Around Our Town
WITH RENN DRUM
Shelby Sidelights

SOME OF THE FELLOWS about town opposed to any revision of the city charter are getting a chuckle out of the matter.

As those who have read the proposed changes know, one paragraph would change the municipal election day from Monday to Tuesday.
A reason advanced for this change is that by having the election on Tuesday the likelihood of "politicking" on Sunday would be lessened, and the men who framed the charter proposals to put a curb on Sunday "politicking" met, it is said, on a Sunday afternoon.

WEDNESDAY THIS DEPART-MENT referred to the many new streets springing up about Shelby, and casually referred to the new street which joins the east 8 1/2 street extension and the Cleveland Springs. "So far as we know," we wrote, "the street has not been named."

Yesterday the telephone rang.
"Why don't you wake up," came the voice. "That street you're talking about was named before the first house was completed, and it was named for the man who is building up the street—D. H.
Cline."

So we have a Cline street in Shelby. Thank you, Clerk Cul-berth. That is, if it was your voice.

THE NEW PASTIME ABOUT Shelby: Looking through the new city directory to see if your name is listed, and spelled correctly, which some of them are not.

SEEING AS HOW SHELBY HAD hoped to get a member of the cabinet had Mr. Smith been elected instead of President Hoover the following paragraph from the Monroe Journal may be of interest:
"About the time the campaign was closing up Charlotte seemed to be expecting to get at least two members in Mr.
Hoover's cabinet. And in the wind-up Charlotte gets the same number that Monroe and Wadesboro get."

JUST AS A MATTER OF PASS-ING NOTICE, Clarence Mull, the bank cashier, is listed in the new city directory as a barber. Perhaps that's because a lot of us fellows do have a close shave with our checking accounts along at the end of the month.

SCOUT COUNCIL OF
DISTRICT IN MEET

Dinner Served At Isothermal.
Cleveland County Men Attending Gathering.

(Special to The Star.) Rutherfordton, March 6.—The executive board of the Piedmont council, Boy Scouts of America, held its bi-monthly meeting in the Iso-Thermal hotel here Tuesday night, with twenty-five officials from Gaston, Lincoln, Cleveland, Polk and Rutherford counties in attendance.

Reports of the various officials were made which showed that the status of boy scouting in the Piedmont council is on a firm basis, and that 1929 is likely to show a great improvement in the work and further extension of the movement in the five counties of the council.

The meeting opened at 6:30 with dinner. President J. W. Atkins, managing editor of the Gastonia Gazette, of Gastonia, presided.
Scout Executive R. M. Schiele read the minutes of the January meeting and gave a report for the treasurer, which indicated that the financial condition of the council is in fair shape at the present. The report of Executive Schiele showed that the counties are well organized at present, with five troops organized since January and two troops under organization. He also commended highly the good work of the newspapers in the council for the favorable publicity given the scout work. Fourteen troops are already registered for camp said Mr. Schiele.

LONG TERMER WILL DRIVE FOR GOVERNOR

Raleigh, March 6.—Robert Separk long time prisoner who has made "A" grade, will be Governor Gardner's chauffeur during the probation of Hugh, the mansion driver, who is under 30-day suspension.

Hugh, who has driven Governors Morrison, McLean, and Gardner a mileage several times belting the globe, swore violently at the Cadillac place of business last week, according to reports to Governor Gardner, and narrowly missed incitement of a race battle. The factotum of the governor resented the repair work on the machine which bucked in the middle of the street and refused to go when Mrs.
Gardner and her companion called on it. Governor Gardner after investigation suspended Hugh and the state prison sent over Separk.

The boy has great blood in his veins, is related to great manufacturers and industrial leaders. He was sent to prison on his submission to a charge of involuntary homicide in that a companion was killed. "Mighty Forsythe," on a bootlegging expedition. The young fellow has made a fine prison record and won back a portion of his freedom. He will drive the governor the next 30 days.

The worst of it is the authority at the docks always seems to think like you.—Detroit News.

Ford Will Make Ten Thousand Cars A Day

Motor Magnate Ends Vacation And Returns Home To Increase Output.

Fort Myers, Fla.—Henry Ford, refreshed by a month's "working vacation" at his winter estate adjoining that of his old friend, Thomas A. Edison, started back to Dearborn, Mich.

Mr. Edison is rapidly solving the "rubber problem." Mr. Ford told newspapermen before leaving. "It is difficult to say just when he will complete his task of finding a plant capable of producing a rubber supply in this country, but I have confidence that he will succeed."

Mr. Ford returned to Dearborn with the announced intention of speeding up production of his factories for an output of 10,000 cars a day before the end of the year.
He said about 7,000 cars are being manufactured daily at the present time.
