Don't Be Frightened About Pone Costs

Bills Sent Out By Company Cover Toll To January 16, New System.

Many local people who received their telephone bills by mail last week perhaps laid them down after a glance with exclamations not hardly fit to appear in print.

However, an examination of the bill revealed, or would have revealed, that a new system of billing is merely being installed. If your bill was higher than it was last month it was solely because the bill last week was for a month and one-half instead of one month. Hereafter bills will be sent out at mid-month and to get the billing straight the regular charges in last week's bill were for December and for January through the 15th.

Mr. Jonas' Error And White-Haired Gentleman Is Hit

Hickory Record. When Congressman-elect Chas. A. Jonas stated in Greensboro that the Republicans would contest the election of Major Stedman in the fifth district he put himself in a position to be hammered rather heavily by the press of the state. Mr. Harden, who opposed Major Stedman, withdrew his charges and the public was led to believe that the affair was over. Nobody wants to see a man cheated out of office but Mr. Jonas gave nothing but vague statements in Greensboro and public sentiment is more than apt to support the aged veteran who is regarded throughout the nation as the last of the Romans.

If Mr. Jonas has definite and tangible charges to make he should present them in the proper manner without any ballyhoo, but for him to air his suspicions in the manner that he did in Greensboro last Saturday was an error in tact which will do him no good.

The attitude which he has taken is probably best summed up by The Raleigh Times which is never sentimental, as follows:

"We cannot imagine that even a partisan committee of the house will attempt seriously to connect him with fraud. Major Stedman is one of the Romans. His white head never got a blow except as he held it up in honor. Not only in North Carolina but in Washington he is held in an affection that is not going to be remotely patient with any such attempted revival of political mopping-up tactics. As for Mr. Harden, he may be an entirely estimable gentleman. He may, for all we know, be better qualified technically to represent his district than is Major Stedman. It is even possible that if we could go into all the details of the voting it might be shown that perhaps Mr. Harden was the nominee, and not Major Stedman, as the returns indicate.

"All that aside, it is odds of an hundred to one that Major Stedman, who has spent a lifetime in fighting fairly, ran into no moral debacle in his old age. Whoever seriously attempts to unseat him can count upon a tremendous crop."

School Thanks in Appreciation of The Star's Support

At a called meeting of the city board Friday to consider various matters pertaining to the school, but about which nothing definitely was done, pending another meeting around the first of the year, the following resolution was passed commending The Star for its support of the school tax for the education of the 3,000 school children of Shelby:

Editor of The Cleveland Star, Shelby, N. C. Sir:—At a called meeting of the Shelby school board, held on December 21st, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by that body:

Be it resolved: That the broad, liberal and progressive stand taken by The Cleveland Star in the recent school tax election be commended, and

That the thanks and appreciation of the school board be extended to

The Cleveland Star, and That this resolution be entered upon the minutes of the Shelby school board, and a copy forwarded to the editor of The Cleveland Star.

Respectfully,
B. H. Kendall, Chairman;
Jno. R. McClure, D. W. Roy-ster, R. T. LeGrand, J. S. McKnight, secretary.

Shelby Steps Out For Her Governor

Charlotte News. The Kiwanians of Shelby are planning to give Governor-elect Gardner a state wide festival in the form of a dinner in Shelby under their auspices to reveal to the honored son of the state something of the spirit of elation and satisfaction on the part of his multitude of friends that North Carolina has recorded its appreciation of his life and labors, and no man in the state is worthier of such an event.
