

Seaboard Building
New R. R. Bridge

Further Evidence That Line May Be Extended From Rutherford to Hendersonville.

Rutherford Sun.
Forest City.—From a reliable source of information it was learned that the Seaboard Airline railroad had plans drawn and blue prints ready to build a modern steel bridge to replace the wooden trestle structure now used to cross the Second Broad river, just above Bottle station on their Wilmington-Rutherford line. The estimated cost of the new bridge ran into big figures, as the bridge is over 500 feet in length and 90 feet in height.

It is stated that the plans are in the chief engineer's offices at Monroe but it cannot be stated now just when work will begin. It is known, however, that the Seaboard was not in a position last spring to get the freight business of Chimney Rock Mountains, inc., as the present trestle bridge, though considered safe for passenger trains and for freight cars which are not loaded in excess of 60,000 pounds, will not stand modern heavy traffic.

FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OHIO GIVES
GOVERNOR 3rd TERM

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3.—For the first time in the history of Ohio a governor has been elected to serve his third consecutive term.

Complete returns tonight from Tuesday's election showed Ohioans re-elected Governor Vic Donahey, Democrat, who repeated political history of his two previous administrations when he was the only Democrat on the state ticket to be selected, and the voters swept a Republican United States senator into office and selected probably a solid complement of Republicans for the remainder of the state offices.

Virginia Lady Tells of Taking Cardui and Says She Has Since Recovered Perfect Health.

Lynchburg, Va.—"I have taken Cardui several times for a run-down condition and have found it perfectly splendid," says Mrs. Lee T. Marsh, 715 First Street, this city.
"About ten years ago," she explains, "I became so weak I could not go about. I looked like a skeleton and... was dreadfully worried about myself. A friend suggested Cardui and I decided to try it.
"I kept up the medicine until I had taken six bottles. It regulated and built me up. I improved greatly.
"Last year we drove up here through the country from Florida. I was exposed to the weather and must have taken cold, for I became ill. I got run-down, lost flesh, ... could not sleep and had no appetite at all. I was so nervous that I did not know what to do.
"I thought of Cardui. I began to take it regularly and it was not long before I began to feel better. I took six bottles, one after another, and at the finish of the last one was perfectly well again. Since then I have continued to take Cardui and all my troubles have disappeared and my perfect health."

Democrat Cut Down Lead
Of G. O. P. In Upper House

Leading Republican Senators Bowled Over in National Election.
Butler is Beaten

The Democratic party has the upper hand in the new Congress by the will of voters in Tuesday's election.

According to early estimates the Democrats have 47 seats and the Republicans only 33. However, 49 is regarded as a majority and the insurgent Republicans may hold power balance.

As far and near districts sent in their belated returns the Democratic inroads into the working majority of the Republicans had reached such proportions that it became certain that the western insurgents would hold the balance of power in the senate and possibly in the house.

Besides gaining seven of the nine seats constituting the Republican majority in the senate, the Democra-tics reduced by 13 the present Republican majority of 36 in the house.

These gains added to the capture of the governorships in two normally Republican states—South Dakota and Colorado—lifted the banner of Democracy to the highest pinnacle it has reached since the Wilson administration was returned to office 12 years ago.

Some Undecided.
A number of senatorial, congressional and gubernatorial contests still remained to be decided early tonight with the Republican candidates having the edge in the senate fights in Indiana, Oregon and California and the Democrats far ahead in Kentucky.

Some close contests also were being furnished in the fewer than two dozen house races which still were to be decided while Democratic governors in two states—Mrs. Nellie Ross in Wyoming, and Governor Hunt in Arizona—were being hard pressed.

Republican insurgents in Congress not only held their own, but they added two new members in the senate in Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, and John J. Blaine, of Wisconsin. With the Republican majority whittled to a bare two or three this group will hold a strategic position in the 70th congress.

Returns rolling in during the day bowed over four other Republican stalwarts in the senate besides Butler of Massachusetts; Wadsworth of Massachusetts; Richard P. Ernst lost to Allen W. Larkley in Kentucky; Geo. H. Williams was defeated by Harry B. Hawes in Missouri; O. E. Welker of New York, and Harrell of Okla-wa went down before Millard E. Tydings in Maryland where Governor Ritchie, Democrat, was re-elected for a third term and Ralph E.
Cameron fell before Carl Hayden.
Senators "Jim" Watson and Arthur A. Robinson were gradually increasing their leads in Indiana, while Frederick Steiwer, Republican, had a comfortable lead over Bert J. Hauey, Democrat, and Senator Robert N. Stanfield, independent Republican, in Oregon.

Returns drifting in during the day gave Senator Tasker I. Oddie, a victory over Raymond T. Baker in Nevada, but the contest in California between Senator Samuel M.
Shorridge and John B. Elliott, Democrat, still was left in the undecided class, although Shorridge had what appeared to be a commanding lead.

Numerical Strength.
Leaving aside the four contests on which decisive returns are yet to be received, the Democrats have elected 14 senators and the Republicans a like number. This gives the Democrats a total of 47, in the new senate, or two less than a majority, while the Republicans have 43 and are certain to elect a senator from Maine on November 29.

So long as they carry it in bags, the mail will still be sacked regardless of the Marines.

HUSBAND IN JAIL,
WIFE IS ELECTED
MEMBER HOUSE

New York, Nov. 3.—Of the 19 women who aspired to join the three already in the House of Representatives, only one was successful.

She was Mrs. John W.
Langley, of Kentucky, wife of former Representative Langley, who is serving sentence in Federal prison for a conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law.

The three present women members were returned Mrs.
Florence P. Kahn, Republican, California; Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, Republican, Massachusetts; and Mrs.
Mary T. Norton, Democrat,
New Jersey.

Mrs. Ella Timney Sanford, of Wisconsin, aspired to a seat in the senate, but was defeated by John J. Blaine. She ran as a prohibitionist.

GOLD MINING AGAIN
IN GOLDEN VALLEY

Rutherford Sun.
Mr. and Mrs. Landrum Yelton and son, Horace of Forest City, spent yesterday afternoon in Golden.

It seems that Golden Valley may again hear the hum of machinery in the gold mining business. Many options are being taken. Mr. A. E.
Collins, of Chicago, Ill., who was a captain in the World war, has been doing quite a lot of prospecting on Summie creek and on Mr. J. L.
Yelton's farm. The showing of gold has been good, and it is hoped that gold mining may begin.

FERGUSONS VOTED FOR MAN WHO OUSTED THEM

Austin, Texas.—The votes of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson will be counted for Dan Moody who defeated Mrs. Ferguson for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. The Fergusons announced they had voted the Democratic ticket straight by the absentee voting method.
