

LITTLE STARS PERSONALS
Home Folks You Know On The Go

In New Home—Attorney and Mrs. Henry Edwards are moving today in their newly completed brick veneered residence on West Marion street.

First Degree—Cleveland lodge 202 A. F. & A. M. will meet in called communication Friday night for work in the first degree. Masons are urged to attend.

Episcopal Service—There will be services at Episcopal church here Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The service will be in charge of Rev. S. R. Guignard, of Lincoln.

Represents County—Fred J. Wright, local barber has returned from Dunn, this state, where he attended the Master Barbers association which has recently been formed. Mr. Wright has been appointed to represent Cleveland county for the association.

Alligator Removed—The alligator caught on West Warren street last Sunday night and placed in one of the fountains on the court square is declared a "nuisance." The fault is not exactly due to him. So many people gather around the fountain that they ruin the grass and shrubbery and Commissioner Cline thinks it best to remove him.

Picking Cotton—Dave Turner, colored, who farms for Gov. O. Max Gardner, was in The Star office today exhibiting several open bolls of cotton he had pulled on his farm. Dave declared that he had some cotton that had been open for a week or more and would begin picking regularly Monday.

Eastern Star—At the Eastern Star meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the chapter room of the Masonic temple, F. William E. Gullingford, past grand patron of the grand chapter of North Carolina Eastern Star, will make an address on Robert Morris. All Masons in the city and sections as well as Eastern Star members are urged to attend.

Hears It At 3:30—D. R. Grigg, a resident of Cleveland county living here in 1855 and '56 writes from Greenville, Ill., for copies of The Star's extra editions on the collapse of the buildings which took a death toll of six. He read a story of the collapse that same afternoon at 3:30 in a St. Louis newspaper.

Mrs. Hendrick Writes—The story entitled "The Cyclone" appearing in Wednesday's issue of The Star was written by Mrs. Edna C. Hendricks, wife of S. C. Hendricks, former clerk of the county of Gaston. Through an error her name was omitted from the splendid article, dealing with a cyclone which struck the home of a Carpenter family in this county.
