Methodist Circles Meet

With Mrs. J. A. Suttle.

The Bible Lineberger circle of the Methodist church entertained the members of the Fannie Thompson and Mary Lee Hudson circles, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Suttle in Belvedere. About fifty members were present and a splendid program was given by Mrs. H. K. Boyer. The subject being, "The Mother and Daughters." Those taking part were: Mesdames C. F. Sherrill, Will Lineberger, Lewis Forney and Frank Hoyle. Following the program, an interesting contest was given, each member writing a rhyme about, "The Daughter." The committee decided Mrs. J. O. Lutz had written the best. A social half hour was spent and delicious refreshments were served by Miss Betty Suttle, Mesdames Will Lineberger and Lewis Forney.

General Meeting

Of Woman's Missionary Society.

A large number of the women of the First Baptist church attended the general meeting of the Missionary societies of the church, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the club room, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. B. Nix. It was agreed to pay the expenses of a delegate to this convention. After several business affairs were discussed, the meeting was turned over to the Little Botic circle, which gave the program. Mrs. Lettie M. Bowling leading. The subject for the afternoon was "The Progress of the Negro Race." Those taking part were: Mesdames W. F. Davis, B. T. Falls and Miss Ollie Hamrick. Mrs. Grady Lovelace sang a spiritual, "Steal Away." Mrs. Nix playing her piano accompaniment. The meeting was closed with a vocal duet, "Shepherds of Love," sung by Mrs. Zeno Wall and Miss Pearl Tweed.

Arndt-Cline Wedding

In Catawba County.

A pretty home wedding of interest to many throughout this section of the state occurred Saturday evening, March 2, at seven o'clock at Hillcrest, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cline in Catawba county, when their daughter, Sarah Marie, was united in marriage with Eubert Allen Arndt in the presence of a small group of relatives of the young couple. The vows were administered by Rev. John Cline, brother of the bride, using the impressive ring ceremony of the Methodist church.

The spacious music room was attractively decorated in a color scheme of green and white with trailing ivy, smilax, and many potted plants. Tall ivory candelabra crowned the improvised wedding altar and shed a soft lustre over the entire scene.

Immediately prior to the ceremony Miss Sue Cline, sister of the bride, at the piano played feelingly "Thine Own" and sang, with her own accompaniment, "I Love You Truly." Then to the familiar strains of the bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" the bride and groom entered the room together. During the ceremony Schubert's "Serenade" was softly played. The bride, a lovely blonde, was beautifully gowned in powder blue crepe with blonde accessories and wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as the recessional.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party and their guests were served refreshments in the dining room, where the same decorative scheme had been used. In the center of the table was the magnificent frosted bride's cake, on top of which beneath a suspended wedding bell stood a miniature bride and groom. After refreshments the cake was cut by the bride and the others in turn with much merriment and social interest. Soon afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Arndt departed on their wedding tour to various places of interest. After several weeks they will be at their home in Claremont.

The bride, a very popular Catawba county girl, was educated at the University of North Carolina and for several years has been a teacher in the Catawba and Lincoln county schools.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Arndt of Claremont and a progressive young farmer and business man of Catawba county.

Among the guests present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cline and Miss Sue Cline of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moseley and children of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. F. P. Sullivan and son, of Chicago, Ill.; Rev. and Mrs. John Cline and children of Troutman; Miss Madge Cline of Davenport college; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Arndt of Claremont; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Arndt and son and Mr. and H. L. Arndt of Newton; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Arndt of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Miller and daughter of Salisbury; Mesdames Martha Linnie Arndt Elizabeth Arndt and Marie Arndt of Claremont; Mrs. Eugene Arndt of Claremont; Miss Helen Harvater of Cnover and Mr. Clarence Hood of Mt. Holly.

P. T. A. Meet

Postponed.

The P. T. A. of LaFayette street school scheduled to meet Tuesday night has been postponed to Thursday night at 7:15 o'clock.

