COTTON MARKET

(By Jno. F. Clark & Co.)

Cotton was quoted at noon today on New York exchange:
October 20.93; December 20.73. Yesterday's close: October 20.96; December 20.80.
New York, July 27.—Raining last night at Atlanta, Palestine and Shreveport, weather over belt cloudy, rainfall Abilene 1.30 with maximum temperatures 76. Palestine 2.06, Vicksburg 58. Forecast: Carolinas, Georgia, Ala., Miss. showers, Ark., Okla., part cloudy, east Texas showers north portion and near east coast, west Texas part cloudy possibly local showers west portion.
Dallas News this morning says big feature of week is breaking of drought in Texas over an area representing 29 per cent with five year average yield of million and half bales, condition of crop fair, weevils been checked but the showers in east, north and central section may cause pests to increase to point of danger. Oklahoma crop improved but weevil present in large numbers and constitute menace if rains come soon. Better inquiry in Worth street with larger business.
Market will probably rally further on rains and showery forecast creating fears of weevil damage.

— AT THE MOVIES —

"Two Lovers," the starring vehicle for the last stand so to speak of the co-starring firm of Colman and Banks, metaphorically got a big hand at the Webb last night. This is advertised as the last picture this popular pair of lovers will make together. Henceforth they go their separate ways—each a star in his and (her) own right. The brilliantly presented picture is on again today, for the final exhibition. Announced as coming are three good ones: Milton Sills in "Hawks Nest"; Tuesday; Norma Shearer, in the Actress; and Wednesday Douglas Fairbanks in "The Gaucho."

Mrs. Wallace Reid, wife of the dead star, whose "life" has just been written by Adela Rogers St. Johns, appears at the Princess today in "The Satin Woman." It is a "dressed-up" picture, in which the star makes her appearance in "satin flame," a gown in which there is more than a thousand yards of material. It is a dramatic picture, built around the mother-daughter-in-love-with-the-same-man theme. It is one of a number of startling films Mrs. Reid has appeared in since her husband's death. Tomorrow a good dog picture is featured—"Ranger" in "Breed of Courage." It is a spectacular action picture—the story of a mountain feud, and the protection the loyal "Ranger" offers his school girl pal.

Listen For Tom
New York.—In Parmeston North New Zealand, home town friends of Tom Heeney hope to hear him trump Gene Tunney Thursday night. The General Electric company's 31.4 meter broadcast at Scheenectady will be linked with WEAF's network and attempt to relay the ringside story to distant parts of the world.

Ball Beats Politics
New York.—William Allen White, in town on the way to Europe, has been ducking questions about Governor Smith by saying the American people are interested in something besides politics. Upon a percentage basis of popular interest he would give politics 13 and baseball 40.

HIT BY AUTO HEN LAYS EGG ON THE WING

Kinston.—An egg was laid on the running board of a speeding automobile on the Central highway, near here, a story brought to the city said. The locale for the laying was not the hen's choice.

The car was making 45. The hen ran out of a group of chickens and flew up from the road in an effort to escape the wheels. A fender struck her. She slid down the fender to the running board. A fraction of a second later she had been thrown to one side, clear of the car and apparently uninjured.

The driver noticed something bouncing on the running board. It was an extra-fresh egg, cracked but not broken.

Blacksburg Youth Marries His Sister

Pleads Guilty And Is Given Suspended Sentence. Lived Some Together.

Gaffney.—Pleading guilty to the charge but insisting that he was unaware of the relationship Jeff Carroll was sentenced in court at Spartanburg Tuesday by Judge T. S. Sease to serve one year on the chaingang, the minimum allowed by law, for marrying Nettie Carroll, his half sister, of Blacksburg. Eight months of the sentence were suspended. The charge against the bride was not pressed.

Jeff and Nettie were arrested at Henderson, N. C., on a warrant sworn out here before Magistrate Rowan Gibson by the mother of the girl. Sheriff J. G. Wright brought the couple back to Gaffney the first of last week. Since the marriage took place at Spartanburg, however, the case had to be transferred to the Spartanburg court.

A report of the trial, as published by the Spartanburg Journal follows:

"Reared two hundred miles from his half sister whom he had never seen until recently, and then not knowing they were related in any way, Jeff Carroll married Nettie Carroll of Blacksburg and the pair lived together for about two months."

"Tuesday morning Carroll entered a plea in the court of general sessions to a charge of incest following the illegal marriage and subsequent cohabitation, and was sentenced to four months."

"Carroll and the woman were brought into court from the county jail where they have been incarcerated, when the plea was entered. J. F. Rhame, attorney, of Blacksburg, appeared for the couple and advised the plea."

"Carroll stated to Judge T. S. Sease that he was reared at Henderson, N. C., and married his sister, Nettie the third time she saw her. He never saw her until seven months ago when he came to Blacksburg section from eastern North Carolina."

"As a child seven years old Carroll had been given away and had been reared by others than his parents. He was not even aware, he said, that he had a sister."

Judge Sease advised him to let the case go to a jury, but after consideration, said he thought it might be best to detain him and let the girl go her way.

"The law fixes the penalty at not less than one year, and that sentence was imposed with all but four months suspended. The case against Nettie was not pressed. She left to return to Blacksburg."

"Carroll was taken back to the jail to be sent to the chaingang to serve his sentence and forget his bride of two months who turned out to be his sister."

"The position of the attorney who advised the plea of guilty was that they could have ascertained that they were kin if they had made any effort, and that a plea was the best solution of the case."

Scotch Millionaire Leaves $5 To Wife

New York.—The last paragraph in the history of an interesting Scotchman's career was written when the will of Alexander Roland Peacock, who rose from a department store clerkship to the vice presidency of the Carnegie Steel company, was filed for probate.

Peacock, once reputed to be worth $15,000,000 left his widow, Irene M. Peacock, a five dollar bill. His secretary gets 150 shares of Gulf Oil corporation stock or $10,000 in cash in case the securities do not realize that amount. His valet receives $2-500, which four children get $100 each.

In explanation of his bequest to his widow, Peacock wrote in his will:

"It is intended by me to be in full and in lieu and bar of her dower and all and every right or interest in and to my estate. I make only this provision for reasons well known to her, including the fact that I have amply and liberally provided for her during my lifetime."

The Driver And The Bee.

From The Montgomery Advertiser.

The Abbeville Herald tells of a motorist who struck at a bee flying near his face, and losing control of his steering wheel, had an accident which did considerable damage to his car. A dispatch from Omaha relates how a driver was killed when he struck at a bee that had lighted on his arm. The automobile driver should be so well disciplined that even a bee sting will not cause him to lose control of his car.
