School Absence Explained In Law

County Welfare Officer Tells Of Compulsory Attendance Rules.

Since hundreds of school children will be starting back to school in this county next Monday the following explanation of the compulsory attendance law and requirements is made by J. B. Smith, county welfare officer:

"On next Monday practically all of the consolidated schools of the county will open and run for a term of eight months. I wish to explain to the patrons who live in these consolidated districts the meaning of the compulsory attendance law, and how it is enforced. The law says that every parent or guardian shall keep his children, between the age of seven and 14, in school continuously the entire length of the school term of the district in which he resides. This means that under the law every parent or guardian shall send his children to school between the ages of seven and 14 from the first day to the last.

"In regard to temporary absences from school for sickness or any other reasonable cause, it is the duty of the parent to notify the teacher the cause of such absence, immediately. For it is required that the teacher turn over to the welfare officer for investigation on each Friday of the school term all unexcused absences.

"Then it is the duty of the welfare officer to immediately make an investigation of these unexcused absences and to enforce the law. As an officer of the law, it shall be my purpose and aim to see that the compulsory attendance law is enforced where it needs to be."

Gaffney Enlarges Auto Electric Co.

The Automobile Electric Co. of which J. L. Gaffney is manager, has been moved into larger quarters in the Beam building on N. Washington street and secured the services of S. L. King in charge of the electrical department. Mr. King has worked for some of the largest firms in Atlanta on starters and generators and will have charge of this work here. Batteries and windshield glass will be handled by this firm and Mr. Gaffney says he has a contract direct with the manufacturers for electrical appliances for all types of automobiles which enable him to render a service never before rendered here.

750,000 Chevrolets Placed In Six Months

One of the most remarkable achievements ever recorded in the automobile industry came to light today in the announcement of R. H. Grant, vice-president of the Chevrolet Motor company in charge of sales, that 750,000 "Bigger and Better" Chevrolets have been placed in the hands of owners since the introduction of the new car January first.

With deliveries to customers averaging 30,000 cars a week, Chevrolet in the first seven months of the year, established a record for public acceptance of a new car unrivaled in the history of modern motor cars. Each week, each month, each quarter shattered all marks for the corresponding period of any previous year.

Five New Oldsmobile Models Announced

Five new de luxe models, the latest achievements of Oldsmobile and Fisher artist-engineers, are announced by Oldsmobile. These are in addition to the present line of seven body types announced early this year which continue unchanged.

The de luxe line consists of the de luxe landau, de luxe roadster, de luxe sport coupe, de luxe four door sedan and the de luxe phaeton. Additional equipment, new color treatment, advanced interior finish and refinement in design distinguish these models.

Mechanically the standard and de luxe Oldsmobiles are the same. There has been no change made in the engine and chassis, which are the result of more than 1,000,000 miles of test driving at the General Motors proving ground, made under the supervision of Oldsmobile engineers before the new car was announced in January. These performance tests have been further confirmed by the enthusiastic endorsement of more than 60,000 owners of new Oldsmobile since January 1.

MAN, BELIEVED DEAD 7 YEARS, IS FOUND

Denver.—Given up for dead seven years ago when he disappeared and his hat and coat were found on a bank of the Missouri river at Kansas City, Mo., James H. Lawrence was found in a hospital here, where he had gone for treatment for rheumatism.

Now known under the name of James H. Lee, Lawrence, who is 57 years old, related that he resolved to disappear after he had been tricked out of large sum of money in Kansas City. He disappeared in March 1921, after going to the Missouri city from Edinburg, Texas where he was reputedly wealthy farmer. His wife and four children in Edinburg gave him up as dead, and after seven years he was declared legally dead.

Lawrence carried $17,500 life insurance, most of which was paid to his wife after detectives employed by the insurance companies had attempted without avail to solve the mystery of his disappearance.

FARMERS ADOPT SET RESOLUTIONS

Nine Improvements Are Sought by Leaders—Better Livestock, Farmers Organization

Raleigh.—North Carolina farm leaders want nine things to come to pass that their working and living conditions might be improved. These are:

Improvement of livestock by eradication of bovine tuberculosis and introduction of better sires in herds. Perfection of a strong farmers' organization like those in northern and western states. Scientific study of the state tax system and adoption of important reforms by the 1929 general assembly.

Equality for agricultural education, giving farm youth advantages of city boys and Opportunity for the sick services that public hospitals offer as easily as do the indigent sick in cities.

Better program of taxation in forestry whereby timber may be taxed in such a way as to have payments fall due when timber is marketed or ready for market.

Better support of co-operative organization for farmers so as to make farmers' efforts more effective in securing highest degree of efficiency and responsiveness to farmer control.

More farmers in general assembly and on agriculture and agricultural education boards of the state.

Active support of all farmers in state for the State Fair.

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT AT THE PROVING GROUND

The sky is the limit at the great Proving Ground of General Motors, near Milford, Michigan.

Every phase of a car's performance is tested to the limit of its ability.

The new Oldsmobile went through 1,177,000 miles of testing at the Proving Ground before it was ever offered to the public—tests far more severe than any owner could ever give.

And thousands of Oldsmobile buyers throughout America have added further proof in the form of millions of miles of actual driving.

But don't accept even this proof as final. Come drive the Fine Car of Low Price yourself and make your own comparisons.
