Stars

The Shelby highs won their initial contest of the football season Friday by defeating the strong Lattimore squad 8 to 0, in a game played as a part of the Lattimore fair program.

South Shelby To Have Paved Street Opened This Week

By Friday of this week, Mr. Cashion of the Ely Construction company, says traffic will be turned on S. LaFayette street from the old to the new corporate limits, a newly paved street of three quarters of a mile in length.

Convicts To See County Fair By Order Of Blanton

The convicts on the No. 6 road gang are in for a big day tomorrow as well as the rest of the county. They are going to the county fair under the supervision of Mr. Joe E. Blanton, gang head and his guards.

Four Melons Weigh 265 Pounds At Fair

John Russ who does truck farming at Double Shoals had the rear seat on his Ford, filled with water-melons this morning as he passed the Star office en route to the fair ground. The melons numbered just four, but they weighed an aggregate of 265 pounds.

67 CASES BEFORE U. S. COURT TERM IN SESSION HERE

Judge Yates Webb Presides Over Federal Court Grind. 55 Booze Cases Up.

The fall term of Federal court convened here this morning with U. S. Judge E. Yates Webb presiding and District Attorney Frank Linney with his staff prosecuting. The usual marshals, dry officers and court officials are in attendance including Clerk R. L. Blalock, of Greensboro.

Parade And Address By Plato Durham To Feature Program Of Opening Day

Governor McLean Unable To Attend, But Noted Native Son Will Speak. Greatest Program Ever

Cleveland county is ready today for its greatest county fair which will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The general program, from the opening day until the last of the five day exposition, is considered the most colorful program ever planned.

28 Heads Bobbed In Shelby Shops During One Month

Shelby's feminine world offers the proof that "bobbed hair is not going out of style. On the other hand the trend to short tresses and mannish hair cuts is increasing in power.

Work To Start On High School Field Of Play This Week

An agreement has been reached on the width of Sumter street between the city officials, the school board and property owners whereby work will begin this week on rebuilding the athletic field to the rear of the Shelby High school.

BABIES BORN IN STORM, THOUSANDS KILLED, SHE SAYS

Shelby Lady Tells of Disaster In Vivid Language—Town Under Martial Law. Writing to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Laughridge on Sumter street, Shelby, Mrs. Irvin Lutz, who was in the storm in Fort Lauderdale tells of horrible sights and says the death toll will mount higher than the newspaper have given it.

WEATHERS HURT IN GAME IMPROVES

Paris Weathers, star half-back of the Lattimore football team and a son of Mr. W. T. Weathers, is reported as improving at the Shelby hospital after being brought there last Friday suffering with injuries received in the Lattimore-Shelby game.

McLean Not Coming

A message received last week from the State executive offices stated that Governor McLean would be unable to attend owing to a press of State duties. However, he wished the best of luck for one of Carolina's best farming counties and their fair, which is now recognized as one of the South's best.

THE DREAM GROWS

Just three short years ago Cleveland county had a dream come true, a realization that exceeded the original hope and idea when the fair was first planned.

Storm Refugees Return To Cleveland With Storm Dead

Funds Wanted For Florida Sufferers,

At the request of Mayor A. P. Weathers, Mr. I. C. Griffin, former Red Cross chairman for Roll call in Cleveland county, will act as treasurer for Cleveland county branch of the Red Cross in receiving funds for the Florida storm sufferers.

Parade To Start At Central School

The big float parade to the county fair grounds tomorrow morning will start at the Central High school building, it is announced by Mrs. Oline Hamrick, chairman of the float committee.

SHELBY ATHLETE BADLY INJURED

Jim Lee, star guard on the Shelby High football eleven and considered one of the best baseball prospects for the spring season, was seriously hurt last Saturday morning when he was run over by the wheels of a loaded truck near Lawndale.

Lattimore People Stage Classy Community Fair

Their Prize Winners Will Take Some Ribbons At Big Cleveland County Fair. (By Staff Correspondent.) Lattimore—When it comes to staging a community fair, complete in every detail, place no community higher on the list than Lattimore.

67 CASES BEFORE U. S. COURT TERM IN SESSION HERE

Judge Yates Webb Presides Over Federal Court Grind. 55 Booze Cases Up. The fall term of Federal court convened here this morning with U. S. Judge E. Yates Webb presiding and District Attorney Frank Linney with his staff prosecuting.

Parade And Address By Plato Durham To Feature Program Of Opening Day

Governor McLean Unable To Attend, But Noted Native Son Will Speak. Greatest Program Ever. Cleveland county is ready today for its greatest county fair which will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

28 Heads Bobbed In Shelby Shops During One Month

Shelby's feminine world offers the proof that "bobbed hair is not going out of style. On the other hand the trend to short tresses and mannish hair cuts is increasing in power.

