MOTORS IN TRANSVAAL ARE DEATH TO DONKEYS

(By International News Service.) Cape Town.—Thousands of donkeys, it is declared, are being ruthlessly abandoned by owners on the Western Transvaal alluvial diggings because of the rapid growth of motor traffic on the fields.

Donkeys nowadays are not worth more than a quarter each to their owners, and the cost of their food and water is prohibitive. Rather than keep them their owners are alleged to be turning them loose to die of thirst.

N ATTRACTIVE KITCHEN INSPIRES THE COOK!

(Editor's Note: This is one of an unusual series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks, running exclusively in this space.)

What fascinating places some kitchens are! Bright and attractive, they literally inspire their owners to better cooking deeds. Every housewife owes herself a well-lighted, cheery kitchen. For she spends more time in the kitchen than any other place.

Gray Kitchens

Gray kitchens are very popular here days. In fact, they are more a favor than white ones. That's because they are almost as light as white, and so very much easier to keep clean. White shows every fingerprint.

One of the most attractive kitchens has gray woodwork, kitchen cabinet, cupboards and shelves. All are painted a glossy gray which can be quickly washed with a damp cloth. Fresh white curtains bordered in pink are at the side windows. And a neat, hot-iron, black and gray square, covers the floor.

A Rest Corner

Stove, table, high work stool and sink are grouped for easy work into six steps. And in one part of the kitchen is the housewife's rest corner—a rocking chair and table with reading matter. Many a rest minute can be snatched while meals are cooking.

Truly, such a kitchen is a happy place in which to work. And, in fact, it is the housewife's happiness is reflected in better meals! In such a kitchen as the one just described, the work is so much easier that the housewife is often inspired to make new dishes—a change from the regular round of meat and potatoes.

Miss Rosa Michaels, New Orleans dining expert, today gives several original recipes of the "inspiration" type.

Vanilla Water Pudding

1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons vanilla extract
vanilla wafers

A quart of all the ingredients, the wafers, in a double layer bottom of baking dish. Add a layer of sliced wafers. Pour half the custard over. Add bananas and rest sliced fruit. Beat egg whites stiff. Spread on top. Put in oven and to serve at parties.

1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup dry coconut
1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat the whites stiff, gradually add the corn syrup, then fold in the sifted flour, coconut, salt and vanilla. Drop by tablespoons on greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven twenty minutes.

Skyline Walnut Wafers

You can make these at the same time as the coconut delicacies for they require the same baking time. Mrs. Belle DeGraaf, famous San Francisco cooking authority, gives the following recipe:

1 cup brown sugar
1 cup broken walnut meats
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
1 egg, beaten

Mix ingredients in order given. Drop from teaspoon on greased cookie sheet several inches apart to allow for spreading. Bake in a very moderate oven and remove from sheet at once.

Sweet Potato Pone

This is a favorite Southern dish. Here's Miss Michaels' recipe.

4 large sweet potatoes
1/2 cup brown sugar
4 eggs
grated rind of lemon
1 cup milk
1/2 cup butter
1/2 teaspoon each of nutmeg, ground cloves and cinnamon
1/2 cup molasses

Wash and grate the potatoes. Beat the eggs well; stir the milk and sugar till creamy; add the eggs, then the grated potatoes and spices, also the nutmeg. Beat all well together, add lemon rind. Put into a well buttered pan and bake slowly for an hour.

May be served either warm or cold. Usually cut in slices.

Delicious dishes! How one enjoys cooking them in a cheerful kitchen! Brighten your kitchen! You'll be a happy cook and the whole family will benefit.
