Officers made a raid on the fire department in the City Hall one night last week when a called meeting of the mayor and aldermen was in session. Reports had come to officers that a quantity of liquor was to be found, but after due and diligent search, none was found.

Lucy Weaver, 16-year-old daughter of Griffin Weaver of Georgia is in a serious condition and may die as the result of injuries she sustained last Saturday night when she was struck by an automobile driven by Rush Hoyle near Rockdale in upper Cleveland. Miss Weaver was walking in the road, going home from a corn shucking late Saturday night in company with a young man, when a Ford car driven by Rush Hoyle and occupied by his two companions, Pendleton and Greenway, struck her on the hip.

Mr. Everett Houser, who for the past six months has been local editor of The Star has returned to Greensboro where he takes a position again on the Greensboro Daily News. The Star has secured Mr. Renn Drum, who will arrive in Shelby the latter part of this week or the first of next to become local editor, taking the place of Mr. Houser. He is a native of Statesville and after attending Davidson college, took up newspaper work on the Statesville papers, being trained by Messrs. R. E. Clark and Pegrarn A. Bryant, two of the best newspaper men in North Carolina. After leaving Statesville he went to Danville, Va., where he has been on the local staff of the Danville Register and Bee, the morning and afternoon dailies of that city.

Lee Caldwell, one of the most popular athletes ever to wear the mogram of the Winston-Salem high school, was fatally injured in the football game between Winston- and the Charlotte high schools at Winston-Salem Saturday afternoon, death coming a few minutes later, just after he was taken to a hospital.

Shelby high school swamped Gastonia at Gastonia Friday by the score 40 to 0. D. A. Beam and Sons are placing material for the erection of two more brick store rooms on N. Washington street, adjoining their present buildings known as the Automobile building, because it is becoming quite an automobile center. Beginning the second month, the enrollment in the Shelby public schools is 1,231 which is over 100 larger than the record established last year. The enrollment is as follows: High school 331; Central 184; Marion 119; LaFayette 206; grammar school 136; colored school 193. Mr. Archie Parker, a young ministerial student at Bowling Springs high school preached his first sermon at Zoar church last Sunday to a large congregation. Chicago—As a last word to the 3,000 physicians and health experts, attending the convention of the American Public Health association, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, noted surgeon, said: "Medical science is on the threshold of winning its greatest battle—that against cancer. Wonderful strides have been made by research workers."

SMITH SURE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Brown Derby Back From 10,000 Mile Swing; Wearer Says South Will Back Him

Albany—The brown derby is back home again. In five weeks it has travelled 10,000 miles. Strictly speaking, it is not the same brown derby. The last of a series went off the train at Cleveland. But a new one—just the right size—was presented to Gov. Smith at Utica.

Down And Out. "We got rid of about four on the trip and we were just about down and out when we picked this one up in Utica," said Gov. Smith, gazing fondly at his new headpiece. He will wear it on his last foray, up and down the Atlantic seaboard, which begins in Boston Wednesday.

The expedition which has just ended—through a corner of the south, the border states, Illinois and Indiana—has impressed those who have made it as observers and has eminently satisfied Gov. Smith. The observers were impressed by the unbroken succession of tumultuous popular receptions. Curiosity undoubtedly swelled the dimensions of the crowds, but it could not have made them roar shriek, and surge through police lines in "exuberant scrambles to touch and run beside the man with the brown-derby. Satisfied. "Well, I think we have pretty well settled the states we have been in, from what I can hear," he said. "Of course, I never shared the doubt about Tennessee that was going around. I never believed that was off the hook, nor North Carolina either. I did not know about Kentucky when we started, but I am satisfied with it."

Any doubts about Virginia, Alabama, Texas, Florida? "No. All we are hearing from in those states are the noisy minorities. They are loud but not numerically strong. Satisfied with Missouri? "Yes." Illinois, Indiana? "The leaders down there say they are all right."

Immediately upon his arrival in Albany, Gov. Smith went out to play golf. Attends Mass. The train had stopped at Utica for an hour to permit him and his family to attend mass. Wednesday, he will start "the battle for the Atlantic seaboard," in Boston. On the following day, he will return to New York by way of Providence, Hartford and New Haven. No speeches are scheduled in Rhode Island or Connecticut, but the Democrats of the latter state have put down their money for the state armory at Hartford on Thursday evening, and are determined that he shall speak there. The tentative schedule beyond there is: Philadelphia, Saturday; Baltimore, Monday; Newark, Wednesday; Brooklyn, Friday; and New York Saturday.

