A Pattern of old France by the
Gorham Master Craftsmen

Designed in the manner of the tasteful Louis XV silver, Chantilly is for those who seek a certain simplicity relieved by a dainty touch of harmonious decoration.

Yes, Ma'am---
YOU CAN GET BETTER
CLEANING AND DYEING
HERE.

You can send your most valued garments here with the assurance they will be returned to you spotlessly clean and nicely pressed — the fabric so rejuvenated in appearance you can hardly tell it from new.

YOU NEED ONLY PHONE 105 OR 106—WE WOULD BE PLEASED TO CALL.

LITTLE STARS

Cotton (Shelby spots) ..... 20 1-4c Shelby Spots ..... 20 1-2c

—A Son—Born October 29th to Mr and Mrs. Clarence Self, a son, Clarence Jr.

—Birth—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin Jr., of Fayetteville, announce the birth of a daughter, Clara Dell, on October 10th.

—Eastern Star—Regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic building. Members are asked to note the change in hour.

—Into New Home—Mr. and Mrs.
Fred R. Morgan expect to move about Wednesday of this week into their handsome new two-story brick home in Belvedere heights which has just been completed. The home is one of the finest in Shelby with every modern convenience.

—Grassing Highways—Maintenance departments of the state lignway are sowing grass along the shoulders of the hard surface in order to prevent the soil from washing. It is understood that Bermuda grass seed is being used.

—Poultry Expert—Mr. Fort, of the Laro Milling company, will be with the Suttle Hatchery all this week giving instruction in culling and feeding poultry. Mr. Fort is a graduate of North Carolina State college and was picked last year as a member of the college judging team.

—Back to Italy—Tony Porcelli, ice cream vended who has been living on S. LaFayette street for a number of years, left this morning with his wife and three children, returning to their native Italy for a visit of three months. Tony says he will come back and continue his business here. Their going is to visit their old home and settle up an inheritance coming to his wife.

—Stop Fridays Noon—The Cleveland Cloth Mill, it is understood suspends work on Friday noon instead of Saturdays, as heretofore.
Work is resumed on Mondays. The cloth mill recently started on a day and night work. Encouragement is being given the employees to keep pretty lawns and flower yards.
Prizes will be awarded for the best kept premises.

—Business Better—Mr. W. A. Mc-Cord returned to Shelby Saturday night from what he declares to have been his most successful Southern trip. Mr. McCord is a shoe salesman, representing a Boston house. He asserts that Mississippi and the far Southern territory is full of money, that is to say, with the exception of the flooded area. Times he says, are exceptionally good, with extreme optimism prevailing in most lines of trade.

Good Gracious! Nearly Christmas!

Christmas is seven short weeks away. The first taste of it is even now in the crisping air—and it's time to make out those ever changing important lists! For November is a notoriously fast month, slipping by soundlessly—gone before we know it! And, unless we keep a sharp eye on the calendar, we'll be saying "Good Gracious! Here it is, nearly Christmas and I haven't bought a thing!"

We have a multitude of gorgeous Gifts for your selection and prices have never been lower. Wrist Watches for Women and Men, Diamonds, Mesh Bags, Bar Pins, Toilet Sets, will be the leaders this year and we have a great variety of these items.

You should begin to make selections now—not wait till the last minute.
