So far as can be learned there will be only one uptown church service. This will be at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian church and will be conducted by Rev. H. N. McDiarmid, the pastor. The First Baptist and Central Methodist churches will have their Thanksgiving services on the coming Sunday, it is said.

Out in the rural churches of the country several Thanksgiving programs have been arranged for the day and various rural schools will have Thanksgiving programs Friday night.

Bob Kendrick Catches Jim Sargent In No. 8 Township. Denies He Hit Officer Here.

An aftermath of the Dover-Schenck assault affair seems in prospects now that Jim Sargent, negro, is in the county jail awaiting a hearing in his alleged hand in the affair. Sargent was caught yesterday by Deputy Bob Kendrick.

It will be remembered that a month or two back when former Policeman Fred Dover started to arrest Frank Schenck, a negro, one Saturday night in a back alley section he was hit over the head by some one from behind just as he started to leave with Schenck. When Dover was knocked down Schenck was alleged to have taken part in the affair, beating the officer up, the other negro escaping meantime. Officers suspected that Sargent was the other negro and have been silently on the search since.

Afraid, He Said.

Sargent was found picking cotton in No. 8 by Officer Kendrick but when arrested denied that he nad anything to do with the attack on the policeman. Asked as to where he had been, the negro told the officer that he had been "around up in the mountains keeping out of sight," adding that when he heard Schenck was assaulted by the officer he was afraid he would get the same thing if found although he had nothing to do with the attack.

Sargent, who is a brother of the negro killed by former Police Chief B. O. Hamrick, some years ago in a gun battle, is now in the county jail and will likely be given a hearing Monday, it is said.
