Flag Day to Be Celebrated Wednesday. Flag day will be fittingly celebrated by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of the Regent Mrs. W. H. Blanton at 4:30 on Wednesday. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. R. L. Ryburn Gives Breakfast At her charming home on South Washington street, Mrs. R. L. Ryburn gave a beautiful breakfast honoring Mrs. T. A. Robertson, of New York. The table was lovely with handsome flowers gathered from the lovely Ryburn garden. The most delicious viands were served and covers were laid for eight.

Beautiful Announcements Issued The following beautiful announcements have been issued in Shelby: "Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Frances, to Mr. Marshall Cornwall Ramsey, Thursday, June the eighth, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, Shelby, North Carolina. At home after July 1st., Hartsville, S. C."

Birthdays Celebrated Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Ogburn Stephenson spent Sunday in Gaffney, S. C., with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morgan who gave Mrs. Stephenson a beautiful birthday dinner. The table was lovely with its beautiful appointments and a birthday cake was the central piece. A most elegant and delicious dinner was served.

Kyke Kyser's Orchestra To Be Heard Here Kyke Kyser's famous eleven piece orchestra, the pride of Carolina, will be here in Shelby on Wednesday evening when they will play for a large script dance sponsored by the Cotillion club. This will be a most inspiring occasion and Shelby is lucky to have such an orchestra in its midst. The dance will be given at the Thompson hall. Many outside guests will be present, and this event promises to be one of the most brilliant of the summer season. The dance will continue until one thirty and begin at nine-thirty.

Little Virginia McMurry Celebrates Birthday On Friday morning little Virginia McMurry, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McMurry celebrated her fourth birthday by inviting a number of her little playmates and friends to a most delightful party. All kinds of games were played and much enjoyed by all present. Souvenirs of the most attractive kinds were given and then they were invited into the dining room where the lovely birthday cake all iced and decorated was cut. The pink candles were blown out, then the ice cream and cakes and candies were served much to the delight of the guests. It was a most happy occasion and Miss Virginia received many useful and beautiful gifts. She greeted her guests in an exquisite lingerie frock.

Mrs. Ogburn Stephenson Gives Two Parties Mrs. Ogburn Stephenson was the charming hostess at two beautiful parties on Friday. Friday morning she entertained the members of the Lucky Thirteen club having three tables of bridge and on Friday afternoon at four she had seven tables of bridge for a number of her friends. The rooms were charmingly arranged and decorated with a wealth of lovely garden flowers the delphinium and pansies predominating. The place and score cards carried out the garden flower motifs. When the scores were added in the morning Miss Millicent Blanton was the lucky winner and in the afternoon Mrs. Al Bennett scored high. They were presented with the loveliest of gifts. At the conclusion of the games at both parties the hostess served an elegant luncheon assisted by Miss Millicent Blanton, Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Fred Morgan and Mrs. Gerald Morgan.