Work To Start On High School Field Of Play This Week

An agreement has been reached on the width of Sumter street between the city officials, the school board and property owners whereby work will begin this week on rebuilding the athletic field to the rear of the Shelby High school.

BABIES BORN IN STORM, THOUSANDS KILLED, SHE SAYS

Shelby Lady Tells of Disaster In Vivid Language—Town Under Martial Law. Writing to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Laughridge on Sumter street, Shelby, Mrs. Irvin Lutz, who was in the storm in Fort Lauderdale tells of horrible sights and says the death toll will mount higher than the newspaper have given it.

WEATHERS HURT IN GAME IMPROVES

Paris Weathers, star half-back of the Lattimore football team and a son of Mr. W. T. Weathers, is reported as improving at the Shelby hospital after being brought there last Friday suffering with injuries received in the Lattimore-Shelby game.

Four Melons Weigh 265 Pounds At Fair

John Russ who does truck farming at Double Shoals had the rear seat on his Ford, filled with water-melons this morning as he passed the Star office en route to the fair ground. The melons numbered just four, but they weighed an aggregate of 265 pounds.

Convicts To See County Fair By Order Of Blanton

The convicts on the No. 6 road gang are in for a big day tomorrow as well as the rest of the county. They are going to the county fair under the supervision of Mr. Joe E. Blanton, gang head and his guards.

South Shelby To Have Paved Street Opened This Week

By Friday of this week, Mr. Cashion of the Ely Construction company, says traffic will be turned on S. LaFayette street from the old to the new corporate limits, a newly paved street of three quarters of a mile in length.

SHELBY DEFEATS LATTIMORE TEAM IN FIRST GAME

The Shelby highs won their initial contest of the football season Friday by defeating the strong Lattimore squad 8 to 0, in a game played as a part of the Lattimore fair program.

Cotton Crop Late Shows Gin Report Issued In County

The Cleveland county cotton crop is 4,700 bales late, speaking in the term of ginning. Up to September 16, 1925, cotton ginned in this county totaled 4,755 bales.

House Is Dropped on Auto

This photo shows a garage-apartment in Miami, Fla., which was raised clear of its foundation by the force of the recent hurricane and left resting on a touring car that had been parked beside it.

THE DREAM GROWS

Just three short years ago Cleveland county had a dream come true, a realization that exceeded the original hope and idea when the fair was first planned.

Tomorrow is the day. All roads lead to the Cleveland county fair.

Stories of terrible suffering, ruined homes and of death are being brought back from Florida by Cleveland county people returning from the "land of Flowers" that is now a land of grief.

One of the pride spots Shelby points out to visitors is the Masonic temple. Friday evening, a news item states, the builders of the temple had a great get-together.

One of the greatest racing events ever staged in the two Carolinas seems to be the bill of the week at the Cleveland county fair. Every stall is filled with racers and more are arriving.

Friday, says an article in The Star, Lattimore staged one of the best community fairs in the history of the county and the prize winners are coming to the county fair seeking more ribbons.

Shelby won her first football game of the season last week, and this week Coach Morris will send his youngsters against the fast Gaffney team here. How the boys displayed their prowess last week is embodied in a news story today.

The past week seemed to hold a jinx for young Cleveland county athletes. Paris Weathers, star Lattimore player, was injured in the game Friday, and The Star says today that Jim Lee, all-around Shelby athlete, will recover after being seriously injured Saturday when run over by a truck.

More important than the others, however, is the suggestion that you start reading today The Star's new serial—"The Man Nobody Knows." Educational as well as entertaining.

Federal court will be in session also this week and Shelby apparently will be the scene of much activity.

There is no prouder spot in the history of Cleveland county than that of "homing" the Durham boys. Plato, one of the most brilliant of the family, will make the opening address at the county fair tomorrow. Watch the two coming issues of The Star this week for headlight of the fair program.

Thoughtful readers never throw away The Star without reading the advertisements. Star advertising pays the reader as well as the advertiser.

NEW SERIAL BEGINS IN THE STAR TODAY

Read the first chapter in today's Star of "The Man Nobody Knows," a new approach to the life of Jesus, the carpenter of Nazareth. The story is written by Bruce Barton, a business man and author of "Common Sense Editorials," "Better Days," and "It's a Good Old World."

Mr. Barton's great message is that religion is not a matter of forms and ceremonies, but life itself, the every day business of daily work. All business is his Father's business, all honest work is worship, all productive labor is a spiritual service.

Mrs. T. W. Ebeltoft and Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft have returned from Blowing Rock where they spent two weeks at the Springs cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nash and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Gurley, of Hickory, spent the week-end in Shelby.

(Continued on page seven.)

(Continued on page seven.)

(Continued on page two.)

(Continued on page two.)