

County Girl Tells Of Boone School

Boone, Aug. 1.—This week end marks the mid-point in the second term of the Appalachian State normal summer school...

The climate here is delightful beyond the imagining of one not familiar with the country. While our friends below the mountains have been reporting oppressive heat...

The school itself is no less unusual than the climate. Good fellowship prevails and the whole community seems at work to make one's stay pleasant...

The total enrollment for the summer quarter is 1658. And now we see and hear of preparation for the largest regular year enrollment in the history of the school...

Negro Buries Axe In Father's Head

(Kings Mt. News)

Ed Bryant an industrious colored man who lives on Mr. Sylan's Mauney's farm just east of town lies dangerously wounded at his home after having an axe buried in his brain by his step son whom he had reprimanded for having associated with a woman of his choice and one whom the old man did not approve of.

According to information secured by The News Bryant had demonstrated with the youth for having gone out with the woman in question on numerous occasions and the young fellow resenting the paternal advice stepped across the road to the wood pile, secured the axe and struck the father with the weapon the blade penetrating the brain for several inches.

The blow was struck from a side position and the point of the blade sunk almost to the same depth as to reach the tip of the ears.

Doctor Hord the attending physician told The News that the wounded man was getting along alright but that there was very little pus and that the patient's pulse was normal.

The assailant escaped and notwithstanding the officers have made a diligent search nothing has been heard of him.

The affair happened just across the Gaston line.

FLAPPER HAS LAUGH ON HOT DAYS

The dainty flapper has the best of all this hot weather proposition. Whereas a man must sweater under three pounds of clothing, shoes included, the flapper capers gaily about, wearing a total of 10-12 ounces and cool as a cucumber.

Just to show that femininity gets all the breaks when the streets are bubbling with heat and pavements are threatening to turn to lava, some experiments were made at the scales in a big loop store in Chicago. The average for a man—coat shirt, socks—averaged three pounds. Hat and shoes were not included.

Then an average was struck for an equal number of girls with this result:

- One teddy, 2.5 ounces. One brassiere, 2 ounces. One sleeveless dress, 3.5 ounces. Two stockings, 2 ounces.

Two garters 12-ounce. Shoes the ordinary pumps worn by girls, weigh 12 ounces and a hat anywhere from 3 ounces to as many pounds, depending upon the metal and other trimmings. Of course there is the item of talcum powder, but that is negligible.

The Prince of Wales and his younger brother, Prince George, hold equal claim to the honor of being the best dancers in the royal family. The Duke of York excels at tennis, while Prince Henry is easily the best cricketer.

The Village of Uyeno on the outskirts of Nagoya has the largest image of Buddha in the world. It is sixty feet high, with the face measuring twenty-four feet from the tip of the chin to the top of the head.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Annie Kwinski of 526 1st Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes that she became so weak and run-down that she was not able to do her housework. She saw the name Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said to her husband, "I will try that medicine and see if it will help me." She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better.

Mrs. Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewton, Ala. writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women past fifty say they owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WEAK, NERVOUS Georgia Lady Could Not Sleep Nights, But After Taking Cardui She Was "Like a Different Person." Comer, Ga.—Mrs. C. H. Smith, of this place, related the following interesting experience: "I was weak and nervous and run-down. I couldn't sleep at night. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I had Cardui recommended to me, but always thought I could out-do most sickness, but this was one time I needed help. I was so weak I could hardly lift my hand. "I can't express how bad I felt. "I knew I improved after taking Cardui. I was like a different person. I was built up and was stronger and better than in a long time. "I have a young daughter who had the flu, and after she got up she would once in a while have such severe cramping spells, just suffer terribly. I knew there was a weakness and, hoping Cardui would reach this trouble, I had her take it, and the first bottle helped her so much she was able to leave it off and does not have this trouble now."
