Mrs. Chas. Hoey Hostess To Bridge Club.
Mrs. Chas. Hoey was a delightful hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on W. Marion street.
The Valentine suggestions were emphasized in the decorations and refreshments. The high score prize was won by Mrs. Roy W. Morris and the low score prize went to Mrs. Jesse Washburn.
The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Jesse Washburn in serving a delicious salad and ice course.

Surprise Birthday Party.
The children of Mr. J. P. Smith surprised him on Sunday, his sixty-sixth birthday, by giving him a lovely dinner at his home on S. DeKalb street. The dining room table was graced with a large white birthday cake holding 66 tiny pink candles. Sharing honors with Mr. Smith were his two sons-in-law, Messrs. Reid Misenheimer and J. O. Panther, whose birthdays also came on Sunday.
An elegant picnic dinner was served to thirty. Special guests were: E. E. Smith of Gastonia and W. S. Smith of Gaffney, brothers of Mr. Smith, Mesdames T. A. Spangler, Ellen Harrelson and Dr. Zeno Wall.

F. T. A. of LaFayette School.
The Parent-Teachers association of the LaFayette street school held their meeting at the building last evening at 7:15 o'clock. Mrs. Oren Putnam, the president, presided. The prize of one dollar was presented to Miss Pearl Tweed's grade for the largest number of parents present.
Miss Evelyn Coleman led in singing community songs. The fifth grade presented a patriotic program; a three act play, "In the Days of Franklin" which showed remarkable talent and training.
Professor Griffin closed the program with a short talk, stressing the regular attendance of the pupils.

U. D. C. Meeting.
The United Daughters of the Confederacy held a most interesting meeting at the club room Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The room was attractively arranged with baskets of red roses and galax leaves.
Mrs. W. B. Nix, the president opened the meeting by reading the 15th Psalm, which was followed by the members singing the "Old North State."
Forty-two members responded to the roll call. A note of thanks was read from Miss Agnes McBrayer, principal of the Washington street school for the Confederate flag, recently presented by the daughters. It was voted to give two flags each year to schools. Two new members were presented for membership, Mesdames Henry Yeago and Maynard Washburn.
It was also voted to give five dollars to the Norman V. Randolph relief fund. Mrs. Fred Wagner had charge of the following program: A reading, "What George Think of the Movies," by Miss Carobel Love; Mrs. Wagner read a program of the Confederate reunion which will convene in Charlotte in June. Miss Mayme Roberts rendered a piano selection "Il Trovatore," by Verdi. Mrs. J. T. Gardner closed the program by reading some of the interesting happenings of the Confederate reunion which she attended at Houston, Texas.
The meeting adjourned to meet the second Tuesday of March at 3:30 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock.
The hostesses, Mesdames B. T.

Falls, J. T. Gardner, Lewis Forney, Chas. Estridge, Horace Grigg, I. C. Griffin, E. A. Houser and Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft, served ice cream cakes and nuts.

Shelby Airport On Government Chart
Raleigh.—The aeronautic section of the department of commerce of Washington has just issued graphic maps with full description of airports at Wilmington and Monroe, North Carolina. These maps may be secured at the North Carolina department of conservation and development, which co-operate with the bureau in furnishing information about aviation and its commercial aspects to those in North Carolina who are interested in this subject.
The airports in the state that have been mapped by the department of commerce and may be obtained in Raleigh include: Asheville, municipal; Charlotte, municipal; Fayetteville, Pope Field, Air Corps; Gastonia, intermediate; Goldsboro, municipal; Greensboro, municipal; Henderson, fairgrounds, auxiliary; Lexington, intermediate; Monroe, commercial; New Bern, Acme Field, commercial; Pinehurst auxiliary; Pinehurst, commercial; Raleigh, municipal; Raleigh, commercial; Reidsville, intermediate; Rockingham, commercial; Rocky Mount, commercial; Shelby, municipal; Stanley, intermediate; Tarboro, Baker Field, municipal; Wilmington, municipal; Winston-Salem municipal.

At The Theatres
The Webb is featuring today and tomorrow a picture starring five popular actors—two or three of them top liners everywhere—John Gilbert, Greta Garbo, Lewis Stone, John Mack Brown, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Dorothy Sebastian. It is seldom that a cast embodying a personnel is assembled for any production. The picture is entitled "A Woman of Affairs." This is, we understand, a cinema title for Michael Arlen's, "The Green Hat," a very popular novel. Clarence Brown, who directed "Flesh and the Devil," directed this one, and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer produced it.

Gaffney Men Held For Counterfeiting

Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 12.—Five Gaffney men will face a preliminary hearing this afternoon before Commissioner T. K. Vasey on charges of counterfeiting silver money. They are Paul and George Stepe, Carl Sprouse, Herbert Massey, and John Davenport.

Federal agents made the arrest late yesterday after discovering the plant with which the spurious money was produced by means of molds and habit metal dies for nickels, dimes, quarters, halves and dollars were included. Pieces of counterfeit money were first noticed here several weeks ago, and the amount found in circulation steadily increased. Federal agents were assigned to the case more than a week ago.

Cotton Market

(John F. Clark & Co.)
Cotton was quoted on New York exchange at noon:
March 20.00, May 20.09 Monday's close: March 19.93, May 20.09
Spot sales 5000 middling 10.40 against 10.46 Monday. Heavy demand for carded broad cloths in North street Monday, lighter business in print cloths and sheetings.
Memphis Cotton Review in Journal of Commerce reports spot cotton business slow, sales running under previous week's, dullness due to firmness of holders and lack of active buying interest by spinners but covering for second quarter shipments expected to begin shortly. New crop preparations backward. Southern weather mostly clear, temperatures in 40's. Rather expect steady markets due to large hedge short interest still outstanding.

Babe Found Crying By Body Of Mother

Asheville, Feb. 12.—A dead woman, about whose body a baby crawled, whimpering with cold, was found in the mountains three miles west of Swannanoa late last night by passerby.
Coroner's jury today found the woman's death resulted from natural causes.
The woman was Mrs. Estelle Digges, 24, wife of Carl Digges. She had been calling on a neighbor, it was disclosed at the inquest and had taken a short cut in going to her home through the mountains. She was carrying her baby and fell dead of cerebral hemorrhage, the inquest disclosed.
Mrs. Digges' body was found by Frank Lytle, negro, several hours after her death. Coroner Baker, who conducted the inquest, said The child was not found to have suffered serious effects as a result of its exposure.
