"Heaven on Earth"

A splendid story—told as a comedy—of the revolt of youth—from too much guidance. It is a story of gipsy life and war life—romantic, humorous, engrossing, played by two screen favorites—

CONRAD NAGEL and RENEE ADOREE.
IT'S COMING—TODAY—

FRIDAY

Accompanied by a Good Comedy and News Reel.

Saturday

ART ACORD IN

"Hard Fists"

A good western, with a BEN TURPIN COMEDY and FABLES.

Two splendid pictures, one the second of the series of UNITED ARTISTS PRODUCTIONS.

"Stella Dallas"

Tuesday

To be followed by COLLEEN MOORE in her latest—

"Orchids and Ermine"

Thursday

"STELLA DALLAS" is one of a series of seven UNITED ARTISTS PICTURES we have booked, the series opening with "THE BLACK PIRATE." The next following "STELLA" will be "THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH." And there are four others.

"STELLA DALLAS" is played by BELLE BENNETT and RONALD COLMAN. It is a spirited and dramatic picture, built around the theme of a mother's love of her daughter. The story of the play appeared serially in "The American Magazine," and has since been published in book form. It has become vastly popular.

Don't fail to see this picture. It is not only a big production, but it is a great play—in which the heart of a woman and a mother is seen in all its complexities, beauty and shame.

We recommend the picture highly. And to be sure that all have an opportunity to see it, it will be run without extra charge, notwithstanding it is an expensive production.

Hoey will deliver an address at the 11 o'clock hour at the LaFayette street church in the absence of Mr. Johnson.

—11,600 Lbs. Poultry—Alvin Hardin, county agent, informs The Star that the poultry car loaded at the Seaboard depot last Wednesday hauled away 11,600 pounds of Cleveland county poultry, that brought the farmers $3,400 in cash. So popular was the event that at one time Mr. Hardin said, cars were lined up along the Seaboard tracks for 50 yards or more, sellers awaiting their turn to cash in.

—A. & P. Moves—The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, otherwise known hereabouts as the "A. and P." is removing Monday night to the new location on West Warren street, in the Union Trust company building, H. E. Richbourg, manager of the store, says the goods will be moved Monday night, so that on Monday and Tuesday there will be "business as usual" at the establishment.

—5 Day at Efirds—J. Q. Earl, manager of Efird's, is this week fulfilling the Efird custom of putting on spring dollar day. Three days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday—yesterday, today and tomorrow were given over to these special bargains, which Mr. Earl announced would practically embrace the store-wide stock. Dollar days have always been attractive features of merchandising to buyers, and this current sale bids fair to be even more successful than those of the past. Tomorrow is the final day of the event.

—Coming Here—The following item from the Winston-Salem Journal will be of interest here: "C. A. Rhodes, for sometime a resident of Winston-Salem, and for the past twelve years general shoe buying agent for the Gilmer's chain stores, has been tendered the management of the Gilmer's department store at Shelby, North Carolina. Mr. Rhodes left Winston-Salem March 8 for Shelby, where he has remained to the present time. He has lately been confirmed as manager of the Shelby organization. Mrs. Rhodes will join Mr. Rhodes at Shelby the latter part of this week, where they will make their home. The beautification of Shelby should be undertaken this spring by every citizen. Let's make Shelby as attractive as it can be."

COTTON MARKETS

(By Jno. F. Clark and Co.)

Cotton was quoted at 10:30 today on New York exchange.

March 13.94; May 14.06; July 14.42; October 14.44; December 14.61.

New York, Mar. 25.—Southern weather last night cloudy north Georgia and Carolinas, clear elsewhere, forecast fair for all cotton states.

London cable says British Cotton Yarn association urges mills spinning American cotton to shut down full week at Easter as it is estimated only half of present output is being sold, some advocate short time.

Better business in Worth street, prices steady. Southern spot markets unchanged, sales 20,000 bales.

New Hampshire cotton mills reported running 82 per cent of capacity. Market may sell off on cables and the Chinese news, which is serious, but favors purchases on reactions.

Thursday is commencement day proper. Exercises begin at 10 a. m. at 11 a. m. Hon. O. Max Gardner will deliver the literary address. Surely no one in the entire section will miss hearing Mr. Gardner, for he always has a great message that will pay one to travel far to hear.

Twelve o'clock lunch on ground. The graduation is held Thursday afternoon 3:00 o'clock.

At 7:30 Thursday a 5-act play will be given, entitled "The Average Man."

Constant Cleanliness

It is with a feeling of pride, justifiable we think, that we call attention to our constant record of cleanliness for all laundry sent out from our plant.

We feel sure that the many patrons of this good laundry appreciate our efforts, as evidenced by our phenomenal growth.

Our system of washing your clothes in individual nets, using Palmolive Soap, water as pure as that you drink, prompt collections and deliveries in neat packages, has appealed to particular women.

Thanking those who have patronized us and soliciting the business of those who have not.

THE BEST ASSET

There can be no better asset for any man to have than money in bank. Here are some of the reasons.

FIRST. Safety—money in bank is secure. It does not fluctuate, and it is not subject to the rise and fall of markets or other conditions.

SECOND. It can be made an income-producing asset, not idle, but working constantly for you.

It is a reflection upon the thrift and the good sense of our people to suggest that they do not need a bank account. What they do need is to become better acquainted with this good bank and its modern banking methods.

Remember that this is a strong bank with sufficient resources—that is, available money—with which to meet all demands for a helpful and satisfactory banking service.
