COURT SIDELIGHTS

Track coaches or trainers of speedy runners should always manage to have an officer about when they want speed out of a runner.

Among the several visitors at the local term of court during the opening day this week was Senator Tom Fulton, of Kings Mountain.

Charles Jonas, Lincolnton attorney and one of the Republican leaders at the recent session of legislature, was another court attendant Tuesday.

Just to make the court room seem natural George P. Webb, former clerk, is upstairs assisting the new clerk, A. M. Hamrick.

A Cleveland county man is a right good fellow. Cleveland county folks admit that themselves, and general court opinion so far is that Spurgeon Spurling, the new solicitor, is going to make a mighty valuable man to the courts of the district.
