Mrs. B. T. Falls Gives Series Of Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Falls have delightedly entertained with a series of lovely parties over the last two weeks at their home on W. Warren street.

On Tuesday evening they had as dinner guests: Dr. and Mrs. Zeno Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Eason, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Spangler, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lattimore. Again last evening their dinner guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Grover Beam, Mr. and Mrs. Cline Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner, and Miss Katherine Carpenter and Lottie Petty.

At each dinner the home was arranged with bowls and vases of red carnations and the place cards were in Valentine designs.

Regular Monthly Meeting Of D. A. R.

The Daughters of the American Revolution held their regular monthly meeting at the Woman's club room, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with Mesdames Talma Gardner, Herman Eskridge and C. L. Eskridge as hostesses. A large number of the members were present, and listened to the following interesting program: Reading of president general's message by Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, A song "Making the Place," by Miss Margaret Lee Liles, Mrs. W. P. Ingram playing her accompaniment, Mrs. Madge Webb Riley read an interesting paper on "Mary Washington," Miss Elizabeth Coleman sang two beautiful vocal selections, "Trees," by Joyce Gilmer and "Keep on Hoping," by Frank Stanton, Mrs. William McCord playing her piano accompaniment.

A short business session followed. Mrs. Fred Dean was elected a delegate to the state meeting in March at Winston-Salem.

The hostesses served a delicious salad course with accessories.

No. 1 Division Of Women's Club.

Mesdames John Mott, W. M. Roberts and F. R. Morgan were delightful hostesses to the afternoon division No. 1 of the Women's club on Thursday afternoon in their regular meeting at the club room.

Mrs. M. E. Nix was leader of the program for the afternoon and had arranged with the play production class of the Shelby high school to give the entertainment. The play "The Taming Place," by Booth Tarkington was well rendered by Misses Alice Sanders, Virginia Jenkins and Fred Martin Simmons. Miss Mary Reeves Forney, president of the dramatic association, announced the play and characters. The club members were delighted with the play and appreciated the good work of home talent.

Following the play, the hostesses served jelly-roll, sandwiches, coffee and stuffed dates. The Valentine suggestion was emphasized in the refreshments. The invited guests included Mesdames Castevens, Davis, Ray Lutz and Miss Rosalind Lee.

Encouraging Vision, Dr. Wall's Subject

"An Encouraging Vision," will be the subject of Rev. Dr. Zeno Wall, in the service of the First Baptist church, at the Central high school auditorium, Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

The Sunday school will open the services of the day at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The Bible school is growing in attendance and interest as the new quarters on the corner of N. LaFayette and Sumter streets near completion. Every member is urged to be present Sunday morning and all visitors in the city are extended a warm welcome.

Dr. Wall will use as his subject Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock, "Overcoming the World." The message will be preceded by a song service of the old familiar hymns. The eleven B. Y. P. U.'s will open their programs promptly at 6:00 o'clock. These training units extend an invitation to every member of the church desiring training for church activity.

Mr. Eason announces the following musical program for the day: Morning, 11:00 o'clock—Anthem—"Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem," by Maumder, and a mixed quartet, "Abide With Me," by Wolcott. This quartet is compilation of solos, duets and quartets. Evening, 7:00 o'clock—Anthem—"The Lord Reigneth," by Meredith, and a male quartet, "Shall I Crucify My Saviour?" Every one is given a warm invitation to be present.

The regular weekly choir rehearsal will be held this evening, 7:15 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rush Kammick, South LaFayette street.

Janelle McDaniel Is To Be Buried Today

Little Daughter Of Mr. And Mrs. E. L. McDaniel Of Near Kings Mountain Passes.

(Special to The Star.) Thursday afternoon February 7, at three o'clock the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McDaniel near Kings Mountain and claimed little Janelle, their second child as its own and on the wings of death carried her sweet spirit away to be forever at rest. She would have been three years old May 21.

Although she had been sick most of her life her parents and physicians had high hopes for her. She seemed very well and played last Sunday but some time during the night she was taken seriously ill with that fatal malady pneumonia.

She is survived by her devoted parents, who did so much for their child and tried so hard to restore her to her usual self, one little brother and sister, Dennis Anthony and Edith Evangeline. Though she had never walked to play still she will be missed by her little brother who was so attached to her. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCurry and Mr. Hoyle McDaniel, her aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends who had learned to love her, the grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of their many friends.

Funeral services are to be conducted this afternoon at three o'clock at Bethlehem Baptist church, Rev. W. G. Camp of Cherrylville, a former pastor and close friend of the family will have charge of the services.

At The Theatres

The third Fox's series of Rex Bell westerns, "The Girl-Shy Cowboy," at the Princess tomorrow brings with it the tang of the open spaces and a lulling romance that advances this production far beyond the usual run of westerns.