Postpone

Dinner.

The Woman's club annual dinner scheduled to be held on Friday, March 8, at the new Hotel Charles dining room has been postponed according to Mrs. Fred R. Morgan, head of the club. The date of the dinner will be announced later.

Miss Upshaw

Hostess To Book Club.

Miss Ora Upshaw was a delightful hostess to the members of the Contemporary Book club Tuesday afternoon, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Ceph Blanton on Graham street. Mrs. Roy W. Morris gave current events. Mrs. Clyde Hoey, Jr., of Canton, a former member of the club gave an interesting review of the new books she had read this winter. A short business meeting followed after which Miss Upshaw was assisted by Miss Grace Reed in serving a salad course and coffee.

Mrs. Hugh Mauney

Hostess To Mothers Club.

Mrs. Hugh Mauney honored the members of the Mothers club with a lovely bridge party Tuesday afternoon at her home on North LaFayette street. The rooms where the card tables were placed, were beautifully arranged with St. Patrick decorations. Each of the bridge tables were centered with green glass vases holding white carnations and lace fern. Little Miss Patsy Mauney assisted her mother in receiving her guests and passed the St. Patrick tallies.

The high score prize was won by Mrs. Roland Elam, a green glass nut dish, and the low score prize, a bottle of perfume was presented to Mrs. Fred Baber.

The hostess was assisted by Mesdames R. Casstevens, Boyce Mauney, Carlos Grigg, and Ed Post in serving a chicken salad and ice course. The St. Patrick idea was cleverly emphasized in the refreshments also. Besides the club members the guests included: Mesdames Paul Wellmon, Otto Long, R. Casstevens, Ed Post, R. L. Armour, John Mull, Jack Palmer, Boyce Mauney and Miss Agnes McBride, Jr.

D. A. R.

Meeting.

Mesdames Fred Dean, T. W. Ebeltoft, G. P. Hamrick, J. R. Dover, and Miss Ollie Hamrick were joint hostesses to the members of the Benjamin Cleveland chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Tuesday afternoon, entertaining at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dover on South Washington street. The ritual was led by the regent, Mrs. Ceph Blanton and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. A salute to the flag was given after which Mr. Horace Eason sang a group of songs: "Out Where the West Begins," "Spring Song," "Keep on Hoping," "Two Robbins," and "Little Mother O Mine." Mrs. Plaster playing her piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Frank Hoey read president general's message. Mrs. Lamar Gidney read a sketch of the life of Thomas Jefferson. Mrs. Harry Speck read a paper on "The Defense of Patriotism." The program was closed by Mrs. Fred Dean telling in a very interesting manner of her visit to the Thomas Jefferson home near Charlottesville, Virginia. A short business meeting followed and the regent read a number of letters which were acted upon and also several committees were appointed. At the close of the meeting the hostesses served pretty plates of frozen salad, sandwiches, coffee and white and green mints. The St. Patrick motif being beautifully emphasized.

The invited guests included Mr. Eason, Mrs. H. S. Plaster, Mrs. B.

King Creek Girl Has Never Missed A Day At School

Rock Hill—Miss Elma Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Love of Kings Creek, York county, claims the distinction of never having missed a day from school in her life. She is this year a senior in the Hickory Grove high school.

Although she entered school at Kings Creek, the district schools were consolidated and she has been going to Hickory Grove, eight miles from her home, several years. So now she negotiates the distance in the school bus.

Bus Breaks Down.

Of course, sometimes the bus gets out of order while enroute. At such times the young girl summons her own resources and catches a ride or walks the distance, leaving most of her companions to return to their homes and miss the session.

Last fall the school bus in which she was traveling was wrecked and Elma was among those most seriously injured. Because the extent of her injuries was not fully determined by physicians at that time, her teacher suggested that she return home and miss the day at school—but no. The girl insisted on remaining through the chapel period when the roll was called, so as to be marked present. She was then hurried home and placed under a physician's care. Despite the fact that her back was painfully sprained, she was on hand the next morning again when the roll was called.