HYMN BEFORE ACTION IN HYPOCRISY FIGHT

Greensboro Alacrat In Shucks & Nubbins Column of Greensboro News. From Buncombe still-choiced mountains To Craven's rum-soaked strand, Where Guilford's moonshine fountains Spray booze to Chatham's sand, The tide of bootleg liquor Flows handsome, wide and high; Small wonder millions sneaker When Simmons says we're dry!

Full many a cellar laden With Protestant jug and cask Supplies the Methodist maiden With contents for her flask; The moonshine vender smotherers Sly chuckles in his throat— He knows his Baptist brothers Don't drink the way they vote!

What though the Alps are shout ing Their mirth in raucous key— And e'en Old Faithful spouting Gives place to whoops of glee: The staid old Sphinx politely His smile tries to conceal As we fare forth uprightly To break Al on the wheel. Wait, winds, the nokum loary, Bear, breeze, the sorry sham; Hypocrisy's snug story, Delights far-off Slam, Damnation, oh, damnation! Smite Al in ballot booth! Ayaunt! consideration, He dares to speak the truth!

ZEPP-LIN MAIL STAMPS SOUGHT BY COLLECTORS New York—Cancelled stamps on envelopes and postcards brought to this country by the Graf Zeppelin are causing keen competition among stamp collectors and dealers, with $3 being reported quoted for the four-mark stamps on envelopes and $2 for the two-mark stamps on postcards. Postoffice officials said the Zeppelin's mail consisted of fifteen sacks, containing 28,124 letters and 37,500 postcards.

Five and Ten Years Ago

The Following Items Were Gleaned From Issues Of The Cleveland Star Of Five And 10 Years Ago.

FIVE YEARS AGO October 23, 1923.

Officers made a raid on the fire department in the City Hall one night last week when a called meeting of the mayor and aldermen was in session. Reports had come to officers that a quantity of liquor was to be found, but after due and diligent search, none was found.

The new concrete bridge across Buffalo about midway between Shelby and Kings Mountain is completed by the five Howard brothers of Tennessee and the bridge is said to be a model in construction. The concrete base on the 12 miles is practically completed by Elliott and Sons. On this side of the creek all of the base is down except about one mile, while on the Kings Mountain side the base is all down except about two miles leading to the bridge.

Misses Mollie Ivey, Frances Blanton, Adelaide Bostic, Miriam McBrayer, Wade Hoey and Frank Kendall picked 200 pounds of cotton on Mr. W. H. Blanton's fine farm Tuesday afternoon and turned the money over to the Red Cross. The Chapter appreciates this donation very much.

Cleveland county reached Saturday the total of $631,000 in subscriptions to the fourth Liberty Loan bonds, over reaching the country's allotment of $600,000, based on the country's population of 30,000 people at $20 per capita by a handsome majority.

The report of the health officials, up to and including Sunday, as to the Public Health Service at Washington was approximately 3,138 cases of Spanish influenza in the county with approximately 25 deaths. Reports from Lawndale indicate that the situation is daily improving there. Conditions at Grover have been deplorable on account of the fact that the only physician in the town was away doing emergency work in another place. Kings Mountain reports indicate that the entire town is prostrated by the epidemic. Isolated cases are found throughout the entire county. It is reported that Bowling Springs high school has been forced to close on account of the epidemic. Shelby and vicinity show some indications of having reached the high tide in the spread of the disease. More than 1,000 cases have been reported by the Shelby physicians with 15 deaths to date. All of the mills have been closed down and the officials in each place are doing all within their power to stamp out the disease and to relieve the suffering.

Yesterday morning there were three dead in the family of Mr. Floyd McSwain who lives on South Washington street. Novella, age 17, Lucy age about 7, and Ambrose McSwain age about 15 were all lying a corpse at one time. The boy died at the Ella mill welfare building, which is being used for the care of patients. Another boy of the McSwain family was at the point of death, the end expected any moment.

Mr. Claude Gales, died at his home Thursday evening at 7:30 of pneumonia following a severe attack of influenza. He held a position with the Shelby Coca-Cola Bottling company, for 7 years as foreman.

James Bowman, age 36, died Thursday at Lynchburg, Va., of influenza. He was the son of Mr. Jas. T. Bowman, president of the Shelby National bank, and a young man of fine traits. He was inspector for the Craddock-Terry Shoe company.

Mr. William McSwain died Thursday afternoon of Spanish influenza. He died at the home of his brother, Mr. John McSwain, who died Monday morning. Mr. McSwain was about 17 years of age, and was buried at Sharon.
