At The Theatres

William Boyd in "Leatherneck"—a Pathe picture of the first rank—is the Webb feature today and tomorrow. It is an epic of three fighting marines in the colorful orient. Says the press sheet:

A compelling story woven into an entertaining pattern of poignant romance, thrilling adventure, natural humor and fine heart appeal—A one hundred percent American star in a one hundred percent American picture.

The Princess theatre second all-talkie is on for a two day run, Friday and Saturday. It is the much advertised and much boosted "The Lone Wolf's Daughter," which has made one of the biggest screen hits of the year.

Bert Lytell, Gertrude Olmstead, and Lilyan Tashman compose the starring trio. The picture is thoroughly modern, using the new discovery, television, to solve a baffling mystery. And it also reveals what is known as the twentieth century method of love making. A picture of great dramatic power. It will give you the thrill of your theatre going life.

Cotton Market

(By John F. Clark and Co.)

Cotton was quoted at noon today on New York exchange: March 21-28, October 20-27. Yesterday's close: March 21-16; October 20-39.

Spot sales 6000 Mid 1112. Fair business in Worth street. Prices firm. Southern weather clear but showers are forecast for Georgia and Carolinas tomorrow. Gossip after the close was that there is apparently a strong bull pool operating in cotton, in the Livermore interest, in the May deliveries. General Motors people as being back on the buying. Favor long side on any little reaction. CLEVELAND.

The Thirp.

From The Monroe Journal. — We have always felt the need of some bad name to call one who eats raw onions, and now, thanks to the bugologists of Texas, we have it. You are a thirp, that's what you are. The thirps are eating up the onion crop in Texas and the bugologists are bringing over armies of lady bugs from Colorado to eat up the thirps. Still, we can't understand how any bug that would eat a thirp could be a lady.

Unemployment Day.

Berlin.—There were 2,300,000 unemployed in Germany on February 15, an increase of 50,000 since the end of January, official figures showed. The communists have designated an "unemployment day" throughout Germany, claiming that there are over 3,000,000 unemployed and another million employed only part time.

The Great Sahara. — Rolling lazily in the amber depths of a marini, with a laudacious pigment eye at the anchovy colored voluptuously on top of the toast and cavalier appetizer. Cracked ice will be banded from the drawing-room, where once it soothed the feverish larynx of the congressman, to the hospital, where it will once more allay the pain of the sick.

WEBB THEATRE Today and Tomorrow

Coming Next Week: Douglas Fairbanks and Greta Garbo.