The story is a logical account of life in the sagebrush country without inflicting the whooping, bearded denizen of the range who for so long has monopolized western production.

The supporting cast is exceptionally good. Patsy O'Leary is seen opposite the star.

The Webb is featuring the popular western star, Ken Maynard, in his latest today and tomorrow. The picture is entitled Cheyenne. It is a film of the rodeo, "Cheyenne" is a story of the round-up and rodeo and Charles R. Rogers, producer of the Maynard series for First National pictures, sent his star and troupe to Cheyenne, Wyoming, during the truly-second Pioneer days rodeo held there. The vast mass of people seen in the grand stands at all times number over twenty thousand according to Albert Rogell, director. People from all over the United States were on hand to cheer and favorites in the trick riding, roping and various events of the arena.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY.

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by P. F. McSwain and wife, Minnie McSwain on the 7th day of June, 1927 and recorded in book 141, page 527, we will on Saturday, 23rd of February, 1929, 12 o'clock noon, at the courthouse door in Cleveland county, Shelby, N. C. sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder the following land to-wit:

Adjoining the lands of Robert Dover, Mrs. Jane E. Dover, J. B. Price, Ernest Herndon and Mrs. Wm. Jennings and Mrs. Fraidy and being lot or tract No. 1 of the J. M. Dover land as shown by the map of said tract made by A. P. Falls, surveyor, August 28, 1919, said lot or tract bounded as follows:

Beginning on an iron stake, Robert Dover's corner in the old Green Public Road; thence north 1 east 4.25 chains with said road to a stone in the road; thence south 69 east 15.20 chains with line of lot No. 5 of the said J. M. Dover land to a sour wood in J. B. Price's line; thence south 24 1/2 west 38.25 chains with the Price line to a stake in the middle of Beason creek, corner of lot or tract No. 2 of the said J. M. Dover land; thence north 73 west 31 chains with middle of said creek to a stake; thence north 77 1/2 west 5.62 chains to a stake at mouth of old channel of Buffalo; thence north 63 east 2 chains to a stake; thence north 23 east 1.30 chains to a stake; thence north 11 west 3.40 chains to a stake in old channel of Buffalo; thence north 54 1/2 east 3.82 chains to a box elder in line of tract No. 3 of the said J. M. Dover land; thence north 64 east 3.80 chains with line of tract No. 3 to a stake and pointers; thence north 84 east 10 chains to a small pine; thence north 35 east 5 chains to a stake in gulley; thence south 88 1/2 east 12.83 chains to a stake in the old Green road; thence north 29 east 3.67 chains to a stake in said road; thence north 12 1/2 east 10.10 chains to the point of beginning, containing 95.3 acres and the same being a part of the J. M. Dover land conveyed by deed from Clyde R. Hoey, commissioner, in special proceeding No. 1182 recorded in the clerk's office of superior court, Cleveland county, N. C. to Mrs. Jane E. Dover, and said commissioner's deed being of date of December 31, 1920 and recorded in book EEE, page 539 of the register's office of Cleveland county, N. C. to which deed and special proceeding reference is hereby made.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of P. F. McSwain and wife, Minnie McSwain to pay off and discharge the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust to the North Carolina Joint Stock and Land Bank of Durham.

A deposit of 10% will be required from the purchaser at the sale.

No Money In Golf.

Los Angeles.—Golf is fine for pleasure, but in the words of a grand master, Walter Hagen, it is not so good for making money. Such was his plea in asking that an agreement regarding payments to his wife be set aside. When the arrangement was made, he pleaded, he was making money in Florida really.

Sunny Greenland.

Copenhagen.—Sunny Greenland! Government advisers are that there are no snow and ice to speak of in the ice box of Europe and that there are seal hunting and fishing just like in summer.

Seeing Under Water.

Constance, Germany. — So crystal clear is the ice on Lake Constance that skaters have discovered a prehistoric pile dwelling down in the water. Even household implements were visible.

YOU CAN'T FOOL CROPS

The right fertilizer for your crops is just as important as the right food for your horse.

From the time you put seed in the ground 'til you take off your crop, the hungry roots are searching for food to sustain the crop, keep it growing, and make it mature a profitable harvest.

With plenty of Royster's quality fertilizer to feed on, those crops of yours will not be fooled, but will be well fed with the proper plant food from seed time to harvest. Because Royster's fertilizer is made from the finest materials, mixed in right proportions, aged and cured to perfect mechanical condition, ready to give you the best chance for a profitable yield. After 44 years of making profits for those who use them, Royster's are time-tested and field-tested.

You can reap the benefits of using high-quality plant food in 1929 by insisting upon Royster's. There's a Royster dealer near you.
