The personnel is as follows: Miss Virginia Lawrence, of Catawba, Miss Isabel Caldwell and Mr. Wearn Young, of Newton, and Miss Janie Stamey, of Fallston. Many lovely affairs have been planned for these charming visitors.

Beautiful Reception By Mrs. Al Bennett
The Woman's club rooms never looked more beautiful than on Tuesday afternoon from the hours of 4:30 to 6 when Mrs. Al Bennett was the charming and gracious hostess at a lovely reception honoring Mrs. Henry Edwards a most recent charming bride. The lobby downstairs was a garden scene with its rustic baskets filled with zinnias and sun flowers and petunias. In the hall up stairs the garden flowers made a beautiful setting, in their summer glory, all kinds being used in most artistic array. The punch table was most attractive with its cool white cloth covered with a wealth of trailing ivy in all its beautiful greenery. In the large assembly room, garden beauty greeted the eye. Tall rustic floor baskets held the hardy garden flowers, the zinnias, daisies, and gladioli, vying with each other with all their loveliness. Large silver baskets and vases held the most gorgeous summer roses in pink and red. The tea table was a study in perfect art. A large mound centered the table which was covered with an exquisite lace cloth. The mound was made of pink verbenias and ferns for the base, pink roses and daisies gradually rose in the center, and from all sides the dainty butterfly bush held its pulchre head. At the four corners of the mound, silver bases held tall pale pink tapers, softly burning, and centering the table, between the bases were silver dishes holding the loveliest of home made candies in the prevailing shades of the flowers, and also nuts. Greeting the guests at the lobby door were Mrs. Winnie Laughridge and Mrs. Corrine Baber. At the door near the elevator were Mrs. Frank Hoey and Mrs. Carey Boshamer. At the club room door inviting the guests into the large room were Mrs. William McCord and Mrs. Madge Riley. Introducing the guests to the receiving line was Mrs. Jap Suttle. Serving punch in the hall were Mrs. Aaron Quinn, Mrs. Gerald McBrayer and Mrs. B. M. Graham. Saying good-bye to the guests were Mrs. Ben Suttle and Mrs. Jean Schenck. Serving the delicious cream in the shape of wedding bells and the cakes and sweets were, Miss Katherine Dover, Miss Margaret Blanton, Miss Ruth Laughridge, Miss Virginia Jenkins, Miss Dorothy King and Miss Luu Agnes Arey. The receiving line composed the following: Mrs. Bennett who wore a frock of blue taffeta with French roses and net. Mrs. Henry Edwards wore a charming frock of rose taffeta made bouffant lined with blue and rose flower corsage. Mrs. Paul Webb wore flame chiffon, with velvet trimmings. Mrs. Robert Limer was gowned in orchid crepe satin with corsage of sweet peas in the pastel shades. Miss Eleanor Covington, of Chertaw, S. C. was lovely in a turquoise blue taffeta made period style with net hem line. Miss Lula Moore Suttle wore silver net over blue taffeta with silver lace. Mrs. Renn Drum was gowned in green chiffon, and Mrs. Harry Hudson wore rose taffeta with gold lace trimmings. Misses Elizabeth Suttle and Miss Mae Washburn and Miss Matilda Lattimore assisted in entertaining in the reception room. Furnishing beautiful music during the calling hours were Miss Ruth Howie, Miss Mary Helen Lattimore, Miss Ione Nolan and Mr. Sinclair.

Baptist Meeting At Sylva Aug. 7

To Editor of The Star:
The Baptists of Western North Carolina have been unusually favored this year by Sylva Collegiate Institute having been chosen for the assembly grounds of B. Y. P. U., Sunday school and W. M. U. workers, August 7-13.

Plans are rapidly materializing for one of the finest and most helpful assemblies in the history of this great Western section. The morning periods will be devoted to class-work and lectures, while the afternoon will be spent in recreations and sight-seeing. There will be sermons and addresses each evening by outstanding men of the state. The music will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jolley, of Asheville.

Pastors, Sunday school officers and teachers, B. Y. P. U. leaders, W. M. U. workers and all interested in church work are invited to attend this encampment. The only expense will be $1.00 per day for meals served in the dining room of the school. Rooms will be furnished in the dormitories free to all who bring sheets, pillows, towels, etc. In fact anything that you would carry to boarding school. Pastors are requested to send or bring delegations from their churches and help make this one of the greatest meetings ever held in Western North Carolina. Remember the date, Sunday to Saturday, August 7-13. For particulars, write A. V. Washburn, Sylva, N. C.
