THE CLEVELAND STAR, SHELBY, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6, 1926

"THE MAN NOBODY KNOWS" By BRUCE BARTON New And Inspiring Picture Of Jesus.

energe ser and a second se

"here thieves-it was coming

INSTALLMENT VIII

A Muscled Man

"What's his name?"

a den of robbers."

- INSTALLMENT VII

The Outdoor Man

hesitated, and in their moment of that they cared about. But the s the tragedy of it.

with the crowd burst forth in a mighty The air was filthy erded together. Men and women him out of the Temple, the priests rampled one another, crying aloud and the money-changers scurrying their imprecations. At one side of before him. That night his action he court were the pens of the cat- was the talk of the town. le; the dove cages at the other. In | "Did you hear what happened in foreground, hard-faced priests the Temple today ?" ong tables exacting the utmost up to him." arthing from those who came to uy. One would never imagine that to them." this was a place of worship. Yet it as the Temple-the center of the ious life of the nation. And up in Nazareth." to the crowds who jammed its ectly normal.

That was the tragedy of it. Standing a little apart from the st, the young man from Nazahis twelfth year, when Joseph and planation of his triumph.

ed as a son of the law. His and more impressive. There was, in even months, before they can all be a sufficient knowledge of Spanish He rode the city's motorcycle. the memory of that previous his eyes, a flaming moral purpose; bound. A few hundred pages con- and Span. history to do, and turn Friday morning Mr. Bridges failvisit was of a long conversation and greed and oppression have al- sist of typewritten copies of the the entire matter over to him to ed to report for duty here at his with certain old men in a quiet ways shriveled before such fire. records-in Spanish of course- be translated and edited, the final accustomed time, and an investiga- at Belwood consolidated school. com. He had not witnessed the But with the majesty of his glance but the bulk of them are photo- work to bear his name, and the tion started by Chief Lockhart re- Proceeds for the benefit of the oil in the outer courts, or, if there was something else which static. he had, it made small impression on counted powerfully in his favor.

As his right arm rose and fell, is youthful mind. But this way was different. For striking blows with that little weeks he had looked forward to whip, the sleeve dropped back to The story which eventually may dred and one other knotty probvisit, planning the journey with a reveal muscles hard as iron. No be unravelled from them may, as lems which it will have to deliber- Sheriff Ware that was presented compary of Galilean pilgrims who one who watched him in action it is hoped, shed much light on the ate upon, will be the fate of the to the council Friday night. ramped all day and spent the had any doubt that he was fully fate of the Raleigh "Lost Colony" Spanish records. Will they, in turn, thats in their tents under the capable of taking care of himself. pen sky. To be sure some of the No flabby priest or money-chang-der ones muttered about the ex- er cared to try conclusions with tortions of the money-changers. A that arm.

nan told how the lamb which There are those to whom it will he had raised with so much de. seem almost irrevalent to suggest otion the previous year, had been that Jesus was physically strong. ornfully rejected by the priests, They think of him as a voice. a sho directed her to buy from the presence, a spirit: they never feel dealers. An old man related his contagion of his laughter, nor rexperience. He had brought down member how heartily he enjoyed next two years will be required he tayings of months to purchase good food, nor think of what his to complete the records, and to get his gift, and the money-changers years of hard toil must have done them translated, according to A.

