

Specials
FOR MONTH-END SELLING AT McNeely's

ONE GROUP OF
125 DRESSES Famous makes (Co-Eds and Others,) beautiful quality materials—marked special for month-end selling at $9.75

New Shipment Of CARTER'S BLOOMERS

Month-end selling price
$1.00

MILLINERY

Big assortment of beautiful straws, marked very special for month-end selling at $3.95

Visit our store and you will find one of the most complete lines of Ladies' Wearing Apparel to select from. And you can always feel sure of the style and quality.

J. C. McNEELY CO.

SOCIETY
News

MISS MAYME ROBERTS—Social Editor—Phone 256.
News Items Telephoned Miss Roberts Will Be Appreciated.

Miss Lefler Gives Informal Dance.
Miss Mary Virginia Lefler delightfully entertained last night at her home in Cleveland Springs Estates, with an informal dance, honoring her house guests. Miss Gertrude Bryan of Anderson, S. C. and Miss Juanita Lefler of Newberry, S. C.

Earl-Blanton Wedding.
A wedding of much interest to the many friends of Cleveland county was that of Miss Agnes Blanton of Earl and Mr. Darwin Earl of Grover, which took place at Gaffney, S. C., Sunday morning, June 23, at 11 o'clock, in the presence of only two friends, Mr. Charlie Martin and Miss Ruby Bridges. The bride was beautifully dressed in blue crepe with accessories to match. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Blanton, while the groom is the promising son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Earl. Shortly after the wedding the young couple left for a motor trip through South Carolina and other points. After July the first they will make their home at Grover. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Miss Eskridge Honors Miss Whisnant.
Miss Martha Eskridge delightfully entertained last evening at her home on W. Marion street with a lovely bridge party and informal dance, honoring Miss Hope Whisnant of Charlotte, guest of Miss Dorothy King.

Miss Eskridge received her guests in a blue georgette evening gown and Miss Whisnant, the honoree, wore black and white taffeta. This handsome home was decorated with quantities of mixed summer flowers. The guests were also entertained with moving pictures of the high school senior class and other beautiful scenes. At the close of the evening Miss Eskridge was assisted by her mother in serving a delicious ice course. There were 30 guests present.

Long-Cash Announcement.
The following announcement came as a surprise to the many friends of Miss Edward Odine Cash of Shelby, when she became the bride of Robert Vernon Long of Columbus, Ga., Saturday, June 22, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. H. R. Dudley officiating. The young couple left for a bridal trip to points in Alabama and Florida. On their return they will be at home to their friends on upper Second avenue, Columbus, Ga.

Mrs. Long is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cash. And is a young lady of many personal charms. Mr. Long is the son of Mrs. Ada Long, of Columbus, Ga. and is a young man of many sterling qualities. He holds a responsible position with the Brown Electrical company.

Mrs. Ladd Hamrick Gives Luncheon.
Mrs. Ladd Hamrick delightfully entertained with a luncheon at her attractive home at Boiling Springs Monday, honoring her house guests, Mrs. Clark H. Broward of Atlanta and Mrs. O. Max Gardner of Raleigh.

The rooms and tables were beautifully arranged with shasta daisies, gladioli and other lovely summer flowers. Mrs. Hamrick presented each of her honorees with lovely gifts and also Mrs. O. M. Gardner the high score prize and Mrs. Grady Lovelace the low score prize. A delightful four course luncheon was served to the following guests, Mesdames Gardner, Broward, Deck Wilson, of Rutherfordton, Robert Doggett, Tom Moore, C. B. Suttle, Jr., Pitt Beam, Rush Hamrick, Aaron Quinn, Grady Lovelace, Misses Charline and Janie Stamey of Fallston and Miss Elizabeth McBrayer.

Miss Switzer Honors Visitor.
Miss Mary Brandt Switzer charmingly entertained with bridge Tuesday morning at her home in Belvedere Park at 10:30 o'clock, honoring her guest, Miss Janie Secret of Monroe, who wore a rose beige morning costume and Miss Switzer wore a blue georgette ensemble.

