Converse College Week-End House Party
Miss Betty Suttle, of Converse college, is entertaining this week-end, a charming house party at the lovely home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Suttle in Bevelore Heights. The personnel is: Miss Suttle, Miss Evelyn Martin, of Missouri, Miss Mary Hall, of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Joe Wood, of Cadetown, Ga. and Miss Louise LaRogue, of Kinston.

Intermediate B. Y. P. U. Give Social
The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church gave a most enjoyable social Thursday evening in the parlors of the church which were most charmingly decorated with fall flowers and autumn leaves. Games of all kinds were played and songs were sung by all the members. At the close of the evening, delicious sandwiches, punch and ices were served. A most pleasant evening was spent by these members and their friends.

Master C. T. Hord Celebrates Birthday
At the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hord, Master C. T. Hord, Jr., celebrated his fifth birthday on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. About 30 of his little friends assembled on the lawn and many games and contests were played on the lawn and in the rooms which were most beautifully decorated with fall flowers. The dining room table was lovely, and centering it was the birthday cake with the five pink candles. On each end were silver candlesticks holding pink candles, and the pink-and-white color scheme was charmingly carried out in the refreshments which consisted of ices, cakes, candies, and nuts. After the cake cutting, the loveliest of little souvenirs were given to each little guest. Master Hord received many useful and attractive gifts.

Chicora Club With Mrs. F. O. Gee
The Chicora club held a most delightful meeting with Mrs. F. O. Gee in her charming home on South Washington street on Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Lovely chrysanthemums in yellow and white with trailing ivy, were most artistically arranged and placed in the rooms thrown together for the occasion. A bright open fire added cheeriness to the lovely rooms. Mrs. B. T. Falls, president called the meeting to order and after the roll call and the most original and attractive minutes read the secretary, Mrs. W. B. Dix, a business session was held. The program was then opened. The subject was a miscellaneous one in the absence of Mrs. McMurry paper on "Prehistoric Animal Life" was omitted. Mrs. W. F. Mitchell gave a most interesting reading on "Our Planet Neighbors" and Mrs. Odus Mull closed the program with a most delightful and enlightening reading on "Earthquakes and Volcanoes." For a social hour Mrs. Gee served elegant and delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Gibson and Mrs. L. A. Gettys.

Birthday Party
Margaret Miller Limerick the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Limerick of Waco, delightfully entertained a large number of her friends Thursday afternoon celebrating her ninth birthday from 2 to 6 o'clock. The guests were greeted by the business, registering and installing them in the reception hall. The living room which were beautifully decorated with exquisite and white fall roses, this being the color scheme of the occasion and floor baskets holding beautiful autumn leaves.

In here Miss Malissa Andrews and the little guests played numerous musical selections, during the afternoon. After which Miss Edna Wilkerson invited the guests into a beautifully appointed scene of loveliness a silver vase holding dainty white roses which were the only table flowers. Attractive lace covers shaded over pink with pin-tapers burning from either end of the table encircling the lovely white birthday cake, decorated with pink rose buds holding the tiny pink candles with a miniature nymph in the center. In here Mrs. Limerick was assisted by Misses Andrews and Wilkerson in serving a delicious pink and white frozen salad with accessories. Here little Miss Ruth Wacaster was awarded the nymph for blowing out the candles.

Miss Nell Wilson then delightfully entertained the little party with a turkey contest. Miss Mary Olive Whitworth won the prize for pinning the turkey head most correctly, after which the gifts were admired and each little guest was presented a favor and wished for the little hostess many more happy birthdays.

Madame Stenhouse and Morgan Joint Hostesses
One of the loveliest and most enjoyable card parties of the season was given on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Woman's club rooms by Madames Oelburn Stenhouse and Gerald Morgan. The large and elegant room presented a picture of fall beauty, with its decorations of beautiful blue baskets holding rich autumn leaves in the colors of red and yellow, handsome yellow and white chrysanthemum, in large vases, and a riot of colored zinnias in low bowls and nottery vases. Twelve tables had been placed in here and the most attractive place and score cards were used pertaining to the season. Many progressions were made and at the conclusion of the games Mrs. Frank Hoey was found to have high score, and she was presented with a beautiful linen vanity set. Mrs. Carl Thomson drew the white ribbon, and she was given a lovely prize, a set of bath salts in charming colors. A most delicious salad and sweet course was served to the guests at five o'clock. Mrs. Stenhouse received the guests in a handsome black satin gown with gold trimming and Mrs. Morgan received in a lovely afternoon gown of grayorgette.

Fashion Show Brilliant Success
The Fashion Show, sponsored by the afternoon division No. 1, of the Woman's club, was a brilliant success from every standpoint. It was given at the Princess theatre, which is one of the largest in the state, and this building was comfortably filled on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock when the fashion event took place. In the favor of the theatre, members of the division sold home-made candies and sold out at the close of the evening, realizing $27 clear from this sale. The stage of the theatre, having been made into a beautiful garden scene was the setting for the fashion show, and the lovely models who displayed the gowns, coats and evening dresses so well. Chrysanthemums of yellow and white, tall palms and ferns and trellises and swings and benches made the garden most realistic even to the fountain made of greenery and a tall palm in the center, carried out the effect most perfectly.

The Shelby high school orchestra comes in for a large part of the praise for the success. They furnished most delightful music. At the sound of the trumpet the famous Masters Walter Fanning and Will Arey Jr., dressed in white satin suits with yellow sashes, and wearing white satin caps, and carrying long staffs of white with yellow streamers, advanced to the front of the stage and took their places. Little Nancy Lincheerer dressed in blue chiffon and lace made a charming picture in her role.

The first scene presented sport and street dresses, the second afternoon dresses, the third coat, the fourth evening dresses and the 5th a grand ensemble of sport dresses and gorgeous shawls. Models selected by the Woman club were: Mrs. John Schenck, Jr., Miss Millicent Blanton, Miss Edna Jordan, Miss Kathleen Hord, Miss Chandler, Miss Nancy Suttle, Mrs. T. W. Hamrick. During the intermissions Prof. McIlvaine of Charlotte, sang with Mrs. Wm. McCord as accompanist.
