COURT GIVES PIGS RIGHT OVER AUTO IN CONNECTICUT

New Haven, Conn.—Little pigs may hog the highways with impunity following a decision of Judge Walter M. Pickett in common pleas court today.

John Blondi swung his truck off the road recently in order not to kill a number of young porkers crossing in front of him. His car struck a tree and was damaged to the extent of $2,000.

He sued the owner of the pigs, but the court ruled the piggies had the right of way and entered judgment of non-suit.

The best qualified Boy Scouts in Western North Carolina who will be chosen this week to represent their respective troops in the Great Smoky Mountains expedition contest will win a wonderful trip to Charlotte even if they lose out in the expedition competition.

The troop representatives not selected for the expedition will be sent to Charlotte for Boy Scout duty during the Confederate reunion, June 4-7, Scout Executive A. W. Allen has announced.

The scout organization will send 65 picked boys to the Confederate reunion and all the troop winners in the expedition will be chosen for this free trip.

Next week the 55 boys representing troops in 14 Western North Carolina counties will compete for district honors in the expedition contest. Western North Carolina has been divided into five districts for this contest and the two best qualified boys from each district will be sent to Asheville May 17-18 to compete in the final elimination for the expedition trip.

The first prize winner in the district contest will represent the scout organization on the expedition trip. The second prize winner will be awarded a gold medal and the third prize winner will receive a silver medal. The other seven boys will be awarded bronze medals for winning district honors.

The 55 troop winners will also receive prizes in addition to the Charlotte trip. These awards will be made by The Asheville Times, sponsor of the expedition.

Gov. O. Max Gardner, Senator F. M. Simmons, members of the North Carolina and Tennessee park commissions various civic organizations and numerous outdoor sportsmen have written letters endorsing and commending the Great Smokies expedition. The purpose of this expedition is to "discover" the national park area for the general public and give the park and Western North Carolina national publicity. COULDN'T SLEEP

Louisiana Lady States That The First Bottle of Cardui She Took, Helped Her.

Montgomery, La.—"I was in a dreadfully run-down condition," says Mrs. Charles L. Lacroix, of this city. "I suffered a great deal of pain. I was in misery all over. I could not sit up and I could not lie down. I couldn't sleep and at times I would have dreadful vomiting spells. The aches and pains seemed to cover my whole body."

"I had taken Cardui, off and on, since 1903. It had always done me good, so when I got in this bad condition, I thought I would take it again."

"One night, my husband brought me home six bottles of Cardui and I began to take it. I could tell that I was improving from the first bottle, but I kept on taking the medicine, for I knew that I needed a tonic that would build me up and strengthen me where I was weak and run-down. That is exactly what Cardui did for me. After I had finished the sixth bottle I felt fine. I feel truly thankful for what Cardui has done for me, for I could not have gone on living in the desperate condition I was in."

Cardui is a harmless extract of valuable, medicinal herbs, and acts as a strengthening tonic. NC-200

APPRECIATES SUPPORT FOR ALDERMAN IN WARD ONE

To the Editor of The Star: I wish to take this opportunity to thank those who voted for me for alderman in ward one at the recent election. I sincerely appreciate the liberal support given me, and am deeply grateful to each and everyone who voted for me. When I entered my name as a candidate for alderman I was under the impression that the man who received the highest vote would be declared elected, and had no idea that my entrance into the race would cause a second election.

Respectfully, BOYCE DELLINGER.

The Rural Homes.

From The Spartanburg Journal. Nothing is more inviting to the eye on a motor journey on any road in the country than to encounter improved, inviting, attractive rural homes. And they are to be found in abundance in Spartanburg county. Not only are there many such homes, but many have city conveniences, such as hot and cold running water, bath and sewerage systems, screening, electric power for lights and other purposes, and every modern convenience save gas. And these improved rural homes are on the increase. The county home demonstration department is working on this big constructive program. Another contest is staged for each township in the county, and the results will be reflected in every section, regardless of the winners.