The rooms and tables were profusely decorated with nasturtiums and shasta daisies. Sharing honors with Miss Secret were Miss Helen Campbell, of Columbus, Ga., guest of Miss Katherine Dover and Misses Mary Peabody and Louise Bailey of Atlanta, who were each presented with honor gifts. The high score prize was won by Miss Frances Whisnant and the booby prize to Miss Campbell. Miss Switzer was assisted by her mother, Mrs.

E. T. Switzer, Miss Margaret Blanton and Miss Rebecca Switzer in serving creamed chicken sandwiches and punch, followed by an ice course. The guests included: Misses Secret, Peabody, Bailey, Katherine Dover, Betty Suttle, Minnie Eddies Roberts, Betty Suttle, Olive Singleton, Helen Campbell, Margaret Blanton, Dorothy McKnight, Montrose Mull, Kathleen Hord, Frances Whisnant, Virginia Hoy, Virginia Hamrick, Mesdames Gene Burgess, Hugh Miller and Randolph Logan.

Beam-Clary Wedding.
Miss Carnell Clary and Mr. Edwin Aubrey Beam were quietly married Tuesday morning at the First Baptist church at 9 o'clock. Dr. Zeno Wall officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony. Only the members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends being present. The bride who is a pretty and attractive young lady, wore old blue flat crepe, with hat and accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of brides roses and valley lilies.

The groom is the fourth son of Mr. D. A. Beam and is connected in business with his father. Mr. and Mrs. Beam left immediately after the ceremony by motor for a trip to Wrightsville Beach and on their return will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood on 415 N. Washington street. The following announcements have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Clary announce the marriage of their daughter, Carnell, to Edwin Aubrey Beam, on Tuesday, June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, Shelby, North Carolina."

Mrs. Post Honors Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shull.

Mrs. Ed Post was a charming hostess on Monday evening at 8 o'clock with a lovely bridge party, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shull who were recently married in Potosi, N. J. Mrs. Post received in a pink georgette evening gown, while the honoree, Mrs. Shull, was attired in green chiffon. The home was arranged with a profusion of beautiful mixed summer flowers and the bridge tables were graced with old fashioned pots of mixed flowers. The high score prizes were won by Mrs. Chas. Hoey and Mr. Al Bennett and the low score prizes by Mrs. R. M. Laughridge and Mr. Evans Shull. The honorees were presented with lovely gifts. Assisting Mrs. Post in entertaining and serving a delicious frozen salad

WE JUST SMILE AND SAW WOOD

When an old-timer drops in and suggests that things are not like they used to be, "Years ago," said he, "a man used to put powder in his gun and go out and get a deer; now the DEAR puts powder on her nose and goes out to get a man." After she gets the man she will insist on him using SINCLAIR gas and OPALINE oil for his car. The use of these products eliminates all the guesswork from motoring and substitutes the enjoyment of certified satisfaction.

Cleveland Oil Co. Distributors

course with accessories from pink and green glass plates emphasizing a color scheme of pink and green were, Mesdames R. M. Laughridge, Herman Eskridge, Jack Palmer, Horace Grigg and Miss Jeannette Post. The guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shull, Mr. and Mrs. Renn Drum, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Grigg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eskridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Casstevens, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Short, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Shull, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Laughridge, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Gold, Misses Elizabeth McBrayer and Lallage Shull.

Thomas-Kendall Wedding At Ridgeway.

St. Stephens Episcopal church at Ridgeway, S. C. was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Miss Sarah Thomas was married to Frank H. Kendall, of Shelby, Bishop Albert Thomas of the diocese of South Carolina, a cousin of the bride officiating. The church was lovely with green and white decorations. Graceful southern smilax outlined the arches, daisies banked the organ and white oleander and hydrangea added to its beauty. Brass vases holding white phlox were used on the altar with numbers of white candles. Mrs. Dexter Evans of Florence presided at the organ. Before the ceremony Mrs. Al Bennett sang in exquisite taste, two selections "At Dawning" and "United" and Henry Lee Weathers gave a beautiful violin selection entitled "Old Refrain."

