

LITTLE STARS PERSONALS
Home Folks You Know On The Go

—Two Blooms—W. J. Henson who lives at the fair ground filling station near the county home gathered two white blooms from his cotton fields this morning.

—Another Bloom—G. T. Blanton who lives near the Sharon church reports a cotton bloom found in his field on Saturday, July 7th. This was one of the earliest.

—Masonic Notice—Cleveland lodge No. 202 A. F. and A. M. will meet in called communication tonight. There will be work in the first degree. All brethren and visitors cordially invited.

—Guitar Picker Signs—Lester Bivents, well known young local guitar picker and musician otherwise, spent last week in Atlanta, Ga., where he signed a five year contract with the Roby Music Co.

—A Birth—Cleveland county friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dycus congratulate them upon the arrival at their home at Forest City, a daughter, Rachel Jane on the morning of July 9th.

—Lightning Strikes—Lightning struck the barn of Willis Earl, colored farmer of the Sharon community Monday and killed a fine mule and burned his barn with a crop of wheat and feed stuffs.

—Mr. Stroup Better—Rush Stroup former county treasurer, is reported to be somewhat better this morning. His improvement has been remarkable in view of the desperate condition he has been in for a week or more.

—Birthday Dinner—There will be a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith at Cherryville on Sunday July 15, in honor of his 46th birthday. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

—Another Bloom—Another early cotton bloom was brought into The Star office today by Master Robert Palmer, son of Mr. V. J. Palmer, who lives on the Forrest Eskridge place on R-4. The bloom came on July 10.

—Home Coming—Home coming day will be observed at Beulah church on Sunday July 22. Several prominent ministers, including Rev. Harry North, Rev. W. O. Goode and Rev. Chas. P. Goode will deliver addresses. The public is cordially invited. A free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the church.

—Operation Needed—Decision has been reached, The Star is told, that young Louis Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Earl, who some weeks ago was seriously hurt in an automobile accident, will have to be operated on. It seems his leg, which was broken in the accident, is showing signs of not knitting properly.

—Peaches—The Star acknowledges two boxes of peaches, one given by Mr. Julius Norman of upper Cleveland and another by Prof. M. G. Latham of Patterson Springs. Both have good orchards and remembered The Star with their "first fruits" as an evidence of genuine friendship which is entirely mutual and greatly appreciated.

A Summer Tip

CONCERNING WINTER GARMENTS

Winter clothing should be put away, safe from destructive moths and other insects.

But first they should be cleaned and repaired, ready to wear when the first chilly days call for their reappearance.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

FOR 1928

A Big Special Coming Tomorrow AND Friday JOHN GILBERT in THE COSSACKS

WITH RENE E. ADOREE AND ERNEST TORRENCE

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

The picture, made by George Hill, and played by as fine a cast as ever put out a special, is as dramatic and tense as the Tolstoi novel from which it was made. It is a tremendous spectacle, at the same time searching in its analysis of human emotion.

"THE COSSACKS," recently released, is now running in New York at $2.00 top.

Remember: It is here TOMORROW and FRIDAY.
