Twentieth Century Meeting
Mrs. J. Heyward Hull is entertaining the members of the Cicero club this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. B. M. Graham Entertaining
Mrs. B. M. Graham is entertaining a number of friends at a bridge party this afternoon in honor of one of Shelby's teachers, and a most recent bride.

Tables Being Reserved
Many tables are being reserved for the large bridge party which is to be given on Monday, March 28th at the club rooms sponsored by the home economics department of the Woman's clubs. Those wanting to reserve tables will please phone Mrs. Fred Morgan and Mrs. T. W. Hamrick. This promises to be quite a large social affair of the season.

White-Campbell Wedding
Mr. Doc White, of Forest City, and Miss Annie Campbell, of South Shelby, motored to York, S. C. on last Sunday and were married at the court house in that city. The wedding came as a surprise to many. Mrs. White is the attractive daughter of Rev. N. C. Campbell of South Shelby. Mr. White holds a responsible position at Forest City where they will make their home. They have a host of friends who wish them much happiness.

G. A.'s With Miss Hord
The G. A.'s met with Miss Mable Frances Hord at her lovely home on North Lafayette street Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The room was beautifully arranged and decorated with potted flowers. There was a large number of the G. A.'s present. Our G. A. leader Mrs. Griffin Smith made an interesting talk on the work of the G. A. program. Delicious refreshments were served carrying out the G. A. color scheme of green and white. N. M.

Mrs. E. B. Lattimore Hostess To Club
Mrs. E. B. Lattimore was the charming hostess to the members of the Thursday afternoon club at 3:30 o'clock. The rooms were beautiful with their decorations of jonquils and spirea placed and arranged most effectively and artistically. The members and a few invited guests, had a most delightful time playing the club game, rock. After many progressions, a social hour was enjoyed and during this hour Mrs. Lattimore served the most tempting and delicious refreshments.

Mothers Meet
Mr. Ford In Charge
Last Friday afternoon the mothers of the children in the beginners department of the Central S. E. S. S. were entertained by Mrs. Reil Young at the home of Mrs. Chas Young. Mrs. Thad Ford, superintendent of the beginners' department had charge of the meeting. The subject for the afternoon was "Ourselves." Most interesting and instructive papers on the subject were read by Mrs. W. Jordan, Mrs. Chas Wells and Mrs. Carl Webb. Discussion followed each paper, the mothers entering heartily into each. This was followed by a beautiful piano solo played by Miss Thelma Young and Mrs. Thad Ford sang a "Teachers' hymn." After the devotional exercises led by Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. Young assisted by Mrs. Chas Young and Miss Thelma served delicious refreshments, carrying out color scheme of yellow and green. These mothers' meetings are held quarterly and are proving most interesting and helpful to both mothers and workers in the beginners department.

Division Meets
One of the most enjoyable meetings of the season of the evening division of the Woman's club was on Thursday evening at the club rooms when Miss Oeland Washburn was the gracious hostess to the members and a few invited guests. The rooms were lovely with their decorations, a wealth of beautiful spring flowers being used most attractively and artistically. The subject of the evening was "A Miscellaneous" program and social. Miss Washburn who is very clever and original, had prepared a most exciting and delightful St. Patrick's concert and this was much enjoyed and caused merriment and laughter. After the contest Mrs. Shovine Beam and Mrs. Al Bennett gave two beautiful vocal selections and Misses Bernice Hamrick and Carole Lever gave a delightful reading and Miss Etalio Moses and Miss Bertha Bostick played exquisite two instrumental solos which closed a most interesting and charming evening. Miss Washburn served a beautiful and delicious luncheon with St. Patrick's favors.

To Have Apron Sale
The afternoon division No. 1 of the Woman's club will have an apron sale on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the club rooms after their meeting. Everyone is invited to attend, and if interested, buy aprons. All kinds, fancy and plain, will be shown and sold at a nominal price.

Among those motoring to Gaffney, S. C., on Thursday evening to hear Edgar Guest, the famous poet were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Long, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Horst, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Suttle, Mr. and Mrs. Odus Mull, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ogburn Stephenson, Mr. Paul Webb, Mrs. Paul Webb Jr., Mrs. J. D. Lineberger, Dr. Harbison Miss Bessie Clark, Miss Page Godfrey and Mr. Bush Eskridge.

