Cotton Market

(By Jno. F. Clark & Co.)

Cotton was quoted on New York exchange today as follows:

October 19.67; December 19.32. Yesterday's close: October 19.46, December 19.31.

New York, Aug. 3.—Southern weather clear last night except parts of Georgia and Alabama, raining at Atlanta, shower at Montgomery, forecast N. C. fair today showers west portion tonight or Saturday, S. C. fair Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi showers, Arkansas showers north portion. Oklahoma showers, east Texas cloudy, showers north portion.

Lighter business in Worth street. Reports of weevil increased yesterday and crop advices were not all favorable. A government estimate of 15,000,000 locks to be discounted. Traders a year ago expected an indicated crop of around 15,000,000 bales based on private reports but the government figure came 13,492,000 and prices shot up to the limit followed by 150 points more the following day.

The German lecturer who says this country has petticoat government may know a lot about government, but he's about twenty-five years behind the times otherwise.—Leesburg (Fla.) Commercial.
