THE NEW MODELS OF MAJESTIC RADIOS ARE HERE

All manufacturers admit now that Majestic was a year ahead of them last year. Now Majestic comes out with a new idea in Radio which was not shown at the recent Radio Show in Chicago, and all the manufacturers are still guessing. They know Majestic will still be leading.

These sets are now on display at our store and are the last word in Radio.

So many claims are made these days for just any kind of Radio that you will have to see this to fully appreciate what it is.

ABSOLUTELY NEW IN EVERY PARTICULAR.

NOW SHOWING—AT

Which reminds this newspaper that he advertised more in these columns this current month than ever before.

At The Theatres

"New Year's Eve," a hot special of high life, with Mary Astor and Charles Morton, is the Princess' bill for today and tomorrow. With the special comes something new in the way of Pathe news in sound, and the Pathe review, also in sound. Plus a spiky Vitaphone act. In other words, this is a four feature bill, and a peach all through. The press sheet describes "New Year's Eve" as a piece played in gingham instead of fig leaves. It is a Fox.

"Where East is East" starring the popular favorite, Lon Chaney, with Estelle Taylor and Lupe Velez, is the Webb feature today and tomorrow. Lloyd Hughes' name is also amongst the players of this popular piece. It will be Shelby's first opportunity to "hear" Lon Chaney, as this is a Vitaphone picture. This is a tropic romance, directed by none other than Tod Browning. Melvyn Goldwyn-Mayer are the producers.