Farmer-Anthony Wedding
Mr. Millard Farmer and Miss Mozelle Anthony were married last Sunday at 4:30 o'clock at Gaffney, S. C. by Judge Stroup. Miss Anthony wore a lovely costume of blue with hat and accessories to match and also coat of blue and brown. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Anthony and has been an efficient teacher at Buffalo. Mr. Farmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farmer and is a prominent young business man connected with the Coca-Cola company. They will be with Mr. Farmer's parents for the present.

Farewell Party At Gaffney
The following is copied from the Gaffney Ledger: "Mrs. Sam Gault who is leaving at an early date for Shelby, N. C., was given a farewell party on Tuesday evening. The affair was a most delightful surprise to the honoree and a delicious supper was served in picnic style. The guests included Major and Mrs. Henry C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hames, Mr. and Mrs. A. Louis Wood, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Mills Allen, Mrs. C. D. Buckner, Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Higgins, Mrs. Susan B. Hendley, Miss Nellie Wood and Miss Bess Potter. Mr. Gault left about two weeks ago for Shelby. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gault have many friends in Gaffney who regret that they are moving elsewhere to make their home."

Division No. 2 Has Delightful Meeting
Mrs. Mial Tiddy and Mrs. McGregor were the gracious hostesses to the members of the afternoon division of the Woman's club on Thursday afternoon at the club rooms. Spring flowers consisting of jonquils and spirea, and potted plants, were used most beautifully as decorations. A large number was present and answered to the roll call. The leader of the afternoon was Mrs. D. R. S. Frazier. The subject on this occasion was "Medical Science." Three splendid papers, which showed careful thought and preparation were read by Mrs. F. R. Sanders whose subject was "Pioneers in the Laboratory," "Wonderful Achievement in Surgery" was given by Mrs. W. H. Blanton and "Free Clinics" by Mrs. Alice Lineberger was read by Mrs. Grover Beam. After the literary program Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts sang a lovely solo, and Miss Dorothy King then played beautifully, an instrumental solo which closed the delightful program. The hostesses during a social hour served delicious and elegant refreshments.

537 STUDENTS IN S. SHELBY SCHOOL

Girls Out-Number the Boys. Names of Thirty-two Pupils on the Honor Roll.

(Special to The Star.)
The total enrollment of the South Shelby school at the close of the 6th month was 537. Of this number 245 are boys and 292 are girls; the percentage of attendance was 99; the average daily attendance from 6-21 was 478.

There were 29 boys and 33 girls who were tardy making a total of 62 tardies for the month. The school gained nine new pupils during the past month. The following 32 pupils made not less than B on their studies:

Sixth grade: Hazel Abner, Magnolia Carter, Emma Irvin, Cothena Hamrick, Vernia Morrison, Matilda Peters, Tommie Weaver and Velvie Wilkie.

Seventh grade: Mary Sue Bell, Evelyn Blanton, Lucile Blanton, Edith Blanton, Elizabeth Blanton, Annie Mae Bobbitt, Esther Byars, Kathryn Gant, Willie Hamrick, Lena Hamrick, Glen Part, Mildred Patterson, Evelyn Short, Baxter Shull, Irene Turner, Hattie Wardick, Jessie Humphries.

Eighth grade: Clyde Wright, Lucile Blanton, Gladys Bostic.

Ninth grade: Harvey Blanton, Mildred Parker, Ruth Williams, Pauline Pritchard.

Misses Adeline Bestick, Nora Cornwall and Irene Chandler, reported no tardies for the sixth month.

Helen Whitener and Evelyn Short played "The March of the Carnival" for us during chapel on Wednesday. The duet was well received.

Mrs. Frances Hoyle's section of the fifth grade had charge of "The Current Events" program Monday which was enjoyable. After the song, Lords prayer and reading of the 24th Psalm by Lillian Johnson "Home Affairs" in the form of questions and answers was discussed by J. D. Hawkins, Arthur Lebetter, Samuel Putnam; Julian Morehead, Theron Jones, Stacy Duncan and Bertha Burns. "Foreign Affairs" was discussed by Annie Ray Jones, who told us about "Marching on to Shanghai"; Janet Morrison's subject was "More Marines to Nicaragua" and Louis Jones told us "How to Make War an Outlaw."

The following new pupils were enrolled recently: Earle Wallace, Esther McSwain, Lela Lee Norris, Sara Green, Avery Lowrance, Stella Bostic.
