MRS. ROBT. LACKEY PASSES AT AGE 85

Widow Of Robert Lackey Dies At Home Of Henry Gantt. Buried At Friendship Church.

(Special to The Star.) On Saturday morning February 16 as the light of a new day was dawning, the Death Angel entered the home of Mr. Henry Gantt and took one of its beloved members from an earthly home to a heavenly home not made with hands.

Mrs. Lackey before marriage was Miss Effie Self. She was born September 4, 1843 and died February 16, 1929. She had been seriously ill for two weeks and all was done for her to restore her to health but to no avail.

She professed faith in Christ early in life and since lived a beautiful life. She was one of the most beloved women of her community. She was the second wife of Robert Lackey who preceded her to the grave 17 years ago.

When she went into the family of step children she was kind and loving and they loved her deeply.

The funeral was conducted by her pastor Rev. J. M. Morgan, assisted by Rev. J. W. Fitzgerald at Friendship M. P. church.

Surviving are one half brother, Mr. Andy Self of Cherryville; four stepsons, Mr. R. A. and Hoke Lackey of Fallston, and H. H. and James Lackey of Chase City, Va.

The pallbearers were: Dr. A. A. Lackey, Lee A. Gantt, J. B. Leatherman, Moton Earwood, C. D. Willis, Cleo Randall. Serving as flower girls: Misses Callie Gantt, Josephine Gantt, Dollie Gantt, Lorene Tillman, Wilmer Tillman, Miss Annie Mae Lackey.

For Mayor. I hereby announce my candidacy for Mayor of the City of Shelby, and pledge the citizens of the community that if I am elected I will endeavor to perform my duties impartially and give the people the very best services of which I am capable.
