LATTIMORE BATCH COMMUNITY NEWS

Showers For Miss Pound. Mr. Lee Building New Residence. Commencement Dates.

(Special to The Star)

Lattimore, May 2.—The girls of the home economics class assisted by Mesdames Ivey Willis and John Blanton gave a miscellaneous shower Thursday afternoon in the home economics room at the school building honoring Miss Kathleen Pound, the home economics teacher, who is to be married at an early date. The room was beautifully arranged with large vases and bowls of spring flowers. Miss Bertie Lee-Threat welcomed the guests at the door. Miss Grace Walker had charge of the register.

The guests were then directed to where delicious punch was being served by Miss Alice Walker. Pencils and paper were passed around and each guest asked to give advice on "How to Hold a Husband." Much fun resulted when the papers were collected and read by Miss Pound. At the close of the contest little Miss Martha Ann Walker dressed as a bride and Master Buster Blanton dressed as a groom came in pulling a gaily decorated wagon loaded with gifts for the bride-to-be. Many beautiful presents were received and after being unwrapped, they were passed around for the guests to see.

The girls assisting in serving delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were Misses Elizabeth Hewitt, Beatrix Blanton, Mary Ruth Walker and Pearl Harrill.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Crowder had as their dinner guests last Sunday Prof. and Mrs. V. C. Taylor and children, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Toms and son, George.

Mrs. C. I. Putnam of Bolling Springs was the guest of Mrs. Lawton Blanton Tuesday.

Miss Katherine Herman of Newton was the week-end guest of Miss Mada Wilson.

Miss Kathleen Pound and the girls of the home economic class with a few invited guests enjoyed a wicker roast at Pineview lake Thursday evening.

The many friends of Mrs. Phoebe Hamrick are glad to know she is getting along nicely at the Shelby hospital after undergoing a serious operation.

Little Miss Geraldine and Master Bill Blanton are spending several days with their aunt Mrs. C. I. Putnam of Bolling Springs.

Mr. Howard Hamrick has had his home remodelled. Two new rooms and porches were added which has given it an attractive appearance.

The handsome brick home being erected by Mr. N. B. Lee is nearing completion. When finished it will be one of the most modern equipped homes in this section.

Commencement programs are on this week. Last night a beautiful operetta composed of 500 children in costume was presented. Tonight the music department will give a recital.

Dr. J. B. Davis president of Bolling Springs junior college will deliver an address Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

Graduation exercises in the afternoon followed by the senior play at 8 p. m.

Miss Jones Elected To B. Spgs. Faculty

Miss Willie D. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jones of South LaFayette street has been selected as teacher and physical education director at Bolling Springs junior college for the coming year. Miss Jones is a graduate of Fassifern school for girls at Hendersonville, and North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro, where she received her BSPE degree last spring.

A Recipe That Fits.

Rockingham Post-Dispatch.

We have in North Carolina a famous recipe for the preparation of carp. There is required a piece of blank—any kind will do. The fish having been prepared for the oven is lined with a few strips of bacon, salted and peppered, laid upon the plank on its side—and baked rather slowly until it is well browned.

Then you throw away the fish and eat the plank.
