

Officer Ware Has Tough Auto Luck

Rutherfordton. — Deputies Yates Duncan, George F. Green, Calvin Hardin and J. W. Marlowe chased a roadster from Hickory from near Spindale to Alexander Mills, about eight miles, and captured Luther Teague and Ralph Townsend, both of Hickory.

The officers had to make over 70 miles per hour on highway No. 20 to overtake the men, who were throwing out bottles and jugs. The prisoners are held in the sum of $500 each and will be tried next Monday before the county recorder. The captured car is being held. Officers think they have captured some of the runners who has been hauling whiskey into this county for some time.

What Constitutes Greatness?

Williamston Enterprise.

"First Citizen of Atlanta Is Dead," is the headlines in a newspaper this week, in speaking of the death of Asa G. Candler, the coca-cola king. About the same day some newspaper expressed the opinion that a special escort should be delegated to meet John D. Rockefeller at the gates of heaven and extend to him a royal welcome.

We offer no criticism of either Mr. Candler or Mr. Rockefeller, but we do regret to see the newspaper miss the proper conception of greatness. It may be that the world is worse on account of the life of Asa G. Candler. What great thing has he done other than to amass a fortune on something that has never improved the state of man's mind nor the strength of his body? He put a fad before the people and they fell for it and made him rich. He, of course, did make some valuable gifts.

As for Mr. Rockefeller, he is perhaps as good, and may be better, than the average man. He has amassed a vast fortune on big profits, possibly no bigger than others would have, but he has run over many small competitors who were unable to withstand his iron hand and heavy heel. He has given many millions for the good of man, but when the newspapers hope that he will receive special recognition in heaven for his wealth, we think it is going a bit too far. In fact, the papers must have been thinking of legislative lobbies when they suggested special praise and recognition of wealth.

APPALACHIAN SUMMER SCHOOLS OPENS JUNE 11

The Appalachian State Normal school, Boone, N. C. is announcing its summer school to begin June 11. This school enrolled 1354 students last summer. Board is $27 and the registration fee $5, for a six weeks term. This institution is accessibly located in one of our finest mountain towns. (adv.)

AN EXTRA

Is not needed to remind you that the announcement of the engagement of Col. Chas. Lindberg to Miss Ann Morrow is of ten times more interest than whether President Hoover caught a tad-pole or a tarpon on his recent fishing trip.

Also there's no extra needed to advise you that SINCLAIR GAS and OPALINE OIL reputation is never violated by any element of inferiority. The minute you use these products you will recognize the excellency that has built their reputation.

LADY'S SUFFERING

She Writes That "A Friend Told Me To Take Cardui and I Know It Helped Me."

Greenville, Miss.—In describing how she suffered several years ago, Mrs. Mattie Dalton, of 213 Walnut Street, this city, recently wrote:

"I would cramp, and my hands and feet would draw, so I came near having convulsions. I would have to stay in bed a week, and when I would get up, I just dragged around, and did not feel like doing my work. I suffered a great deal with my back.

"A friend came to see me and saw how I suffered. She told me to try taking Cardui, which I did. I seemed to have more strength, after my first bottle. After I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I saw a great improvement.

"I quit having such bad spells, and was stronger and better than in a long time. I gained in weight. I took a few more bottles of Cardui, and felt so well that I quit taking it.

"I certainly can recommend Cardui, for I know what it is to suffer, and I know that Cardui helped me."

Thousands of women have written to tell of the benefit Cardui has been to them, in helping them to build up their health.

AUTOS WITHOUT CUTOOTS ARE FLAYED IN SHELBY

To the Editor:

Have you ever been awakened about three o'clock in the morning with the noise of six cylinder motor roaring away with an open muffler? Or a car speeding by with cut-out open? Then if you have you can appreciate how I feel every morning.

This morning coming to work there were no less than five cars dashing by me with open cut-out, some of them making a terrific speed right through the heart of town. One of them dashed by the corner of Washington and Warren and missed the light entirely.

JOHN DOE.

Albert McCorken, of Dublin, who died at 89, had taught Sunday school for 68 years.

Among the cities that are shooting up is Chicago.—American Lumberman.
