

Sidely Sidelights - Around Our Town - By Renn Drum

SOME OF THESE SHELBY folks who believe in this Lincoln county faith healer ought to take the cotton price down and see what they can do with it.

SCIENCE IS GETTING TOO smart for us. Some of these days they'll have us believing it will not do any good to cross our fingers when a black cat crosses the road. They're exploding all our myths and beliefs.

JUST A FEW WEEKS BACK government weather experts came along and told us that planting or sowing anything by certain seasons of the moon was all bunkum; and that cutting wood or such-like by the changes of the planet Luna was all foolery. That created quite a row. Anybody that knows the farmers of North Carolina will agree to that. Over to the sheriff's office a bunch of old-timers, and a few younger ones, got to discussing the report. Several fellows, among them John Eskridge and Sheriff Logan, disclaimed the fact that they ever had gone by the moon in doing such things and that they always knew there was nothing to it. Several other old fellows set by and said nothing, which was to say that the next wood they cut will be by the right moon. And out on the farms more folks will stick to the moon than the weather experts for several generations of fathers and mothers have passed down the advice about the moon, while very few ever swore by the weather experts. So, sooner or later the scientists may have us stop tearing the corners off two dollar bills.

ANOTHER FAMOUS WEATHER forecaster comes along and tells us that it does snow as much as it ever did. That seems hard to believe. Stop the next man you meet on the street and he'll tell you that it doesn't seem like it snows as much these days. The weather forecaster had two reasons for his theory. First, he said those who think it is not snowing as much are merely getting older and are not wise enough over it to notice the fact. Second, he says the automobiles keep it from staying on the ground as fast. That's a bright one for you. Automobiles beat down the snow and the dirt accumulated in the atmosphere above a busy world mixes with the flakes and makes them fall faster.

Perhaps he's right for wasn't it only two summers ago that the colored folks told of an angel alighting on Chimney Rock and singing "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More"?

THE THIRD MYTH EXPLODED for us that Tom Ediso does sleep more than four hours per night. A lot of young folks have been getting consolation out of the story that Edison says no more sleep is needed. Now a doctor comes along and says when Edison doesn't sleep eight hours at night he nods at his desk next day. So we'll have to go back to old Ben Franklin and his "early to bed" stuff.

All of which, as we say, tends to show that some of these days we may be told to consider 13 a lucky number.

DON'T BE SURPRISED ONE of these days if you go by McNeely's and Kelly's and see some, loud red or green knit underwear on the clothing dummy in the display windows. The Association of Knit Underwear manufacturers promises that the new styles in underwear will be louder than the red flannels of olden days.

A READER SAYS THAT THE committee which picked the best five needs in the Star contests must have been made up of young men. His reason was that the list suggesting longer dresses and older school teachers was not among the winners.

MANY FOLKS IN SHELBY have read "Mighty Lak a Rose," the masterpiece of Frank L. Stanton, poet laureate of Georgia and one of the South's best known poets. It was Stanton that also wrote "Lil' Peeler" and "Just A-Wearin' for You." Those who have read his masterpiece will hear with regret that Stanton died last Friday and left a world he brightened up for thousands. In coming centuries however Stanton will be remembered by this, if no more:

This world that we're a livin' in Is mighty hard to beat; You git a thorn for every rose, But ain't the roses sweet.

TIMES MAY BE HARD AND IT may cost a lot to live but just take a walk around to the undertaker's place and find out what it costs to die.

IF THAT FAILS TO CHEER you up we had better stop worrying you.

Kansas, the pioneer state in the woman suffrage movement, has had only five women in the legislature, none in the state senate and none in congress.

All claims should be made out upon the regular bankruptcy forms, properly verified, and filed with the undersigned referee, on the 29th day of December, 1926.

JOHN M. ROBINSON, Referee.

Toluca Items Of Community Events (Special to The Star.) We are having some cold, bad weather now. People planned to get their cotton picked during the holidays but the children were out of school but the weather was too rough.

Some colored people around Toluca thought they would dress up for Christmas. Mr. W. H. Young's store was broken into one night last week. Some shoes and clothing were taken, the thief left his cap in the store and the cap was identified. The negro was picked up the next morning. Fortunately he had a pair of baby shoes in his pocket, in his haste he took the shoes that were on display and did not get mates. The negro is in Shelby jail awaiting court.

Master Thaxton Sain spent last Tuesday night with his schoolmate Master Les Parker of Belwood.

Messrs. Tom Probst and Cephal Blanton of Shelby were bird hunters. The dogs which had belonged to Mr. Probst set a covey of birds. Mr. Blanton shot at the birds and accidentally killed one of the dogs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hasting of Newton were Toluca visitors last Sunday.

Mrs. Mattie Willis spent the holidays in Cherryville, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sain and Mr. Charlie Yarboro of Morganton spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. Sain's daughter Mrs. Ellis Hartman.

Miss Kate Smith of near Reepsville spent a few days at the home of Mr. Carme Boyles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boyles spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyles. Misses Edith and Helen Sain spent last Saturday night with their sister Mrs. Austin Hicks.

Mrs. Plennie Hoyle spent last Monday with Mrs. F. A. Boyles. Miss Helen Sain spent last Tuesday night with Miss Stella Costner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alwan and daughter Miss Rena were dinner guests at the home of Mr. A. B. Willis last Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Mostella is still real sick at this writing.

Misses Vernie and Lona Hasting accompanied by Messrs Walter Clark and Gordon Boland of Newton visited Misses Mary and Lucy Sain last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandis Wright of Fairmont spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Wright's sister Mrs. Carme Boyles.

Misses Mary and Lucy Sain, Messrs Fletcher Sain and Carroll Mull visited their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mull during the holidays.

Among the college students in the community around Toluca that were home for the Christmas holidays and returned this week were Mr. Devanugh Boyles of Weaverville, Messrs. Floyd and John A. Hallman, Wake Forest, Mr. Brevard Falls, Wake Forest and Misses Helen Falls, Meredith and Lois Willis, Cullowhee.

Mr. Austin Hicks will soon have the new addition to his house finished and is going to move soon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Sain went to see their daughter Miss Donna Sain, of Shelby last Sunday who is in the Shelby hospital for treatment awaiting an operation.

Selma Fyeland, recently elected county clerk of Dane county, Wis., is the first woman to hold a public office in that county.