converted his provincial currency 'o his arms and backs and legs. R. Newsome, secretary of the State into the temple coin at a robber's Look for a minute at those first historical commision. Several ate. Other pilgrims had similar thirty years. ories, but after all they were old There was no soft bed for his copie, prone to complain. The mother on the night he entered the was made to reproduce these records from Spain, which are be-|sion. And Miss Wright has done lieved to contain the record of the her work well, as it attested by mysterious "Lost Colony" found- the thousands of photographs of ed on Roanoke Island by Sir Wal- the pages of ancient records. It ter Raleigh all ready right here in was necessary for Miss Wright to Raleigh, in the vaults of the his- search through thousands and torical commission, and no one to thousands of other pages, in ordtranslate them, and no money to er select those particular sections get a translator. Now isn't that a of the records which might have prettle kettle of fish? Or perhaps to bearing upon North Carolina hiswe should have said a pleasant tory. Ard there still remains 10,job for a loose-leaf bindery. But, 000 more pages to be photograph-Stung by his taunt, his accusers anyway, those are the facts. But ed, in order to have a complete rebecause the last penny of the ap- cord of those sections of these old to most of the crowd there was hesitation were lost. The soluties spent, and because only the leg- bearing on the New World, ac- was suspended Friday, was dropislature can appropriate some more cording to Mr. Newsome. -- if it will-the people of the But even if funds were avail- afternoon, according to a statement ell of animals and human beings, cheer and rushing forward bore state must wait another year-or able to Mr. Newsome, because the made yestreday by Mayor V. H. perhaps another century-before translator should be an historian Lipscomb. Jonas P. Scruggs, forlearning the secret which these old as well as a linguish, and should mer state constable, has been records, dug out of musty vaults be able to weight historical facts elected temporarily to fill the vain Spair, are believed to hold. The last batch of pages, most of arcient writings on the faded and Mr. Bridges was suspended folthem photostatic copies of the ori- discolored pages. and money-changers sat behind "Not a man of them dared stand ginal records, written in script by When asked if the work of council by Chief H. H. Lockhart of three centuries ago, were just re- cords could not be undertaken by deputy sheriff of Cleveland counceived from Madrid, Barcelona and the research department of the ty, North Carolina, saying that he Seville, a few weeks ago and clerks University, assisted by Dr. Pear- arrested Bridges at Kings Moun-"Jesus-used to be a carpenter in the historical commission are son, who already probably knows tain last Thursday for being drunk friends. still busy sorting the pages to get more about the records. their and that the Gaffney officer was them in the proper chronological backgrounds and content than any fined $50 and costs by Recorder and numerical order. They are other one person, Mr. Newsome re- John P. Mull at Shelby Friday.

Old Spanish Papers in Raleigh May Give Insight Into Romantic Lost Colony Raleigh .- Ten thousand copies of the work in Spain for the DISCHAPGED OVER of ten thousand pages of old re- North Carolina historical commi-

binders, so that the translators busy now with his teaching work es had made a good officer and he may use them as would an ordi- at the University, and that there expressed regret that circumstanc-It is a very familiar story, much nary book, despite the fact that were probably no others able to es made it necessary to drop him weth watched in amazement which preached upon and pictured. But each leaf is a separate photograph. handle the work there, unless they from the force. epened gradually into anger. It almost invariably the pictures Although it is expected that the were well paid for doing the work. was no familiar sight to him. He show him with a halo around his task of arranging the photostaic The only possibility of getting the had not been in the Temple since head, as though that was the ex- pages in their proper order will be work done without great expense, to get off duty Thursday afternoon completed within a few days, it would be to find some historian in- to attend the Cleveland county fair Mary too him up to be legally en- The truth is so much simpler will probably be several weeks or terested in research work who had at Shelby, according to officials.

cords is romance, adventure, tragedy, and even comedy, perhaps. legislature, and among the hun- North Carolina city obtained the wand and turns the golden key which will unlock this storehouse may know the story?

At least $3,000 a year for the Rev. Gillespie Gives

Editor of The Star.

years ago, it will be remembered than an appropriation of $5,000 of mystery and romance.

FAIR VISIT HERE

Motorcycle Policeman Fined Here For Being Drunk. Cleveland

Certificate Shown.

