WOMEN'S PAINS They Were Relieved by Cardui Which This Georgia Lady Took on Her Mother's Advice.

Columbus, Ga.—"I don't see why women will drag around, in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help out them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of this city. "I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work, and just dragged around the house. I got very thin. I went from a hundred and twenty-six pounds down to less than a hundred. My mother had long been a user of Cardui, and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble. So she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store for Cardui, and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. My side hurt less, and I began to mend in health. I took the second bottle, and felt much better. I followed this by two more bottles. Cardui acted as a fine tonic. I do not feel like the same person. I am well now, and still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all." For sale by druggists, everywhere. Give it a trial. NC-18 a stove. Bring Samuel an airplane and some candy and fruit. Please bring J. B. and Ray something nice, our baby wants a doll. Don't forget the poor children. Your friend, Nadine Ellis, Shelby.

NEW YEARS GREETINGS The old year has about reached the end of its trail, and 1929, like a candidate waiting to be initiated into a secret order is about to be admitted. We stand in wonder and anticipation on the threshold of the New Year and wonder what is behind the door which bears the name plate "1929." Let's all be truthful in 1929; lying is a fault in a boy; an art in a bachelor, a necessity to a married man and a duty to a diplomat. We know of only one family in . . . where the male is the boss—and he isn't four years old yet. That's the truth. Here's wishing you all a Prosperous 1929.
