Lucky Thirteen Club To Meet
The Lucky Thirteen Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr., at her home on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Spend Day At Lake Lure
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lattimore, Mrs. McKee Albergotti, Misses Lois and Loree Anair, of Clinton, S. C., Miss Christine Walker, Mary and Adeline Sheppard and Miss Margaret and Genevieve Scott, spent the day at Lake on Friday, dining there Friday evening.

Mrs. Ed Post Gives Beautiful Party
Mrs. Ed Post gave a beautiful party on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock honoring Miss Margaret Mitchell, her delightful houseguest, from Chapel Hill, and Mrs. Mary Edwards, a most recent charming bride. The lovely home was beautiful with its decorations of colored snap dragons and handsome pink roses. Four tables were placed for bridge, and on each were vases holding pink rose buds and ferns. The most attractive place and score-cards were used pertaining to the summer season.

Farewell Party For Mrs. Pippin
The two Lodia English circles of the First Baptist church were hosts at a beautiful party given as a farewell for Mrs. Harry Pippin who with her husband and baby, leave August 1 for their new home in Birmingham, Ala. The party was given on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at the First Baptist church in the church parlors which were beautifully decorated with a wealth of midsummer flowers. A most entertaining and delicious program was rendered by Mrs. Ruth Howie, Mrs. Ben Sutton, Mrs. Henry Edwards and Mrs. Bennett. At the conclusion of the program the circles presented Mrs. Pippin with a handsome and beautiful silver flower holder. Delicious refreshments were served by the circle members. Mrs. Pippin endeared herself to these young women by the tenderest tie and it was with real genuine regret that these young followers and all the church, regret to see this splendid and worthy family leave Shelby.

Miss Nina Cabaniss Honored
Charlotte.
Miss Nina Cabaniss was very prominent in society news last week. She was entertained at many beautiful parties, one of the best being her sister, Mrs. V. O. Moore. This is one of the many tributes from the Observer.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Moore were hosts at a delightful dance, at their home on South Mint street Friday evening, complimenting Miss Nina Cabaniss, of Shelby, sister of Mrs. Moore.

The guests included Miss Nina Cabaniss, Miss Mamie Font, Miss Annie Little, Misses Sadie and Est McCallum, Miss Bess Meadows, Miss Hazel Jennings, Misses Will Mae and Ruth Short, Miss Gladys Byrd, Miss Elizabeth Summorrow, Miss Edna Robinson, Sam and Frank Harrod, Mrs. M. S. Brannon, Max Austell, Otis Brannon, F. Brannon, Francis Gathery, Bill Mills, W. T. Jolly, Cecil Wells, M. Mahaley, Nat. Fisher, Grady Gaudin, B. L. Hunter, Mrs. M. S. Mahaley, Mrs. O. O. Hamkins and O. Hamkins.

Mrs. Sam Lattimore Gives Lovely Party
Mrs. Sam Lattimore who is spending some time at her former home in Backsburg was the charming hostess on Friday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKee Albergotti, honoring Miss Gladys Porter, a bride-elect of the early fall, and a sister of Mrs. Charles Enkridge here; and Mrs. Lattimore's attractive house-guest, Miss Loree Adair, of Clinton, S. C., and Miss Christine Walker, of Easley, S. C. Seven tables were arranged for "Rook," the spacious veranda which was a veritable flower garden. Lovely bouquets of mid summer flowers were most attractively arranged on small tables. At the conclusion of the games little Betsey Jean, petite daughter of Mrs. Jack Elliott entered dressed as a bride. She carried an massive shower bouquet of roses and phlox. Each guest was told to draw a flower from the bouquet and in so doing they found the meaning of this message, "Persepolis" - October 1927. To many this announcement came as a surprise.

Miss Porter is one of Blackburg's most charming young women and this announcement will be of interest to her many friends throughout the Carolinas. Each honor was presented with an attractive gift. Mrs. Clarence New Berry received top score and was presented with a lovely gift. Mrs. Lattimore assisted by her mother, Mrs. Albergotti served a most delicious four course luncheon. Those enjoying the hospitality of the gracious hostess were: Misses Gladys Porter, Loree and Lois Adair, of Clinton, S. C., Christine Walker, of Easley, S. C., Helen Joyner, Lake City, S. C., Mary Turner, Mary Wisnant, Adeline Turner, Corinne Troubfield, Sarah Lee Goode, Lillian Quinn, Ellie Turner, of Charlotte, N. C., Margaret and Genevieve Scott, Mary Adeline and Katherine Sheppard, of Savannah, Ga. Mesdames Carl Bridges, R. M. Roak, Tom Peck, Ira D. Armour, R. B. Moss, Clarence New Perry, Fayetteville, N. C., T. A. Campbell, C. W. Love, Jack Elliott, William Albergotti, Greenville, S. C. and Graham.

Miss Mary Hull To Give Tea
Miss Mary Hull will be the charming hostess at a beautiful tea on Friday afternoon at her handsome home on North LaPayette street.

Club Dance Thursday Evening
The Cotillion club will sponsor a dance Thursday evening at the Cleveland Springs hotel. Dancing will be from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock.

