The Washington street school will give a patriotic pageant "Four Stages of American History" in their school auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All parents and friends of this school are cordially invited to come.

Marriage Announcement.
The following announcements were received this week:
"Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nolan announce the marriage of their daughter, Jane Newman, to Mr. Albert Victor Wray, Jr., on Tuesday evening, January twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, Shelby, North Carolina."

Dinner Party Given By Mrs. Richbourg.
Mrs. H. E. Richbourg gave a lovely dinner party on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at her home, on South LaFayette street, complimenting Miss Elizabeth Coleman and Mr. Eugene Smith. The table was centered with a cut glass bowl of cherries in which was placed a small cherry tree and the most attractive red hatched were used for place cards.
After dinner, progressive hearts was played at two tables. Mints and salted nuts were served through out the evening. The guests included: Misses Coleman, Lipscomb, Hardin and Mrs. Play Hamrick, Messrs. Richbourg, Smith, Eddleman, Morgan, Mimms, and Spry.

Mrs. DeWitt Quinn Entertains Ishpening Club.
Mrs. DeWitt Quinn was a cordial hostess to the members of the Ishpening club and a number of invited guests Thursday afternoon with nine tables of bridge, entertaining at her home on South DeKalb street. The high score prize was won by Miss Elizabeth McBrayer and the low score prize went to Miss Mary Crowell. The guests found their places with red hatched tallies, and the George Washington idea was further emphasized in the lovely salad course, which was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. R. Dover, Mesdames Chas. Roberts, Jack Dover and Chas. Hubbard.

A Correction As To Garden Club.
In the Wednesday's issue of The Star there appeared an error in the write-up of the meeting of the Garden club which The Star wishes to correct. Mrs. D. E. Grigg's paper which she read was on "Indoor Propagation of Seeds and Handling of Seedlings." She gave a dozen Forsythia shrubs instead of ten golden rod, as noted. These shrubs were given for planting around the public school buildings. Mrs. Grigg has one of the most varied collection of ornamental flowers and shrubbery in this section and is well versed in their planting and culture.

Afternoon Division No. 1 Meet.
The afternoon division No. 1 of the Woman's club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the club room. Mesdames John McClure, J. C. Newton, W. B. Nix and J. R. Osborne, being the hostesses. Mrs. B. A. Lefler had arranged the following entertaining program:
Song, "America," sung by the club; reading, "My Sister's Beau," by Miss Margaret Hamrick; piano solo, selected, Miss Margaret Ford; reading "Uncle Moses and His Egg," Miss Annie Ruth Dellinger.
At the close of the program the hostesses served a chicken salad course, citrus, topped with whipped cream and cherries. Tiny red hatched were on each plate, suggesting George Washington's birthday. Special guests were Mesdames Tom and William Osborne, Fred and Wilbur Baber and Mrs. Newton.

Mrs. Clyde Short Hostess.
Mrs. Clyde Short was a charming hostess to the Entree Nouse bridge club and a number of invited guests, Wednesday afternoon, entertaining at her pretty home in Belvedere. The rooms were attractively arranged with vases of pink and white carnations and each table was centered with a copy of vase of pink carnations and lace fern. Mrs. Short was assisted in receiving her guests by her little daughter, Patsy, who directed them to the cloak rooms.

The high score prize was won by Mrs. B. O. Hamrick, and also was presented with a lovely green glass rose bowl. Mrs. Horace Grigg was presented with a pottery basket for low score prize.
The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Robert Crowder, Henry Edwards, and D. Z. Newton in serving a delicious salad and ice course. The invited guests were: Mesdames John Lovelace, Everett Whisnant, Robert Crowder and Miss Mayme Roberts.

Miss Eleanor Jones Gives Valentine Party.
The home of Miss Eleanor Jones was artistically arranged with Valentine decorations Saturday evening, when Miss Jones gave a lovely Valentine party honoring the teachers of Casar school, of which she is a teacher also. Misses Ersie Dellinger, Mary D. Palmer, Bertha Arnett, Mrs. Dean Wilson, Miss Allison, Messrs. Finch and Joe Elliott. Other out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Laxton Hamrick, Miss Rollins and Laudis Ellis of Grover, and Miss Inez Whisnant and Tom Palmer of Polkville.
The guests found their places at the six card tables with beautiful Valentine tallies. At the close of the evening, Miss Jones was assisted by her sister in serving the most delicious refreshments.

Music And Arts Club Meet.
The music and arts department of the Woman's club held a most interesting meeting at the club room Wednesday afternoon, with Mesdames Rush Stroup and Earl Honeycutt as hostesses. The club room on this occasion, was arranged with ferns and potted plants.
Mrs. J. W. Harbison, the chairman, presided. A large number of the members were present. In the business session, Miss Rosalind Nix was made chairman of the program committee.
The following program was beautifully rendered on American sculpture and the opera, "The Fortune Teller":
Work of Saint Gaudens, by Mrs. Louis Gardner; work of Daniel Chester French, by Mrs. Durham Moore; story of the opera, by Miss Elizabeth Roberts; vocal solo, "My Little Gypsy Sweetheart," Mrs. Ben Suttle accompanied by Mrs. John Schenck, Jr. with violin; piano solo, selected, by Miss Mary Helen Lattimore.
The hostesses were assisted by Mesdames J. W. Harbison and Ransom Casstevens in serving congealed salad, sandwiches and Russian tea. Invited guests were: Mesdames Thad Ford, Wilbur Baber, Rein Honeycutt, O. E. Ford and O. E. McGowan.