Mrs. Paul Webb Gives Beautiful Party One of the loveliest parties ever given in Shelby and carried out in the most minute and perfect detail was the one given on Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr., by Mrs. Thomas Paul Webb who had as her charming honorees, Mrs. T. A. Robertson, of New York and Mrs. T. K. DuPre also of New York. Sharing honors with these guests were Mrs. Gerald Stuart, of Knoxville, Tenn., and daughter Miss Frances, visitors also in Shelby at this time, and Mrs. JoJo Wray, of Gastonia. Four tables were placed for bridge on each table carried out a distinct color scheme they being yellow, blue, pink and lavender. Each table was centered with an exquisite basket the yellow table holding yellow shasta daisies and yellow poppies. The handle was tied with yellow tulle and perched on the bow was a yellow butterfly. On the blue, table, the basket held blue queen's anne lace, blue field daisies and delphinium. On this basket was blue tulle and blue butterflies. On the pink table the artistic basket held pink sweet peas and pink delphinium and the tulle bow was pink and pink butterflies were on this. On the lavender table were lavender sweet peas, and lavender delphinium and the lavender tulle bow and the lavender and green butterflies were perched on this bow. The blue table had blue place cards, pencils and scorers, the pink table the pink score cards pencils and scorers, also the yellow and lavender tables. The delicious luncheon which was served after the games carried out the color schemes in the plates at each table being in yellow, pink, blue and lavender china, and the glass plates and holders for the cream and cake were served in the pink, blue, yellow and lavender colors. On the receptacles for the ices were blue, yellow, pink and blue birds and pink, blue yellow and lavender flowers and butterflies were placed on each plate. It was indeed exquisitely beautiful and Grigg, of Forest City. Sharing honors with these charming honorees were Mrs. Barnhardt Evers, Miss Elizabeth Hahn, of Concord and others. The beautiful Grigg home was indeed lovely on this occasion with its wealth of beautiful garden flowers in all their flaming colors toning to the softest pastels, arranged in lovely baskets, vases and bowls. Greeting the guests at the entrance door were Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey and Mrs. B. T. Falls. In the long living room the receiving line was stationed, composing the following Mrs. Carlos Grigg in a handsome frock of green and lace; Mrs. Harry Grigg in blue taffeta made bouffant with old lace trimmings; Mrs. Hugh Mauney wore a soft yellow chiffon frock with lovely black lace trimmings. Mrs. Clyde Mauney wore her charming wedding gown of white satin and rare old lace. Mrs. Evers was handsome in pink taffeta and taffeta. Mrs. T. A. Robertson was stunning in a champagne flat crepe with fringe trimmings, Miss Ruth Roberts looked lovely in an orchid chiffon and Miss Hahn was charming in a pink beaded georgette. The dining room table was most beautiful with its exquisite lace cloth and centering the table was a large mound of snap dragons and ferns, and at the four corners were silver candles holding tall pink tapers and they were tied with pink tulle. Asking the guests into the dining room were Mrs. Charlie Young and Mrs. D. E. Honeycutt. Assisting in here were Mrs. Clyde Short, Mrs. Charles Hoey, Mrs. Holly Ledford, Miss Louise Honeycutt, Mrs. Everett Houser and Mrs. Moody Mauney. At the east dining room door were Mrs. Paul Wellmon and Mrs. Rash Thompson, and at the living room door were Mrs. Cleveland Gardner and Mrs. John McClurd. In the east parlor Mrs. E. A. Houser and Mrs. George Hoyle were assisting in receiving and inviting the guests to the punch bowl on the east veranda were Mrs. Charles Washburn and Miss Cornwall, at the register were Mrs. John Honeycutt and Mrs. Basil Goode. The punch bowl was placed on a table most beautifully decorated with grape leaves and green grapes. The delicious punch was served by Mrs. Corinne Baber, Miss Gussie Sisk, Mrs. John Mull, Mrs. Horace Grigg and Miss Flossie Grigg. Delicious cream and cake and nuts and sweets were served in the dining room and during the calling hours Miss Dorothy McKnight and Miss Mary Helen Lattimore furnished the most beautiful music. Many friends called during the hours of four and six.

“Resurrection”

The Great Tolstoi Masterpiece

With Rod La Roque and Dolores Del Rio

Webb Theatre

.. TUESDAY ..

A United Artists Picture, the seventh and last of the great series which has been run at the WEBB.

This picture is declared to be a masterpiece by critics and audiences everywhere—one of the greatest pictures ever made. It has made such a hit that another Tolstoi novel has been put in the process of making—Anna Karenina, with Greta Garbo as Anna.

“RESURRECTION” is a spectacular picture depicting the great Russian drama of the old regime. But this is not all. It is an intense struggle of two human souls—a man and a woman. The woman, who is of the lower strata of society, falls victim of the man, who is a prince. A child comes into the narrative. The years pass, and the man slowly overcome by conscience, returns to make amends to her he had wronged. But he finds not the simple girl he had known—but a reckless cynic and profligate. He is appalled at the ruin his act had wrought. Out of the struggle that follows comes the title “RESURRECTION.”

It is a wonderful play. See it by all means.
