ELEVEN DEATHS FROM COLD SPELL

Butte, Mont. With 55 Degrees Below, is Coldest Spot—Relief Expected Soon.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Warm northeast winds, which will blow away the severe cold that has cost eleven lives in the middlewest, was today's promise to storm-bound states suffering the worst rigors of the winter.

Sufficient snow to make footing secure was forecast for Chicago while a rising temperature to from 10 to 25 degrees above zero was predicted.

The absence of snow here was in contrast to the intense cold and heavy snow that paralyzed traffic in parts of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Trains were delayed and highways were blocked. In Chicago icy pavements made driving treacherous.

The storm approached blizzard proportions in Michigan, where the cold accounted for five lives. Minnesota had four dead.

Two Chicago Victims.

The Chicago victims were Ernest L. Heide and Charles Siefert, both firemen. Heide was electrocuted while attempting to repair a high voltage wire that had snapped under the weight of ice. Siefert slipped on a stairway while fighting a fire and plunged 40 feet to his death.

Whipped by a 40-mile gale, snow in the upper peninsula of Michigan blocked roads and delayed trains while at Sherwood, Wis., volunteers cleared a mile and a half of a snow drifted road for a funeral 24 hours late. The funeral procession left Sherwood at noon Tuesday for a rural church, became snowbound and was forced to remain over night at a farmhouse until farmers opened up the road.

The coldest temperature of the day yesterday was registered at Butte, Mont., where the mercury recorded 55 degrees below.

$500 PER DEAD ROBBER OFFERED AFTER HOLD-UP

Memphis, Tenn.—The South Side Service Station, which has been held up twice this month, published an advertisement, announcing "We will pay $500 per head for dead robbers killed in the act of holding up this store." The advertisement added that "it's getting tiresome." N. A. Cook, manager of the service station, said he thought the advertisement would end the hold-ups.
 The second hold-up of the month occurred early Sunday when two unmasked men took $75.

CHURCH MEETINGS ABOUT EASTSIDE

"Crazy Drunk" When He Killed His Wife

This is A Report in Connection With Haywood County Tragedy.

Waynesville, Jan. 23.—From the time he shot his wife to death Friday afternoon until he was lodged in jail about 2:00 o'clock Saturday morning, Wilson Price, 65-year-old, Haywood county man, begged for a gun to end his own life, it was learned here Tuesday.

Price was intoxicated when he reached Waynesville, those who saw him declared, and Solicitor Grover C. Davis Tuesday quoted Fred Hannah, who is said to have witnessed the shooting, as saying that the man was "crazy drunk" as he stood in the doorway of his home and shot his 37-year-old wife to death as she lay on a bed in their home, about 35 miles from Waynesville.

Mr. Davis Tuesday expressed the opinion that liquor probably was responsible for the crime.

William T. Hannah, of Hannah, and Hannah, Price's attorneys, Tuesday denied the report that the man had dramatically appeared at the sheriff's office to announce his guilt and demand that he be arrested. Price, as a matter of fact, Mr. Hannah said, appeared at his home about 10 o'clock Friday night, a few hours after his wife was killed, and Mr. Hannah and Price went to the former's office to discuss the case. About 1:30 or 2 o'clock, Mr. Hannah said, he telephoned the jailer to prepare a cell for them and he personally accompanied Price to the jail, where he remained until the following morning, when Sheriff Welch was apprised of the crime.

Price will be bound over to superior court without the formality of a preliminary hearing, his attorneys having waived the hearing. The case is expected to come up for trial in the next term of Haywood superior court, which opens on February 4. Meanwhile, no effort will be made to secure Price's liberty under bond, his attorneys announced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Alexander had as their guests Sunday Messrs. W. M. Miller, Harvey Blanton, Leon Brisson and A. E. Barber, all of Lumberton.

CANADA'S BUFFALO INCREASE RAPIDLY

Three Score Left On Island Soon Grow To 800. Meat Finds Quick Sale.

Calgary, Alta.—A gratifying feature of Canada's adventure in bringing back the buffalo is the way in which the different herds continue to multiply and to expand beyond the capacity of their once ample grazing ranges. The case of the main herd at Wainwright, Alberta, in which there was an increase from about 700 head to 17,000 head in eighteen years, has often been cited.

This year 1,088 young buffalo were sent from Wainwright to the Wood Buffalo park near Fort Smith, northwest territories, and of the herd at Elk Island Park, 200 animals have been slaughtered and their carcasses and hides disposed of commercially.

When the original herd was purchased from Michael Pablo, speedy action had to be taken to receive them. Seventy miles of stout wire fencing such as incloses the buffalo park at Wainwright, could not be erected overnight and the first shipment received from Montana was placed in Elk Island Park, a fenced wild animal inclosure, fifty-one square miles in area, about thirty-seven miles northeast of Edmonton. As soon as the fencing at Wainwright was completed the shipment was moved to the buffalo park, but about sixty head which could not readily be rounded up were left at Elk Island to roam with the deer, wapiti and other animals there.

These few animals thrive like those at Wainwright and last summer a survey showed that the fifty buffalo had increased to about 800. This number, considering the other animals in the park, was felt to be beyond the grazing capacity of the area and the disposal of 200 was deemed advisable.

Unexpectedly keen interest has been shown by citizens in the fact that nutritious buffalo meat in limited quantities and a few choice robes and heads are from time to time available, but attention is chiefly centered in the success achieved in bringing back the buffalo in the prairie regions and in the establishment of a great herd in the far north where the one-time lord of the plains will play a large part in the development of Northern Canada.

FLAPPER RUM RUNNER OUTDISTANCES SHERIFF

Goldsboro, Jan. 23.—Deputy Sheriff Carl Smith, hardened hero of many a liquor chase in this section, met his match late yesterday when a pretty girl in a fur coat flanked on each side by well-groomed youths of high school age, swept through this city in a high-powered sedan and out-distanced the officer.

Deputy Smith flushed his quarry five miles east of here when, riding up to the rear, he saw through the glass what appeared to be crates and jars of whiskey. The trio saw him and there started a race that ended several miles away when they turned onto a dirt road and escaped.
