LITTLE STARS

—Cotillion Dance—The Cotillion club will give a dance tonight at Cleveland Springs hotel. Good orchestra, dancing from 9 to 12.

—Notice to Masons—Cleveland lodge No. 202 A. F. and A. M. will meet in regular communication tonight at 7 o'clock. Visitors and brethren cordially invited.

—Mr. Waldrop Moves—Rev. H. S. Waldrop who has been living at Eastside where he is pastor of the Baptist church, has moved with his family to 203 Suttle street.

—In Arrey Building—Through an error, last week's Star stated that R. G. Honeycutt, cotton buyer located in the Arrey building on S. LaFayette street. Mr. Honeycutt is in the Arrey building on S. Washington street.

—Has Pneumonia—The three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ogburn Lutz was taken to the Shelby hospital yesterday suffering with bronchial pneumonia. The many friends of the family hope for the recovery of the little one.

—Ice Cream Supper—The B. Y. P. U. of Mt. Vernon Baptist church will give an ice cream supper at the church Saturday night September 24, beginning at 6 o'clock. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the church. The public is cordially invited.

—Mr. Hull Out—Mr. L. M. Hull who has been confined to his bed for some time and practically since leaving his summer home at Montreat, was out today and yesterday. He has been troubled by a severe series of carbuncles.

—Bring 'em Back—From the city school office comes the word that someone has borrowed the drag and iron rail used in smoothing the school's athletic field and forgot to return it. A request is made that the drag be returned so as to get the field in shape for the opening football game next week.

—Mr. Allen to Speak—On the opening day of the fair, Tuesday of next week, A. T. Allen, state superintendent of education, will deliver an address. The first day is "education day" and all of the school pupils in Cleveland and adjoining counties will be admitted free. Mr. Allen is one of the best informed men in the state on education and everybody should hear him.

—Quarterly Conference—Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick will preach at Central Methodist church here Sunday night and hold quarterly conference for this year. Mr. Kirkpatrick is finishing his fourth and last year as presiding elder of the Shelby district. Dr. H. K. Boyer, the pastor, will preach Sunday morning on "The Cross."

—What's the Use?—Dr. Zeno Wall will preach Sunday morning at the First Baptist church on the subject "What's the Use?" It is understood that he will make some reference to the TunneyDempsey fight where 160,000 people gathered and paid nearly three million dollars to see men match brawn. His Sunday night subject is "The Faith of a Great Man."

—Another Operation—Mr. Chas. L. Eskridge planned to go to Asheville today for another operation by Dr. Sinclair for the malady of neuritis, from which Mr. Eskridge has been an acute sufferer for weeks. He left the Rutherford hospital Tuesday after being treated there for 17 days. The operations he has been subject to have been upon his mouth, which is said to be the seat of the infection from which he is suffering.

—Talk Agriculture—The Rotary club meeting at the Central hotel today had as its speakers Messrs. John R. Dover and Alvin Hardin, farm agent. The program was devoted to a discussion of improving farm life in Cleveland county. Mr. Dover, who recently attended a district Rotary meeting at Spartanburg, S. C., which took up the agricultural problem, told of the events at the meeting, while the county agent pointed out improvements that might be made in the Cleveland county farm world.

—New Department—The new show room of the J. C. Penney company, on the second floor of the Masonic building, which will be devoted to women's ready-to-wear, and other departments of women's service, has been opened and the new quarters have made a decidedly favorable impression upon the store's patrons. The new display room, reached from the first floor, by a broad stair, is fifty by sixty in extent, is elaborately set with fittings and it is predicted will add greatly to the prestige of the establishment.

Hitch Hiked 700
Miles For Nothing

Houghton, Mich.—Seven hundred miles without spending a cent sounds fishy, but it did it," said Garrison Colling of Ypsilanti, who hiked to the copper country for a visit with his college chum, Ted Messner, of Redridge.

Colling left Ypsilanti Aug. 24 at 3 a. m. on foot, and by hailing motorists he reached Sault Ste. Marie that night. Starting out again on foot early the next morning passing motorists helped him along, and he arrived there Aug. 25. "I had seventeen different chauffeurs and seventeen different cars," Colling remarked.

Colling and Messner will leave today to hike back to lower Michigan. They will travel through Wisconsin. Colling will assume his teaching duties and Messner will enter the Detroit college of law.

S. Shelby School
Items Of Interest

Morgan School Enrollment on First Day Was 378. Continues To Increase There.

