EXPLORER RESCUED FROM DEATH IN FROZEN NORTH

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 15.—Having staggered along an icy trail, without food and his feet frozen, while a life-saving airplane circled overhead unable to see him in the blinding ice glare, Thomas Cowan, prospector, was en route today for hospital treatment at Toronto. A companion died on the trail.

Cowan and Joe Rutherford, another prospector, were surveying the territory north of Baker lake, in the northwest territories, 1,200 miles north of the pass. They had been taken in by airplane. On the third day, when the plane was to have returned, a blizzard set in. With only a limited food supply and the blizzard threatening to bar rescue indefinitely the two men decided to strike out on foot for a trading post 50 miles away.