Miss Millicent Blanton Innocently Fined
The following will be read with keenest interest taken from the Gaffney Ledger: "Miss Ann Jeter Butler, daughter of Lieut. Gov. T. B. Butler, of Gaffney, and Miss Millicent Blanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton, of Shelby, who are members of the party of Americans touring Europe with Dr. Arch Cree, secretary to the Georgia Baptist board, were fined ten lire each by an Italian train guard for putting their feet on the back of a seat in front of them, according to a letter received Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lipscomb, who is also a member of the Cree party. Miss Butler and Miss Blanton were in a car by themselves when the guard approached and began shooting Italian at them. They thought he wanted their tickets. These were offered but did not satisfy him. Neither Miss Butler nor Miss Blanton understood Italian so Dr. Cree was called in from another car in which he was riding. He quickly understood the situation and explained to the two young women they had been fined ten lire each about fifty cents apiece for doing as most free born Americans citizens do at home instead of doing as the Romans do when in Rome."

How To Pronounce Peeps
To those who read the delightful diary of Mr. O. O. McIntyre "New York Day by Day" in the State papers will be interested to read the following taken from the July 15th number of the "Spur" which reads as follows: "Discussion so often arisen upon how the great diarist, Samuel Peeps, pronounced his name, that the opinion of the Earl of Cottenham, the present head of the house of Peeps may be of general interest in America as well as in England. Lord Cottenham says that, although he and his branch of the family have always pronounced it "Peeps," he shares the opinion of his kinsman, Walter Courtney Peeps, by whom the family records were compiled, that the great Samuel pronounced his name "Peeps." The diarist left no children, but his descendants of his sister, the Peeps Cockerells, pronounce the word "Peeps" to this day. That this is not a new subject of discussion is evinced by a jingle of that clever Victorian versifier, Ashby Sterry: There are people I'm told—some say there are heaps Who speak of the talkative Samuel Peeps And some so precise and pedantic their step is Who call the delightful old diarist Peeps: But those I think right, and I follow their steps Ever mention the garrulous gossip as Peeps: Yet Wheatley declares that the truth still escape For Peeps was not Peep nor Peeps—he was Papes."

Edmund Keane, the noted English actor, valued the opinion of the common people in the pit more highly than that of aristocrats and dramatic critics.

SALISBURY YOUTH SLAYS HIS MOTHER

Smith, 23, Beats Mother, Shoots Her And Then Takes His Own Life Her and Then Take His Own Life

Salisbury, July 26.—Paul E. Smith, Jr., 23 years old, shot and killed his mother this morning by shooting himself in the right temple. The tragedy was enacted at the Smith home at 1705 North Lee street, this city. The husband and father awoke at three o'clock this morning to find the son attacking his mother, having dealt her a blow on the forehead with a hammer and before he could interfere sufficiently to prevent further assault the son fired a pistol ball into the right temple of the woman, who was 52 years old. Then rushing into his room, adjoining that of his parents, he jumped in bed and shot himself just below the right temple. Death for both mother and son was instantaneous.

several years and about a year ago underwent a serious operation. However, he was able to go about and attended a picture show last night. Returning home he retired and nothing further was heard of him until he entered the room where the father and mother were sleeping, about 3 o'clock this morning and made the murderous attack on the woman. It is said the father on awakening called to the boy to know what he was doing and he replied that he was "going to kill mother and myself," and in an instant, after striking the blow with the hammer, shot her, using a .32 calibre pistol, the same one which he only a minute later killed himself.

Mrs. Smith was a member of a prominent family of Gold Hill township, this county, and was a sister of H. E. Ruffy, chairman of the board of county commissioners of Rowan. She leaves besides the husband, several brothers and sisters and an aged mother. The dead son was the only child.

CLEM WRENN WILL STAND TRIAL AT NEXT COURT TERM

Winston-Salem.—State's Solicitor John R. Jones announced that he will assist upon the trial of Clem Wrenn, president of the Bank of Wilkes, at the term of Wilkesboro superior court to be held on August 8 next, and if unable to get a trial then they ask for a special term of court to be held soon thereafter. Wrenn is charged with embezzlement and forgery and with fraudulent issuance of a note for $25,000 purported to come from the county commissioners of Wilkes.

BOB MOFFAT, OAKLAND, MUST ERASE HIS NAME FROM YOSEMITE PARK

(By International News Service) Yosemite National Park, Cal.—Vandals who delight in carving names and initials hither and yon will fight shy of Yosemite National Park hereafter. Several months ago, a park visitor, anxious to see his name in prominent places, carried a paint brush and a pot of paint into Yosemite. On many of the natural wonders of the park he daubed in a bold hand, "Bob Moffat, Oakland." He capped his self-publicity campaign by painting his name upon a majestic sequoia tree, several thousand years old. Superintendent W. B. Lewis traced Moffat through the west, locating him at Salt Lake City. The painter apologized and arranged to remove his name not only from the big tree but also from the many rocks and boulders he had desecrated.

FAMOUS FRENCH RECIPES

(By Alice Langelier, INS Staff Correspondent.)

Paris.—"Japanese Salad is a good one for your next picnic. Steam a quantity of new potatoes and peel. Cut into slices and put into a salad-bowl with one-half a pound of fresh mussels, cooked in a good court-vaillon and removed from their shells. Add chopped tarragon, scallion and parsley together with seeded olives. Season well with oil, vinegar, salt and pepper and keep in a cool place until ready to serve.

An elephant's bath requires 150 pounds of soap and more than 100 worth of the purest Indian oil. For the first time in the history of that country a Nicaraguan newspaper is printing an English section for the benefit of United States Marines.