(Special to The Star.)
South Shelby—The enrollment the first day at the Morgan school (formerly South Shelby) was over 378. This enrollment will be materially increased in a month or two as the rush season on the farm permits.

Exercises held in the school auditorium the second day of school and attended by patrons and friends of the school marked the beginning of the new session. The prospects are brighter than ever before for a successful year.

Sixteen persons comprise the teaching corps of the Morgan school. This number includes a teacher of piano, expression and home economics.

The Junior Red Cross we think is an excellent organization for schools. Realizing the hope of the future lies with the children the American Red Cross has organized the junior division so that school children may be trained early in health ideas and in habits of service. Three grades in our school have already reported one hundred per cent membership. They are the 8th grade taught by Miss Irene Chandler, the seventh grade taught by Mr. V. B. Cooper and the third taught by Miss Howie. Miss Myers a Red Cross worker sent out from Red Cross headquarters, Washington, D. C. will visit our school on or about October 3rd at which time we hope to have our organization perfected.

Welcome to our new teachers! They are Mrs. Kimmie Falls, teacher of the first grade; Miss Hardy, teacher of the second; Miss Josephine Ramsey, the third; Miss Edna Parker, the fourth; Miss Winnie Blanton, the fifth; Miss Mildred Thompson, the sixth Mr. V. B. Cooper the seventh and Miss Mary Helen Lattimore teacher of piano and Miss Virginia Hamrick teacher of expression.

Hubert Morehead a pupil in Miss Pritchard's section of the fourth grade played two selections on the harmonica for us during chapel period yesterday.

Miss Mildred Thompson has forty six girls enrolled in her home economics department. These pupils are from the 6th, 7th and 8th grades.

Supt. I. C. Griffin conducted our devotional exercises for us Friday at which time he brought us a helpful message.

"Current Events" a weekly condensed newspaper will be used again in our school from the fourth grade through the eighth. Current Event clubs will be organized in each of these grades and from time to time. Current Event programs will be given by these clubs during our chapel period. Teachers everywhere are pleased with the educational benefits resulting from the liberal use of "Current Events." Civics, geography, history and biography are made more interesting when taken in connection with the current news of the world. There is no better way to train for good citizenship in after-life than by developing in the pupils the habit of taking an interest in current affairs.

WOMAN DOCTORS
AT DISADVANTAGE

New York.—Baseless prejudice on the part of male doctors, the public at large, and even feminist leaders is wrecking the careers of hundreds of girl medical graduates, and depriving America of the services of possible thousands of able physicians and medical scientists who might be recruited for humanity's common war on disease.

Such is the accusation made by Dr. Jane Normandie, one of the country's leading pathologists and perhaps its foremost woman medical specialist.

Dr. Normandie, who saw service under fire as a commissioned medical officer with the American army in France, declares in an interview in McClure's magazine, that woman's potentialities in the medical field are on a par with those of man.

"The public is lined up on the side of the men doctors. If a young woman and a young man graduate with equal honors from a medical school, serve in the same hospital for a year or two and then open offices in the same block, the man will get out of every ten patients. "Women who are leaders in the feminist movement are as bad as the men doctors in perpetuating the age-old prejudices. Women who demand that women will be given every consideration in the field of business will shun the young woman doctor."

The young woman today who enters a medical school must expect to combat the disdain of her male co-workers throughout her course, she declares, relating her own experiences as a student at Johns Hopkins Medical school from which she was graduated with honors.

"My classmates were gentlemen and chivalrous in everything except the work we did in the classrooms and clinics. There, in many ways they made it plain that I was an intruder and an interloper. But their prejudice was mild to what I encountered when I enter the Baltimore Women's hospital to serve my internship."

The girl who enters the medical field today, her McClure's article concludes, must be prepared "to fight for 25 or possibly 50 years before the prejudice can be erased."

Mrs. Clarence Boyles was the guest of her mother in Mooresboro for the past week end.

Mrs. A. D. Brabbe returned Friday afternoon from a visit to Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. D. C. Richards and family of Gaffney, S. C., spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Richards.

HAVE WE LEARNED A LESSON?

Two hard farm years should have taught everybody a lesson. But have they? Time only can tell. If you see a man banking his money this fall and saving for future needs next year, you can give him credit for wisdom and experience, but, look out, if he goes on a SPENDING SPREE this fall you may be sure "HARD TIMES" will soon come back to him and his lesson was not learned.
