Double Shoals Items Of Week

Many Attend Lattimore Commencement. Personal Mention of People on the Go.

(Special to The Star.) Double Shoals, Mar. 28.—A large number of our folks attended the commencement sermon at Lattimore last Sunday afternoon. It was a wonderful message full of advice to the graduates as well as to everyone. Everything is astir this week trying to work and go to commencement. About one-third of the young men and women of the graduating class are ours. We hope they do not stop here but go right on.

This cool spell has checked the gardening and planting to some extent. It might be wise to wait just a little longer anyway, we cannot tell when Mr. Winter will make us a visit.