"It's easy if you never get started to staying out of school," Elma explains, "I believe if I ever missed a day I wouldn't care whether I ever went back. But I'd just hate to miss the first day."

The many friends of Mr. W. W. Richard will be glad to learn that he is improving some.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEES' SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust bearing date of April 15, 1921, and now of record in the office of the register of deeds for Cleveland county, N. C., in book of mortgages No. 104, at page 310, et seq., and executed by E. C. Carpenter and wife, Emma Carpenter, to Andrew D. Christian and O. M. Mull, trustees, to secure an indebtedness of two thousand dollars ($2,000); and default having been made in the payment thereof, and having been requested by the holder of said indebtedness to foreclose, we, as trustees, will sell at public auction for cash, to the highest bidder, at the courthouse door in Shelby, N. C., at twelve o'clock, noon, on Saturday, March 30, 1929, the following described real estate encumbered by said deed of trust, in order to secure funds with which to satisfy said indebtedness, to wit:

The following real estate lying and being in No. 6 township, Cleveland county, N. C. about four miles north of the town of Shelby, adjoining the lands of John F. Cline, George E. Sperling and others.

Beginning at the northwest corner of said tract at a stake or stone, the same being the lands of John F. Cline, and running thence south 33° east, with line of John F. Cline, ten chains to a stone in road, George Sperling's corner; thence with the line of George Sperling south 28° east 18.69 chains to a stone, Sperling's corner; thence with Sperling's line south 22° east 5.81 chains to a stone, Ed Grigg's corner in Sperling's line; thence north 59° east, 15.75 chains with Ed Grigg's line to a stone, his corner. In John F. Cline's line; thence with John F. Cline's line north 27° west, 33.65 chains to a stone and pointers, John F. Cline's corner; thence south 58° west 13.77 chains with John F. Cline's line to a stake and pointers, his corner; thence north 86° west 3 chains with John F. Cline's line to the beginning; containing fifty (50) acres, more or less, and being the north end of that sixty acre tract of land devised to Emma Hord (now Emma Carpenter) one of the parties of the first part in said deed of trust, by Martin Cornwell by his last will and testament which is now of record in the office of the clerk of the superior court of Cleveland county, N. C., in book of wills No. 2 at page 538, to which will and record reference is made for further description and identification of same.

This 27th day of February, 1929.

Reciters Contest Moorsboro School

June Evelyn Blanton Winner. Play To Be Given Thursday March 14.

(Special to The Star.)

On Monday evening February 25, the girls recitation contest was held at Moorsboro school auditorium. Eight young ladies of early teen age competed for the medal given by Mr. Z. W. Greene to the best reciter. June Evelyn Blanton was the winner with Mildred Greene getting second place of honor. As June Evelyn Blanton was not a member of the high school department, she was barred from entering the Selma Webb contest at Shelby. Mildred Greene was permitted to represent the school at Shelby on Friday, Feb. 1, the date of the Selma Webb contest.

On last evening, Monday March 4, eight young boys of Moorsboro school exercised their oratorical powers in a declamation contest. A medal was conferred upon the best declaimer. The medal was given by Prof. M. G. Latham, the principal of the school. Marion Packard won first honor, R. M. Latham was awarded second place and Howard Rollins third place.

A large audience was present at both of these contests and much good in the way of training in public speaking is being accomplished by such exercises.

There will be a play given at Moorsboro school auditorium on Thursday morning March 14, at 7:45 o'clock. The title of this very interesting play is "Mamma's Lil Wild Rose." It contains one of the best love plots that can be found in comedy plays for amateurs. Uncle Joe and Aunt Cello do the Virginia colored parts to perfection. Much preparation is being made in getting ready for this entertainment and the public is assured an evening of wholesome recreation and fun.