Gaffney, Oct. 5-City Motorcy-To most of the crowd there was hesitation were lost. The soldiers propriation for this work has been documents which may have a cle Officer Elbert Bridges, who ped from the police force Sunday lowing the presentation to the hand on rough paper from two to translating and editing the re- a certificate signed by H. G. Ware, coust to coast as a performer on the mouth harp, is back in Shelby for a few days visit with boyheod known hereabouts in his boyhood as Cloyde Sullivan, has given many later to be bound in looseleaf plied that Dr. Pearson was too Mayor Lipscomb said Mr. Bridgfor Charlotte and Gastonia. He's Attended Cleveland Fair. back now and will remain in this Mr. Bridges obtained permission section for some time, visiting old friends ly go to Gastenia as instructor to the harmonica band there.

publication to be made, the work vealed the reason. Mr. Lockhart school. And bound up in these mute re- is likely to prove very expensive. made a trip to Shelby Friday to So another buck is passed to the confirm reports and while in the which, as many believe, may have be lft to rot in the vaults of the ness at the time, the council susbeen taken captive by some pass- historical commision, their myster- pended Mr. Bridges and took, no, porary residence in murderer's row ing Spanish galleon. But none of ies and tragedies forever kept further action. The council adthese mysteries can be solved until secret and the age old lines, or journed with the understanding after the World War placed this. the legislature waves the golden will their story be unlocked from that another meeting would be held teen in death cells. the mute pages so that the world next Friday night to take final action in the matter.

to release Mr. Bridges."

However, Mr. Bridges requested tion, it was stated, and in comin formal meeting Sunday after-For more than a third of my noon at which time it was decided ministerial life of 28 years I have to dispense with the services of been pastor of Poplar Springs Bap- the officer.

tist church. Never have I served a LANDIS SHOE On Force Before. propie, prone to complain. The mother on the night he entered the work as made to reproduce these to the better and more loyal people. They have been exceedingly kind to me and my family. I am to close my work at this church the first of ago under Mayor R. A. Jones. He better and more loyal people. They Mr. Bridges had served as a have been exceedingly kind to me member of the Gaffney police force Just across the street from ie young man may have He was wrapped rough garments sity of North Carolina, who was November to go into another field tendered his resignation at that the old stand you will find t the night before; but to- and expected, almost from the be- then in Spain on a leave of ab- into which the hand of the Lord time when circum stances arose that faced the sordid reality, and minning, to look after himself, sence from the university. He seems like leading. In keeping with indicated his retirement, accordceks flushed. A woman's When he was still an infant the succeeded in locating many of the this long drawn out stream of ing to members of the council at ones pierced his revery like family hurried away into Egypt. records which it was thought kindness, I found, when I came out that time. he turned to see a peas- On the long trip back, some might have to do with North Caro- of the church last Sunday that other protesting vainly years later, he was judged old lina and the "Lost Colony," but those good people had loaded down Mayor Lipscomb said Mr. Bridga ruthless exaction. An enough to walk, and so, day after that was about all, it not being my Ford with many of the neceses services as an officer had beer entirely satisfactory. mimal threatened to break day. he trudged beside the little possible to undertake any trans- sities of life. "He never questioned instruc-We shall never forget these very tions," Mayor Lipscomb said. fel back with cries of ter- by the rondside to find fuel. It copies had been made. The making kind friends and trust that they "When the chief or I told him to money-changer with the was a hard school for babyhood of these copies was left in the may be led to a new pastor who do anything he carried out orders a pig leaned gloatingly but it gave him a hardnes sthat hands of Miss Irene Wright, an will lead them into folds of still American who has had much ex- greater usefulness. without hesitation or quibbling. and picked up a handful of Early in his boyhood Jesus, perience in this kind of work, and JAS. C. GILLESPIE, Retiring Such men for police duty are rare, and I greatly regret that circumwho for two years had had charge pastor. stances made it necessary for us

THE REAL PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF

Peer of All Single Volume Reference Works.

See WADE The Music Man.

-SCHEDULES-

Inter-Carolina Motor Bus Company

Shelby to Charlotte-7, 9, 11, 1, 3, 5, 7:00-Charlotte to Shelby-8, 10, 12, 2, 4, 6.

Kings Mountain to Charlet'c-7:00, 9:30, 11:30, 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 8:30. Direct connection made in Kings Mountain for Spartanburg and Greenville in the morning-One loar layover in the afternoons.