At the first notes of the wedding march, the ushers, John LeMaster, Jr., of Columbia, and Whitelaw Kendall, of Shelby, a brother of the groom, took their places in the chancel. Following the ushers, the only bride's maid, Miss Dorothy Ruff entered, becomingly dressed in orchid chiffon with orchid slippers and carrying garden flowers tied with pink tulle. The dame of honor, Mrs. John Earle Jones wore an attractive dress of yellow chiffon with yellow slippers. She carried garden flowers with green tulle ribbons. The maid of honor Miss Annie Thomas, the bride's only sister, was handsomely attired in turquoise chiffon beaded in rhinestones. Her slippers were of the same tone and her arm bouquet of garden flowers was held with streamers of silver tulle. The bride who entered with her father, Mr. Samuel Peyre Thomas, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Henry Kendall of Danville, Va.

The bride was sweet and lovely in her wedding gown of heavy white satin with trimmings of white tulle beaded in pearls. Her veil was becomingly arranged in cap style with a band of rare old lace and edging of orange blossoms suiting her youthful beauty.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception followed at the home of the bride's father. Lovely summer flowers and plants were used throughout the house. Southern smilax twining the stairway and mingling with the bright blossoms. Receiving with the bride party were the bride's father, S. P. Thomas, her aunt, Miss May Thomas, the mother of the groom, Mrs. Henry Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ruff, sr., Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bennett of Shelby, Mrs. Dexter Evans, of Florence.

After congratulations were extended to the happy couple, the guests were asked to the dining room. Receiving the guests here were Mrs. Earl Hooten, Mrs. A. E. Heins and Miss Caroline Thomas. Cream was cut by Mrs. W. H. Ruff, sr., Mrs. W. B. Kenedy, Mrs. D. W. Ruff, jr., Mrs. Hartwell Traylor and served with cake. Punch was served throughout the evening by Misses Sara Kennedy, Henrietta Thomas, Susie Palmer and Mrs. W. H. Ruff, jr. The handsome presents were displayed in the library where Mrs. A. T. Moore and Mrs. J. N. LeMaster welcomed the guests. Others assisting in various parts of the house were Mrs. J. S. Edmunds, Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. W. C. Edmunds, Mrs. P. R. Scott and Mrs. Ceph Blanton.

The bride donned a smart going away dress of blue silk with a short coat. The egg shell accessories and becoming hat harmonized. The young couple will motor to various points in Virginia, before returning will visit relatives of the groom. They will make their home in Shelby where the groom is a popular young business man. Mrs. Kendall is the youngest daughter of Mr. S. P. Thomas and a recent graduate of Queen's college, Charlotte. Her happy, vivacious manner has won for her many friends at home and elsewhere. She taught in the Shelby city schools for the past two years.

The out-of-town guests were J. O. Thomas, Miss Louise Thomas, of Charlotte, Mrs. Dexter Evans of Florence, Miss Caroline Thomas of Columbia, Mrs. J. M. Armstrong and Miss Anne Armstrong of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. John E. Jones, of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Weathers, Mr. and Mrs. Ceph Blanton, Chas. L. Eskridge, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Quinn, Miss Flora Pettit, Clyde Nolan, Whitelaw Kendall, Mrs. H. E. Kendall, Miss Margaret Blanton, Mrs. Brevard Hennessa, all of Shelby; H. E. Kendall, of Danville, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman Kendall of Rocky Mount, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beatty and Miss Jenie Beatty, of Charlotte, Miss Isabel Laney, Wm.

