

News of the World Told in Pictures

THE "WHY" OF IT—White handsome John Coolidge is hunting a job in New York, pretty Florence Trumbull (centre), daughter of the governor of Connecticut and reported to be his fiancee, is vacationing on beach at Lido, Italy. L. to r. Miss Esther Trumbull, her cousin; Florence and Miss Betty Randle.

MONSTER ZEPPELIN—Greatest of all dirigibles, the Graf Zeppelin, is almost ready for her trials. Above, splendid view of the craft's rear, showing rudders, and below, workmen hoisting one of powerful engines into its gondola.

PRETTY MARINER—Here's a certain auburn-haired movie star in a brand new role—that of "lookout" on her own spanking auxiliary yacht. Yes, you're right the first time. It's Clara herself.

HIS FAVORITE SPORT—Here's President Coolidge loading shotgun prior to starting for trapshooting range, where he broke 29 out of possible 37 targets. The chief executive told newspapermen he had never enjoyed a vacation so much as the present one on the Brule river.

QUEEN OF RADIO—Miss Lita Korbe, of New York City, who was chosen as Radio Queen of America because she wrote best essay on: "What radio means to me!"

RIVALS THREE—George Haldeman, who came down in mid-Atlantic with Ruth Elder; Art Goebel, holder of cross-country speed record, and Emile Burgin, three of crack pilots who will compete in non-stop race across the United States. Photo was made at Roosevelt Field, L. I., where they viewed start of air marathon.

DECORATED—Captain William J. Stannard, leader of U. S. Army band, who has been honored with Order of the Sun by Peruvian government. Award was made for his work in introducing Peru's music to America.

WINS KING'S NEPHEW—Miss Estelle Manville, of Pleasantville, N. Y., whose betrothal to Count Folke Bernadotte, nephew of King Gustaf of Sweden, has just been announced. Photo was made on her arrival in Gothenburg.

HIDES TROOPS—One-man light tank laying its own smoke screen during British army maneuvers on Salisbury Plain. The new whippet is praised by officials for its efficiency.

PLAYTIME—Here's Evelyn Holt, beautiful German movie star, in a tomboy role on the beach at Blackpool, Eng. Her donkey pal is in the "fillums," too, having a role in forthcoming British production.

WINS GOLD MASHIE—Equestrian world's record of 272 for 72 holes of play, George von Elm, Salt Lake City golfer, won the gold masher tournament over T. Saffern Taylor's difficult ocean links at Newport, R. I. Photo shows Mr. Taylor presenting von Elm with the trophy.