Bessemer City to Charlotte-7:45, 11:45, 1:45, 3:45, 5:45,

Gastonia to Charlotte, leaves every hour on the hour, from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. Connection made there for Rock Hill, S. C.; Spartanburg, Greenville, Cramerton, Lincolnton and Cherryville, York and Clover S C.

Gastonia to Shelby-On the odd houre, making connections for Rutherfordton, Hendersonville, Asheville and Sintraville.

Gastonia to Cherryville-8:30, 12:10, 4:10 3:10.

Cherryville to Gastonia-7:15, 10, 2, 6 p. m. Charlotte to Rock Hill-S. 10:30, 4:15.

Bus leaves Spartanburg 6:15 p. na. - Connection at Kings Mountain, Charlotte. Telephones:

Charlotte 2671; Castonia 1051; Ehelby 456; Shiby to Rutherfordion-8 a. m. and 1 p. m. Rutherfordien to Shelby-9:40 a. m. and 2:15 p. m.

Shelby to Asheville-10:00 a. m., 12, 2, 1, 6, p. m. Acht ville to She 1 y-8, 9 and 11 a. m. and 2, 4 p. m. Sheiby-7:20 a. m.; 10:00 a. m.; 1 p. m.; 4:00 p. m. Lincolnton-6:50 a. m.; 11 a. m.; 5:00 p. m.; 6:30 p. m.

Schedules Subject to Change. ***********

AWAITING NOOSE Chicago.Death by hanging awaits ten men in the Cook county jail, Due to the press of routine busithe largest number to have temat one time since a crime 'wave

Nortorious among them John Walton Winn, slayer of the husband of "Grandma" Nusbaum; the authorities to take earlier ac- Russell T. Scott, drug clerk slayer, and "Midget" Fernekes, sen-Up Poplar Springs pliance with his wishes Mayor tenced to die with Daniel Mc-Lipscomb called the council into Geoghegan, and John Flannery for the slaying of the treasurer of a iously now was braiding The practize of carnentry was no nto a whip, watching, the easy business in those simpler cene silently.

suddenly without a word of a contract for a house assumed re-The startled robber lurched shaping them with an adze. balance and feil sprawling ed to the talk of Jesus by the sea

, and another. with quick sure movements rough-hown beam, s were opend and the oc- So he "waxed strong" as the little whip.

ey enjoyed the tumult thoroughly at his side. always does, and they priests and robbers; ______ (Copyright 1925 by Bruce Barton) t came to answering for uences, they were per-ng to leave it to him. s willing they should shed and panting, the till in his hands. His scornfully over the d by anger and authority," he cried. "My house shall be of prayer for all , but ye have made it the bars, and a part of the donkey, or scurried into the woods lations until after the photostatic is hoard. . . The young was an enormous asset later on. from the pavement and half went into Joseph's carpenter shop.

days. Doubtless the man who took r, he strode to the table sponsibilities for digging into the the fat money-changer sat, rough hillside for its foundations; cled it violenlty across the for felling trees in the forest, and I, grasping at his gains, In after years those who listen-ground. Another step and a of Galilee, and heard him sneak table was overturned, and of the "man who built his house apon a rock" had no doubt that he rowd which had melted know what he was talking about. t the start began to catch a Some of them had seen him ring of what was up, and bending hsi strong clean shoulders forward around the young to deliver hevay blows; or watche strode on, looking neith- ed him trudge away into the ant nor left. He reached the bending his strong clean shoulders s where the dove vages and return at nightfall with a releazel. Brushing aside narrative tells us-a phrase which ap of dealers who had tak-has rather been buried under the stand in ront fof the gat- too-frequent repetition of "the he threw down the bars meek and lowly" and "the lamb." the bellowing animals As he grew in stature and experrh the crowd and into the fence he developed with his persontriking vigorous blows at skill an unusual canacity for directly the work of other men en ole thing happened so that Joseph allowed him an inat the priests were swept creasing responsibility in the manthemselves and bore was forturate, for the day came on hsi in a body. Who was red this act of defiance? no longer-having sawed his last ad he come from? By board, and planed it smooth- and thority did he presume to the management of the business business? The descended upon the shoulders of ve way again at the on- the boy who had learned it so

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the firm heretofore doing business under the name of McLean and Burroughs or the Shelby Sausage Co., has been dissolved. This the 15th day of September 1926.

