

No Question as to White and Negro Clerks Mingle in Capital

Hoover Order Putting Two Races Together Is Discussed By Writer.

Washington.—Every day or so one hears some reference to the order which Mr. Hoover is understood to have made, while secretary of commerce, abolishing all attempts at segregation of the races in branches of his department.

Theodore Tiller, at one time a member of the staff of the Greenboro News and now the representative here on the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, has spent considerable time of late days in looking into this matter for his paper.

Segregation Not Denied. "That there was segregation of the races in the census bureau up to about April 1 of this year is not to be denied. That about this time negro clerks were brought up from the ground floor, where they had offices to themselves and were doing acceptable work therein, and scattered among the white clerks on floors above, is also not to be denied.

RESTS SATURDAY, WORKS ON SUNDAY

Statesville Magistrate Reserves Decision in Case Against Farmer.

Statesville.—What is to be done with a man who keeps Saturday for the Sabbath Day and pursues his daily occupation on Sunday?

That question was put up to Squire George R. Anderson today when W. T. Wilson, a farmer of Fallstown township, was brought into the magistrate's court charged with desecrating the Sabbath Day by plowing and sowing grain.

Mr. Wilson was interrupted in his Sabbath Day farming operations by Deputy Sheriffs Beaver, Fleming and Hoke about 11 o'clock Sunday morning, the officers finding that he had already broken a small piece of ground and was getting ready to sow the plot in turnips.

In compliance with request of the officers, Mr. Wilson appeared in the magistrate's court on schedule time today and submitted to working on Sunday. He told the presiding magistrate that he had kept Saturday for the Sabbath Day for more than 12 months.

In order that he might have more time in which to look into the legal aspects of the case, Squire Anderson asked the defendant to give a $50 bond for his appearance Monday, October 1, for a further hearing. The bond was promptly given and Mr. Wilson was at liberty.

Drinking Charges Given On Curtis

Gives Names Witnesses Who Said They Drank With Curtis At Race Track.

Baltimore.—Senator William Cabell Bruce this week issued a statement in which he reiterated his charge that Senator Charles Curtis, Republican vice presidential candidate had whiskey in his pocket at the Pamlico race track here last year, and furnished a written statement from a local attorney to corroborate his charge.

The attorney, James A. McGrath, of a Baltimore law firm, declared in his statement that he, in company with Robert B. Ennis, another local attorney, and John Gray, of Brooklyn, N. Y. had met the senator at the track on the closing day of the meeting in November, 1927. It said that Senator Curtis asked the three of them to join him in a drink, and that they went into the bar at the track. There, he said, after procuring four glasses, from the bartender Senator Curtis produced the bottle of O. F. C. whiskey from his pocket and furnished the drinks.

Afterward he said, the senator returned the bottle to his pocket. Senator Bruce, in his statement, said that the charge he made in his address at Westminster, Md. Saturday night, had originated with McGrath. He said that he had met the attorney on the street about the time of the Republican national convention in Kansas City and that he had been told the story of the race track meeting.

Lawyers Denounce Political Pastors

Greenville Barristers Declare There Is No Such Thing As 'Hoover Democrat.'

Greenville.—Denouncing "Hoover-Democrats" as Republicans ashamed to admit it, and anti-Smith "political pastors" as hypocrites hiding religious bigotry under the cloak of "moral issues," 60 odd local lawyers, representing approximately 90 per cent of the Greenville bar, met in the county courthouse "with their danger up" to form the Lawyers Al Smith club of Greenville.

Wilton H. Earle, instigator of the gathering, was elected president by acclamation over his contentions that another man should have the job. Col. E. M. Rytte was named vice president and J. M. Wells secretary.

Merriment was uppermost as able orators loosened heavy batteries of sarcasm and satire on "Republican thievery" and "political preachers," but beneath it ran an undercurrent

WOMEN'S PAINS

They Were Relieved by Cardui Which This Georgia Lady Took on Her Mother's Advice.

Columbus, Ga.—"I don't see why women will drag around in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help put them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of this city.

of sincerity best expressed in James H. Price's statement that he was willing to shoulder a musket, if necessary, and give his blood for Democratic principles as his father had done at Gettysburg.

Time To Organize. "It is up to the lawyers of this community to come out and fearlessly oppose the campaign of bigotry spreading over the South. Mr. Earle said in opening the meeting, Ministers of Greenville have organized in a way and are fighting Al Smith purely because he is a Catholic. They prate of moral issues, but they feel no one. They didn't oppose John W. Davis, or James M. Cox who were just as wet as Al Smith. It disgusts me to hear these political pastors, led principally by Dr. Z. T. Cody narp on the moral side of the campaign. I challenge any man to show that Al Smith has ever done a dishonest thing in office. Ministers who oppose him say nothing about Republican thievery, organized graft and sale of offices. They evidently think that drinking is worse than stealing.

"Dr. Cody is a Republican, edits a magazine supported by Baptist laymen and women of this state, who are Democrats. He has publicly said that he will vote for Hoover this year, and was branded him as a Republican. He and his kind are trying to lead the people astray. No Hoover-Democrats. "There is no such creature as a Hoover-Democrat. I couldn't define one if he existed, for the language that I would be forced to use would be out of taste in this assemblage of gentlemen. Suffice it to say that so-called Hoover-Democrats are Republicans ashamed to admit it. "A Republican in South Carolina is a name of reproach, and no preacher under God's sun can lead me to join up with this thieving crowd.

At this juncture H. K. Townes brought down the house by announcing that "not a lawyer on the Greenville bar will bolt the party."

In connection with an argument concerning the specie of the "Hoover-Democrat," Judge W. C. Cothran said that he had seen a letter in The Greenville News signed, and that he now expected to find some communication signed "A Caucasian Negro," which I take to mean a mulatto."

"You may as well cross a jackass with a bird of paradise and expect to get an angel," said T. H. Munro in discussing the search for Hoover-Democrats.

A bitter denunciation of "hypocritical preachers" was delivered by James H. Price, who predicted that 50 years would be required for "this class of pastors" to recover prestige lost by their anti-Smith conduct. "There is no such thing as a Hoover-Democrat in South Carolina," Colonel Blythe said. If a man wants to vote for Hoover, well and good, but he stands a Republican and may as well admit it.
