Chicora Club Meeting This Afternoon
Mrs. J. J. Lattimore is entertaining the members of the Chicora club this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Cotillon Club Dance On Friday Evening
The Cotillon club will give one of their delightful dances on Friday night at the club rooms at 3:30 o'clock.

Miss Hendrick Entertains.
Miss Frances Hendrick gave a delightful party to a number of her friends at her home on South DeKalb street Thursday. Cards and all kinds of games were played.

Unintentionally Omitted
In the writing up of the Barton-Ramsey wedding which took place on December 28th at the Presbyterian church, the social writer omitted unintentionally the name of Mr. Hugh Graham Miller, of Raleigh and Shelby who was one of the groomsmen and also cut the dime at the rehearsal party the evening before the wedding.

Miss George Blanton Club Hostess.
At the charming home, Mrs. George Blanton was hostess to the members of the Thursday afternoon club on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Music Memory Contest
The Music Memory contest will be introduced at once in three of the schools in Shelby. In an effort to cultivate in the children of the city schools an appreciation and love for good music, the music department of the North Carolina Federation of Women's clubs is sponsoring the Music Memory contest.

Miss Carolyn Blanton To Entertain
Miss Carolyn Blanton will arrive from Converse college today bringing with her two of her school mates who will attend the dance on Friday evening.

Chapel Hill.—The greatest newspaper in America today is the "home town paper, better known to most of us as the country weekly," John H. Casey, professor of rural journalism in the school of journalism, University of Missouri told the North Carolina Newspaper Institute in an address here recently.

Afternoon Division
The afternoon division No. 1 of the Woman's club held a most delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock having as its gracious hostesses Mesdames R. M. Graham, J. G. Dudley and R. E. Campbell.

Music And Arts Department Hold Interesting Meeting
Mrs. A. D. Brabble and Mrs. Louis Gardner were the charming hostesses to the members of the Music and Arts department of the Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

All items intended for this department must be telephoned or sent in to the Society Editor before 11 a. m., the day before publication. All news items of interest to women are welcomed.

was most beautifully decorated with Confederate flags and palms and ferns. A large number of the members was present and a full business meeting was held after the roll call and minutes.

Milk contains all the vitamins in sufficient amounts, except possibly the anticorbutic. This possible deficiency is unimportant because the lack is made up in the fruit and vegetables which the children eat. The caloric value of milk is very high, 670 in comparison with 72 in an egg, 60 in a chop, and 35 in a tablespoonful of cooked cereal. It is, therefore, an economical food.

celebrates Birthday
The attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cabanis, sr., celebrated her fourth birthday on Saturday afternoon. When the little guests had assembled they played many interesting games.

PAPER OF HOME TOWN GREATEST OF ALL PAPERS
The country weekly will survive as it has developed," he said. It will survive through service—service to its community.

The country weeklies of this country with their 75,000,000 readers constitute in the aggregate and individually the best advertising medium of products satisfying or promising to satisfy a human want that this advertising age has developed.

Dr. Edgar W. Knight, of the University of North Carolina in an address at the annual banquet of the institute last night told the newspapermen they could do much for education in the state.

Milk Is An Aid To Child Health

Chicago.—Disturbances of nutrition in childhood age due more often to insufficient or unsuitable food than to any other cause.

In many instances food is relatively insufficient, although it seems sufficient in amount, the explanation being that its caloric value is low in spite of its bulk. In other instances the caloric value is sufficient, but the relation of the food elements to each other unsuitable and the food value cannot be utilized.

Milk is a food which contains all the elements necessary for growth and development. Furthermore, it contains them in almost the ideal proportions. It contains a sufficient amount of all the necessary salts, except of iron. The lack is not of importance, however, as children get plenty of iron in their meat, eggs and green vegetables.

Milk contains all the vitamins in sufficient amounts, except possibly the anticorbutic. This possible deficiency is unimportant because the lack is made up in the fruit and vegetables which the children eat.

Milk is easily digested. The child that cannot take it is exceptional. Children like it, unless they have been taught not to, or have had it suggested to them that it is not good for them.

Milk should form the basis of the diet of young children and be an important part of that of older children. It is advisable for children of all ages to take a quart daily.

Children who have a quart of milk daily never suffer from disturbances of nutrition, due to an insufficient amount of food or to lack of any of the food elements.

Radio Takes Away The Circus Parade

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Kids, if you have tears prepare to shed them now. The circus parade seems likely to pass out, a victim of radio.

In lieu of the street parade, abandoned for good last summer because of city congestion, the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus today announced plans for a portable broadcasting outfit.

Chief of the many radio features of the circus "mike" will be the roars of greeting to the children in the town ahead, from the wild animals. The circus band will furnish concert numbers and vocal artists will sing both to the bleachers and to the mike.

"Traffic lights," said Odum, "have put the parade out of business, but we can put nearly as much entertainment on the air as we could on the street."

There was a young lady named Myer,
Whose weight caused the guys to gey'er;
So she cut out the grub
For a month—the poor dub,
And now she looks like a flat tire!

Are Not Infidels
Legislators who desire members of their household to sit in during the session are developing the habit connecting their dependents with the payroll. Two years ago a senator attached his daughter to the payroll in the capacity of page. This year a senator landed two sons as pages. This may be extended to include wives, or other adult members of the family, in some capacity. "But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath defiled the faith and is worse than an infidel." So declared the apostle to the Gentiles writing to Timothy. The colonies who are providing for their households at state expense have the authority "from between the legs of the Bible." They are interpreting St. Paul literally and liberally.—R. R. Clark in Greensboro News.

Nearly Electrocuted.
Rutherford Sun.
Alexander—Mr. Albert D. Abernethy, electrician at the Alexander mills, came very near being electrocuted Thursday by accident.
He had just completed rewinding a large motor and was testing it out and in attempting to throw off the switch in some way the full force of 600 volts flashed out, burning his right hand, severely scorching his face and also burning his neck and breast. The leather clasp on his watch chain was burned into a crisp, though the watch was un-injured.

Policeman (to pedestrian, just struck by hit and run driver): Did you get his number?
Victim: No, but I'd recognize his laugh anywhere.

Nurse: Have you ever run a temperature?
Worse: No, but I've driven most every other kind.

When a man gets home from work and finds his wife reading an automobile paper, says Clint Newton he had better go right back to work again.
