Master Cabinet Heater Gives Most Healthful Heat Known

IN old fashioned heating stoves the fire sends out heat by radiation. Around such a stove it is intensely hot but in other rooms cold. Loth's Master Cabinet is constructed for heating on an entirely different principle. Medical authorities agree that the most healthful heat known is warm moist air, forcefully circulated. Loth's Master Cabinet does this. The cold air in drawn in at the base of the Cabinet and brought into contact with the heating surfaces. As it is sterilized and warm it flows upward and outward, carrying its warmth to every part of