EARL D. McLEAN, J. T. BURROUGHS.

the LANDIS SHOE SHOP, next door to Webb Bros. We are still giving as good service as can be found in shoe repairing. All work guaranteed.

building and loan association.

SHOP

HARMONICA MIKE

"Harmonica Mike" known from

The dapper little harp artist performances over radio and before large audiences America over since, he departed from his boy-hood home. Mike was a visitor in Shelby last week, leaving later

Thereafter, he says, he will like.

Mr. Sullivan will give an enter-

... ...

TEN I CHICAGO

Also second hand Shoes. Polish and Laces for sale. South LaFayette Street, Shelby, N. C.

J. A. DAYBERRY. MANAGER.

| SOUTHERN I                                       | RAILWAYNNOUNCES | SYSTEM                                    |
|--|---------------------|---|
| Special Round                                    | Trip Excurs         | ion Fares                                 |
| Atlanta, Ga., a                                  | nd Birmingh         | am, Ala.,                                 |
| THURSDAY.The following roundnamed below: | , OCTOBER           | 7, 1926                                   |
| THURSDAY.The following round                 | , OCTOBER           | 7, 1926                                   |
| THURSDAY.The following roundnamed below: | trip fares will app | 7, 1926ly from stations               |
| THURSDAY.The following roundnamed below: | trip fares will app | 7, 1926ly from stationsBirmingham |

| Gastonia       | 6.75 | 8.75  |
|----------------|------|-------|
| Kings Mountain | 6.50 | 8.50  |
| Greensboro     | 9.00 | 11.00 |
| High Point     | 9.00 | 11.00 |
| Thomasville    | 8.50 | 10.50 |
| Lexington      | 8.00 | 10.00 |
| Salisbury      | 8.00 | 10.00 |
| Concord        | 7.50 | 9.50  |
| Marion         | 9.00 | 11.00 |
| Shelby         | 6.00 | 8.00  |
| Winston-Salem  | 9.60 | 11.00 |
| Mocksville     | 9.00 | 11.00 |
| Montesville    | 8 50 | 10.50 |

Proportionately recuced round trly fares from intermediate points. Tickets on sale Thursday, October 7, 1926.

Tickets returning good on regular trains (Except 37.) Final limit Atlanta tickets Monday. October 11, 1926. Final limit Birmingham tickets Wednesday, October 13, 1926. Return trip must be completed prior to midnight of final limit of tickets.

Passengers from Greensboro and intermediate points will use train 39, and passengers from Winston-Salem and intermediate points will use train 9 to Charlotte, thence train 39. Passengers from Charlotte and points south can use trains 15 and 39.

Tickets good in parlor and sleeping cars on payment of parlor or sleeping car charges.

No baggage checked. No stop-overs.

For further information call on any Southern Railway Agent.

R. H. GRAHAM, D. P. A. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Encourage Mouth Cleanliness

Children love the cool taste of healthful cleanliness afforded by Wrigley's Chewing Sweets.

And with Wrigley's they acquire a splendid system or practice of mouth hygiene.

It removes the bits of food which would ferment and injure the teeth.

It stimulates the digestive juices, thus aiding the stomach and general health.

> Wrigley's is good for you, tool

"SOFT and GOOD" It's a "Star Brand"

'ES, folks, the name of this shoe is "Soft and Good," and it is true to its name.

The soles are flexible cak, Goodyear welt sewed. There's no tacks or threads to hurt your feet. The uppers are soft and pliable, yet strong and sturdy, and will stand lots of hard service.

"Soft and Good" shoes are put out by the makers of "Star Brand" shoes-and that means they are solid leather and cost you less per month. .

WRAY - HUDSON CO. "Where Prices Satisfy."

LOOK FOR THIS Y ON THE HEEL