Harty, John Walter Thomas of Columbia, Mrs. Charlie Hubbard of Shelby. The bride was the recipient of many prenuptial social courtesies. Miss Dorothy Ruff gave a bridge luncheon, Mrs. P. R. Scott entertained the card club; Mrs. W. E. Edmunds gave a bridge dinner; Mrs. Herbert Ruff gave a bridge tea and Mrs. R. C. Thomas gave a rehearsal party and buffet supper.

Shelby Route Two Items Of Interest

Shelby, R-2.—The members of the Junior Y. P. U. of Mt. Sinai were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Bridges Saturday evening. Interesting games were enjoyed during the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Weaver of Gaffney, visited Mrs. J. H. Rollins Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Self and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hopper and family of Shelby, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Chaupion Sunday. Mrs. Shivar Champion has recovered after a short illness. Miss Essie Harrill is attending summer school at Lenoir Rhyne college. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ellis spent Sunday with relatives in the Beaver Dam community. Mrs. J. H. Rollins had ripe tomatoes from her garden spend. Miss Gladys Ledbetter spent the week-end with Misses Mary C. and Rheama Clary. Mr. Andrew Hunt was a visitor in this community Monday afternoon. Mr. David Hardin's crib with its contents of corn was destroyed by fire Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Weaver and children visited friends in the Flint Hill section Sunday afternoon.

PREACHING AT PALM TREE CHURCH SUNDAY

There will be preaching at Palm Tree Methodist church near Lenoir Sunday morning June 30 at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. Q. Grigg and Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Mr. O'Kelley.

Scout Meeting.
All members of Belwood Boy Scouts, troop No. 1 are requested to be present at Belwood school building Thursday night, June 27 at 8 o'clock. The program will be presented by the Wolf patrol

THREE DAYS -- THUR. FRI. & SAT.

Sale Of Dresses

AT THE PARAGON

Thrifty buyers will take advantage of this cut price sale. Those who love pretty clothes will find in this sale a large selection of high grade dresses marked down to the season's lowest figures.

DRESSES

(Priced $29.50 to $39.50 Regular.)

Now $19.75

The cream of our stock included in this lot. Very best quality, styles and workmanship. Chiffon with short velvet jackets, plain and printed crepes georgettes and various other styles and fabrics of the best quality.

THESE ARE OUR BETTER DRESSES.

ONE GROUP
$19.50 Dresses
NOW $11.85

Long sleeves and sleeveless, dark and pastel colors. Plain and prints. These are truly good values and deserve your attention. First time this season offered at such low price.

NO TWO ALIKE

ONE GROUP
DRESSES
$8.85

Of course Silk Dresses can be bought most any place at this price—But wait 'til you see the quality, the style and workmanship in these. They are much better than the price sounds.

REAL VALUES

ON JULY 1ST THE N. C. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW GOES INTO EFFECT

All employers of labor must take this compensation insurance if five or more people are employed or become self-insurers, by putting up a bond, etc. Employers working less than five people may elect to take out this insurance (and it will pay you to have it) whether you work one, two, three or four.

YOU MUST ACCEPT OR REJECT THIS PROTECTION BY JULY 1ST

As the act becomes law on that date and you are subject to a penalty. We will be glad to explain this law and insurance to you—and give you this protection.

SEE US AT ONCE.

Insurance Department
CLEVELAND BANK & TRUST CO.

Wm. LINEBERGER, President.
R. E. CAMPBELL, Vice President.
J. J. LATIMORE, Secretary-Treasurer.
J. L. SUTTLE, Manager Insurance Dept.

BETTER GRADE Wash Dresses AND ENSEMBLES

1/4 TO 1/3

Less Than Regular

Grouped for clearance one large rack of better Wash Frocks—such makes as the "Home-Made" and "Nelly Dons."

Dresses you can wear most anywhere—including a few lovely ensembles of linen and pique. A large variety of styles and materials.

VERY BEST QUALITY

SPECIAL! Big Floppy HEMP HATS $3.95

Just the type hats so much in vogue right now. They were bought to sell at much higher price.

The Paragon Dept. Store
(SELLING THE BEST FOR LESS.)